POTATO EXHIBIT CAR WILL TOUR NEBRASKA

LINCOLN, Neb., March 4.—The Nebraska College of Agriculture is co-operating with the Burlington railroad and western Nebraska county farm bureaus in having a special potato exhibit car and meetings at the principal potato shipping points the week of March 15. About half the contents of the car will be from this state and the college will provide several of the specialists.

The car containing an exhibit of home-grown potatoes and information and exhibits on potato production, diseases, storage, marketing and growing certified seed, will be accompanied by President Jake Pedrett and Secretary H. O. Werner of the Nebraska Potato Improvement Association, railroad officials, county agricultural agents, specialists and others. Arrangements are pending for running the car over the Northwestern and Union Pacific roads.

The Burlington schedule follows: March 15—morning, Mitchell; afternoon, Morrill. March 16—morning, Scottsbluff; afternoon, Bayard; evening, Minatare. March 17—morning, Bridgeport; afternoon, Dalton. March 18—morning, Sidney; evening, Angora. March 19—morning, Alliance; afternoon, Hemingford. March 20—morning, Crawford; afternoon, Belmont.

Y. W. C. A.'s TO MEET IN CLEVELAND APRIL 13-20

From April 13 to 20 the Sixth Convention of the Young Women's Christian Associations of the United States will convene in Cleveland. Twenty-five hundred delegates are expected from the thousand centers located in small and large cities, town and country communities and colleges. From China, Japan, India, South America, Siberia, and the countries of Europe where the Y. W. C. A. has established work for girls, speakers and representatives will also come to give a worldwide report of what the Association has accomplished in the past five years. Unusual significance attaches to this Convention as it is the first to be held since 1915. The one called for 1918 was not held, in accordance with the general advice of the Government that all such gatherings be eliminated during the war period.

The Convention will assemble in Masonic Temple on the afternoon of April 13. All morning and afternoon sessions will be given over to the business of the Convention, to consideration of the many new and perplexing problems the Association faces in a world changed by years of war.

Changes Since 1915

"The face of the world has changed since we met in convention in Los Angeles in 1915," said Mrs. Robert E. Speer, President of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A., in her call of the Sixth Convention sent out recently to all general secretaries. "No change is greater than the new expectancy with which a troubled world looks to the mind and spirit of woman. Many problems of the present and future are in her hands. The call of the Sixth Convention is a summons to the members of the Young Women's Christian Association to seek the ways of the most effective service in a world which will never again be the same for women."

Two sections of the Association membership, the student and the industrial, are facing serious questions. Discussion of the basis of membership in a student Association and of a Christian order in industry are two of the problems that will engross the attention and the collective thinking of the twenty-five hundred women representing the thousands of Y. W. C. A. members in their home towns.

Addresses by Leaders

After the business of the day the evening sessions will be given over to addresses by men and women internationally known for their leadership in Christian thought. Dr. S. Earl Taylor, head of the Interchurch World Movement, Dr. Robert E. Speer, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Mission of the Presbyterian Church, and Bishop Frank J. McConnell, of the Methodist Church are among the men who will address the Convention on world questions and the relation of the Y. W. C. A. to them.

A committee on business to come before the Convention has been appointed with Mrs. John R. French, chairman of the Executive Committee of the National Board, as chairman. Serving with her are Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mrs. Burdette Lewis, Mrs. William Adams Brown, Mrs. Thomas S. Gladding, Mrs. William V. Hayes, Miss Mabel Cratty, Miss Margaret E. Burton, Miss Henrietta Roelofs, Miss Louise Holmquist, Miss Leslie Blanchard, Miss Eliza R. Butler, and Miss Anna V. Rice.
