

Society

Friday, March 12

The junior class entertained at their annual Promenade in the large ball room at the Lincoln Hotel. About eighty couples were present. Following the dinner Miss Vera Boyle, of Lincoln, gave a series of dances and songs. The colors of the class rose and Nile green, were used as the color scheme in the decorations, which took the form of shaded candles on the tables, and floor lamps with the matching shades. Chaperons for the evening were: Professor and Mrs. E. H. Barbour, and Professor and Mrs. Paul H. Gramann. The committee in charge was as follows: Jesse Patty, chairman, James Lucas, Carl Howard, Earl Coryell, LaVerne Thietje, Mary Burton, and Florence Wilcox.

Eighty couples were entertained at an informal dancing party by the University Commercial Club. The main dining room of the Commercial Club was used for dancing, decorated with scarlet and white streamers on the walls and ceiling, and tall flower baskets of red carnations. A special feature of the party was a barrage of paper ribbon streamers directed towards the dancers. The committee for the evening was: Milton Rosenbaum, chairman; Wallace Herrick, and Russell Weimer. Chaperons were Professor and Mrs. J. E. Kirshman, Professor and Mrs. O. E. Martin, Professor and Mrs. J. E. Le Rossignol, and Professor and Mrs. D. F. Cole.

Achoth was hostess at a house-dance given at the chapter house. About twenty couples were present. Decorations were green and white crepe paper streamers, and these colors, in memory of Saint Patrick, were further carried out in the refreshments. Chaperons were Professor and Mrs. Parker, and Mrs. J. H. Reed.

Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalistic sorority for women, gave an informal four-course luncheon in the west balcony of the dining room at the Commercial Club. About twenty members of the fraternity were present. Plans for the convention, to be held in Madison, Wisconsin, March 29 to April 6, were discussed in the meeting following the luncheon.

Sigma Phi Epsilon entertained at the annual spring party given in the large ball room of the Lincoln Hotel. One hundred couples were present. Spring flowers in baskets and festoons decorated the hall, and red and purple, the fraternity colors, appeared in the lamp shades. Chaperons were Professor and Mrs. E. H. Barbour, Professor and Mrs. P. W. Ivey, Coach and Mrs. Schulte, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Minnick, Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Bennet, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rickson.

Saturday, March 13

Valkyrie, honorary society for senior girls entertained at the second of their series of Twilight Teas at the Alpha Phi house from three to five. About thirty guests were present. Dresden baskets of spring flowers were the decorations used in the rooms. The tea table, presided over by Sadie Finch, was decorated with crystal candle sticks holding pale green candles tied with white and green tulle bows. The following program was presented: Elizabeth Doyle, Oriental Dance, Florene Reed, whistling solo, Irene Barton, violin solo, Margaret Perry, a series of folk songs, and Esther Dunn, piano solo.

Delta Zeta was hostess to ninety guests at their annual formal dancing party at the Lincoln Hotel. The sorority colors, rose and Nile green, were used in the shades of the floor lamps, and in the baskets of roses and ferns. Chaperons were: Miss Amanda Heppner, Mrs. C. F. Jones, Dean and Mrs. P. M. Buck, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Emerson, Colonel and Mrs. John Maher. Out-of-town guests were Bernice Lamson, Council Bluffs, Elizabeth Lubbs, Edith Wakefield, Mildred Price, Garnet Grover, Ada Robertson, Gertrude Ramsey, all of Manhattan, Kansas, Phyllis McCann, and Ruth Enyeart, Columbus, Marian Burns, Kansas City, Esther Ellinghusen, Omaha, Sara Silber, Waterbury, Doris Nichols, Oakland, Mrs. Dwight Thomas, Curtis, Mrs. Walter Hughes, Julesburg, Colorado, Josephine Tursell, Broken Bow, and Verna Wolfe, McCook.

Alpha Sigma Phi was host to fifty couples at an informal dance given at the Woman's Building. Crepe paper decorations of cardinal and wine, the fraternity colors, were used. Those invited as chaperons were Professor and Mrs. A. D. Pierce, Professor and Mrs. E. B. Barbour, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Dunaway. Out-of-town guests were as follows: Wilson Bryans, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. See, Milton Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Langdon, Leonard Winterdon, Byron Hunter, all of Omaha, Charles Angell, Ulysses, Robert Burford, Fairbury.

Thirty couples were entertained at a house dance given by Sigma Nu at the chapter house. Black and gold lamp shades on tall floor lamps carried out the fraternity colors, black and gold, and these colors were further carried out in the refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Rosewell Weews were invited as chaperons. William Mackey and Kenneth Parson, of Omaha, were the out-of-town guests.

The annual banquet of Kappa Alpha Theta was held in the main ball room of the Lincoln Hotel. Several tables, seating eight, were placed to form a semicircle. These were decorated with bowls of goldfish as the centerpiece, surrounded by vases of smilax in which were placed black and gold butterflies. At each place was a brass candlestick, with a gold candle covered by shades of black and gold crepe paper. Out-of-town guests and alumni were: Clara Lindley, Omaha, Grace Cooley Cillins, Hebron, Marie Rose, North Platte, Alice Deweese, Dawson, Margaret Wheeler Cassidy, Des Moines, Louis Spier, Willa Spier Modiste, Jessica Margan, Bernice Patring, Lola Howard, Rachel Metcalfe, Erma Jones Yort, Charlotte Loomis, Florence Jenks, Geraldine Grey Burr, Lora McCord Cox, and Zola Dellecker Grant, all of Omaha, Luella Patt, Iowa City, Iowa, Grace Bonekemper, York, Leota Otto, Geneva, Sarah Weston, Beatrice, Helen Dill Weiger, Grand Island, Emily Cox, York, Dorothy Lynn, Grand Island, Louise Reynolds, Hastings, Orpha Newton, Chadron, Helen Quinn, Aurora, Marjorie Caldwell, Pawnee City, Gratia Green Dunn, Hastings.

WRIGLEYS

For mother, father, the boys and girls. It's the sweet for all ages—at work or play.

When you're nervous or tired, see how it refreshes!

The Flavor Lasts

SEALLED TIGHT-KEPT RIGHT

OXFORDS, PUMPS, SPORTS SHOES

We, a popular priced, by that we Mean

$6.00 to $12.00

Always Glad to Show Goods.

School Heels

$7.00 to $10.00

FOOT COMFORT SERVICE

THE BOOTERY

1230 St.

Bevo

The all-year-round soft drink

Fellowship—in college or out of it—flourishes best with good food and wholesome drink. Ice-cold Bevo—unexcelled among beverages in purity and healthfulness—is most satisfying drink by itself or as a refreshment with food that makes a happier repast.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH, ST. LOUIS

It must be Ice Cold