HAND GRENADES

Such is Life

Isn't this world the darndest ?? And isn't life just the cussedest?? And aren't some things just the —est?? Just for instance, you practiced and dieted for weeks and weeks to make the basket ball team, and Dick informed you that he didn't see how any really nice girl could ever care for athletics, and he talked for a long time about woman's place being in the home, etc., etc.

Now you didn't give a hang what Dick thought about you, but he really has awfully good ideas about things—and—maybe he was a little bit right. Anyway, you decided you would henceforth haunt the kitchen. You sold your gym shoes, tennis racket, and swimming caps, to Elsie who doesn't know a golf ball from a football, and took the money—and quite a bit more—and bought a sewing basket—really a very pretty one, all rose-colored n' everything. And then you started to sew. You sewed and sewed and you thoroughly hated every stitch you took. Then, one day Dick asked you to sew a button on his coat, and you proudly hauled out the basket, but somehow you could not combine that miserable button with Dick's horrid coat. Every stitch went wrong. You jabbed yourself with the needle, and when the needle finally broke, you slammed the basket to the floor, flung Dick's coat at him, and fled tearfully upstairs.

Then, one Sunday night you tried to feed Dick. The lunch was to be real simple—coffee and toast. You got another girl to fix the coffee. All you needed to do was to heat it. You had sort of a struggle with the gas stove, but you talked to Dick so fast and furiously that he did not notice your unfamiliarity with it. And then the toast burned—absolutely to cinder. While you opened the windows to let the dense clouds of smoke roll out, the coffee boiled over. Just about that time Dick thought of an important engagement he had down town.

And to cap the climax, this afternoon, Dick is going to teach Elsie how to play tennis with the racket that used to be yours!!!

CO-EDS AT NORTHWESTERN BREAK 3 SWIM RECORDS
 Chicago, Ill., Feb. 25—Three girls' swimming records were broken for the Northwestern university tank, Thursday in an inter-class meet in which the freshmen defeated the sophomores 46 to 32, and the juniors defeated the seniors 33 to 23. The first record was broken by Miss Sylvia D. Weidenfelt, sophomore, who swam the forty yard side stroke in :33 2-5. Miss H. Abbott, freshman, swam the 110 yard free style in 1:42 2-5. The freshman relay team broke the record for the 160 yard relay, swimming the distance in 2:11.

NEBRASKA WILL ENTER TWO BIG TRACK EVENTS

Track men are making a spurt this week in an attempt to gain berths on the relay team which will enter the Illinois meet at Urbana, Saturday, March 6.

On March 13 the Kansas City Athletic Club meet will be held at Kansas City and Captain MacMahon states that Nebraska will be represented at this meet. This means that Coach Schulte will be working his men harder every day in hopes of bringing home some more laurels for Nebraska.

Some splendid foot work was shown last night at the athletic field in the mile and half mile runs. In the half mile Kenner gave Dorn a good race the time 2:08-1 which is exceptionally good for a board track. In the mile run Graff and Harper showed the best form. Graff came in first with a time of 4:52.

Captain MacMahon said the men showing up to the best advantage among the candidates were Dorn in the 880 and mile; Wright in the hurdles and Dale on the weights. With fifteen letter men and one hundred and fifty candidates out for track, Nebraska ought to have a first class team this year.
