IVY DAY SUB-COMMITTEES TO ARRANGE MAY PROGRAM

A meeting of the Senior Ivy Day Committee was held Tuesday morning. The general idea of the program and events of the day were discussed but no definite conclusions were reached.
 A committee consisting of Ralph Brehm, Herbert Gustafson and Harold Lewis was appointed to see about obtaining the use of Capital Beach for that day.
 A committee consisting of Marian Henninger, Ruth Wilson and Margaret Perry was appointed to find out just what details are needed for the morning program.
 Another committee meeting will be held Tuesday at eleven o'clock to further discuss the Ivy Day plans. The Senior Committee will need the co-operation of the class Ivy Day Committees. There will probably be a meeting of the entire committee shortly after spring vacation.

FRANKFORTER TO LECTURE ON "EXPLOSIVES" FRIDAY

"Explosives" will be the subject of Professor C. J. Frankforter's lecture at five o'clock Friday afternoon, March 26, in the general lecture room of Chemistry Hall. This will be the third lecture in the series offered by the Chemistry Club. All students will be welcome.
 The lecture will consist of a brief and non-technical discussion of the manufacture and use of powders, explosives and small arms ammunition. A series of slides, illustrating the manufacture of the U. S. rifle and its ammunition, will be shown. The peace-time use of explosives will be considered as well as the war-time use. Professor Frankforter served as captain in the ordnance and chemical warfare service during the war.

EXHIBIT COMMITTEE COMPLETES FAIR PLANS

The State University General Committee for the State Fair Exhibit met yesterday in the office of Chairman George R. Chatburn, at five o'clock. Preliminary plans were completed for the University exhibition. The next meeting of the committee will be held in the Temple at six o'clock, Monday evening, March 29. This meeting will include committee members from all the different divisions for the exhibit.

QUALITY IS ECONOMY

Get more wear out of your clothes

That's the answer to your clothes problem

All clothes are higher priced whether they are good or bad.

So there's just one way to make your clothes less.

Get good ones; the kind that wear the longest; that lowers your clothes cost per day; you spent less by the year.

That's the kind of service we can give you; more wear and a lower cost.

Hart Schaffner & Marx makes the clothes; all-wool and stylish; if you aren't satisfied that you get your money's worth you'll get your money back.

You can save about $25 on your next suit by purchasing one of these Fall and Winter Suits, now for—
