AVERY EXPLAINS ABOUT DECISION

Huskies Re-Admitted to Conference When Rules Are Complied With.

RUTGERS GAME ONLY BAR

Chancellor Avery has issued the following statement in regard to the re-admission of Nebraska into the Missouri Valley Conference:

"In order to correct any possible misunderstanding I wish to state publicly exactly what was done at the Kansas City Conference of Presidents and Governing Boards.

"Though Nebraska is not a member I was awarded the courtesies of the Conference, including permission to speak on any and all subjects up for discussion. As nearly as I can remember them the motions that prevailed were as follows:

"Nebraska is hereby re-admitted to the Missouri Valley Conference when the institution finds itself in a position to comply with Conference rules and when the president of the association of governing boards is notified of that fact."

"Pending the re-admission of Nebraska to the Conference and in view of its application for return, the recommendation of the Conference of governing boards against scheduling games with Nebraska is rescinded."

Rutgers Game Only Bar

"The only bar to immediate return is the contract with Rutgers to play at New York City. The Penn State game is on college grounds. No assurance was given the members of the Conference, nor was it asked, that steps should be taken to cancel the New York game. If, however, through any possible readjustment of schedules this contract should be abrogated Nebraska could return at once to full Conference relations, otherwise it will remain out of the Conference until after this game is played. The press statements that the return of Nebraska was conditioned on the certificate."

NEBRASKA WILL SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO BIG CHICAGO MEETING

May Sessions of Collegiate Business Schools Will Choose Uniform Degree for Graduates.

The University of Nebraska is to be represented at the May meeting of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Business to be held in Chicago, May 6, 7 and 8. Important decisions are to be made at this meeting and a large representation from preparatory schools and colleges is expected.

One of the things that will probably be decided, that will be of particular interest to University of Nebraska students, is the choosing of the degree to be given graduates from schools of business. The University of Nebraska now gives the degree of Bachelor of Science of Business Administration. Other colleges give an A. B. degree, Bachelor of Economics, etc., and as there is no uniformity at this time, there seems to be some misunderstanding as to what these terms stand for.

Students who are interested in this subject should talk to the Dean of the College of Business Administration and any helpful suggestion that they may make will be considered.

DELIANS TO PICNIC AT CRETE SOMETIME IN MAY

At a special business meeting Monday evening, members of the Delian Literary Society decided to hold their annual picnic this year at Crete. They plan to leave Lincoln on Friday and return the following Sunday. Committees are busy working on elaborate camp plans and the picnic promises to be a success.

PARADE BY BEST DRILLED MEN POSTPONED A WEEK

The parade by the crack battalion and the band which was scheduled for this afternoon, has been postponed for a week due to the condition of the field. Rifles will not be drawn at the five o'clock period but all companies will form as usual and the period will be spent at the Temple.

It is hoped that weather conditions will be such by next Tuesday that the regular Tuesday evening parades can be started. The battalion which has made the best showing thus far in the semester will stage the first parade and one will be given every Tuesday evening at the regular five o'clock drill period.

COLOR WEEK NEW SENIOR TRADITION

Class of '20 Says it Fosters Democracy Among Fourth-Year Students.

Any Member is Eligible to Write Poem Which Will be Read Ivy Day.

Color Week, originated by the Class of '20, will start May 3 and will be followed by the Senior Hop, the Senior Play and Ivy Day—a full month for the Seniors. A call has been issued for a Senior poem to be read Ivy Day.

This year's Senior Class planned Color Week for the purpose of fostering closer acquaintance among the members of the class. A committee will provide the Seniors with the University colors. Each Senior is expected to wear these in the manner of a pledge ribbon and speak to every other person he sees wearing the colors during that week beginning Monday morning, May 3 and closing with the Senior mixer the following Saturday night, May 8. Ruth Sheldon, chairman of the Color Week Committee said, "The only way Color Week can be a success is for each person to be conscious of his responsibility."

Everyone in the Senior Class is eligible to compete in writing the Senior poem. This is annually written by some Senior and read by the author on Ivy Day. The subject is left to the choice of the writer. The poem must be submitted to the President of the Senior Class or to some member of the Ivy Day Committee by May 1. A committee, perhaps chosen from the professors of rhetoric, will select the best poem and its author will have the honor of reading it Ivy Day.

Ivy Day will be May 19. It will be preceded by the Senior Hop, May 15, and the Senior Play, May 18.

JUNIOR HOP TICKETS MAY BE BOUGHT TODAY

Committee Members Predict Peppiest Party of Year for Third Year Class.

"The Junior Hop, to be held at the Rosewilde Party House, Friday, May 7, will be one long remembered by the fortunate ones attending," said one of the committee members yesterday. As only one hundred tickets are to be validated, it is expected that they will all be sold within a few days.

The committee working on the party promises several special features that will make it unique. These attractions, according to the committee, will make this the peppiest class party of the year? They have arranged for the best music possible, have a good entertainment planned, and refreshments will be served.

Tickets can be purchased from members of the committee for $1.50 beginning today, April 20. The committee is composed of Luther G. Andrews, William Watson, Helen Downing, Jesse Patty, Stanley R. Hall, Donna Gustin and President James Lucas.

OMAHA DAY IS IN THE BALANCE

Whether Students Will Visit Big City this Spring Rests With Metropolis.

Omaha Day this year hangs in the balance. Omaha students are agitating its consideration, and Dean Engberg is corresponding with Omaha.

Every spring, since Omaha Day was originated a number of years ago, University students have taken a day's vacation to visit Omaha. This year at Omaha's suggestion it was planned to postpone Omaha Day till next fall and have it at the same time as a football game the University was scheduled to play at Omaha. Now the University has petitioned for re-admission into the Missouri Valley Athletic Conference, and the petition was granted April 17. This will make it impossible for the Cornhusker team to play at Omaha and the question of Omaha Day has arisen. Those connected with it are wondering whether it will be held next fall as planned or this spring according to custom.

Omaha's preference will decide the matter. Dean Engberg wrote Omaha some time ago, but has received no reply. He explained that Omaha was probably waiting until it was known definitely whether the game there would be abandoned.

A group of Omaha students met last week and appointed Ray Stryker to consult Dean Engberg, Chancellor Avery and the Omaha Commercial Club about this matter. About the same time mysterious red posters displaying the word "Omaha" with question marks above and below appeared in conspicuous places about the campus. Some connected these with Omaha Day, but more definite information indicates that they refer to the organization of an Omaha Club.

What Is An Ideal Date? It Seems To Change As Degree Approaches

There are over two-thousand men enrolled in the University, consequently there are just that many different ideas as to what the women enjoy as amusement during their leisure hours.

The Freshman has an idea all of his own. He thinks the average keen women should be wild about him and his high school jokes cracked in a most boisterous manner. If the Freshman comes from a small town his date should like to tramp over the hills all day in search of rabbits.

The Sophomore comes back from his first summer at home, resolved that he will be a bear among women. He will propose a canoe trip up the river. He swears his girl should like a Sunday evening date without the usual box of candy. No woman should even think of wanting to keep the date rule.

The Junior has the idea that he is going to find his ideal his soul-mate. He dates steady and has the privilege of dating anyone he chooses but the woman must remain true to him. If he does not care to go to a certain dance she should not want to go. And the women who do not date, either because they do not have the

W. S. G. A. ELECTION WILL CLOSE TODAY

Officers and Board Members from Each Class to be Selected.

Point System, Discussed All Year, Will Also Meet Fate at Polls in Library.

The W. S. G. A. is holding elections of its next year's officers and board members Monday and Tuesday in the library building. The Point System is also being voted upon. The polls will close at five o'clock today. All University girls who have paid their W. S. G. A. dues are qualified to vote.

A president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and the board members will be elected from the following nominees: Juniors—Marjorie Barstow, Ruth Begley, Mary Brownell, Ethel Hoagland, Ruth Lindsay, Rhe Nelson, Florence Wilcox; Sophomores—Mary Herzog, Ruth Fickes, Lois Melton, Elizabeth Scribner, Mary Sheldon, Katherine Wills; Freshmen—Muriel Allen, Nell Bates, Jean Holtz, Mary Redgwick, Mary Temple, Flavia Waters.

The point system has been a subject of discussion all year. The plan is to credit the girls with a certain number of points for each activity in which they take part. A maximum number of points is provided so that one girl cannot take part in everything. This will prevent overwork on her part and will give other girls a chance.

Alpha Gamma Rho announces the pledging of Walter Burk, '23, of Osceola.

HUSKERS LEAVE FOR OKLAHOMA

Word From Sooner State Gives Assurance that Trip Will be Made.

NEBRASKA IS CONFIDENT

Coach Schissler and his baseball proteges will leave this noon for Stillwater, Oklahoma, where they are scheduled for a frame of combats with the Oklahoma A. and M. Wednesday and Thursday. The Southern migration was assured Monday morning when a message was received from Coach Bennie Owen of the Oklahoma State University stating inasmuch as Nebraska had been admitted into the Missouri Valley Conference that his school would sign contracts for a two day series of games on Friday and Saturday.

"The trip would not warrant the expense and time for the team for only two games," said Schissler. "I am glad that Owen's school has reconsidered the matter and has given us the opportunity of meeting the Sooners."

A Strong Team

The recent inclement weather has prohibited the locals from putting on the finishing touches before making the first foreign invasion. The excellent showing against Wesleyan last Friday is good evidence that Nebraska has the goods to drub both Oklahoma teams. The daily workouts at M street park has given the opportunity of whipping together a record-breaking aggregation of ball artists. Student rail-birds declare the team is demonstrating mid-season form and if the work is continued at the present rate the University of Nebraska will be a strong contender for the Valley bunting.

Fourteen men will be taken on the trip according to the statement made (Continued on Page Four)

500 TICKETS WILL BE VALIDATED FOR FIRST-YEAR MIXER

Freshmen to Expend $175 in Order to Insure Success of Big Dance.

De Ford's jazz-hounds will go the limit Friday night, April 23, when they will play for the Freshmen Mixer to be held in the Armory. From the word "go" they'll be off and those who know the jazzy variety of DeFord's music, will be there when the band starts playing.

Jazzy music, cabaret entertainment, tasty refreshments, splendid checking facilities, and games and other amusements for those who do not dance promise to make this the best mixer of the year. Tickets are on sale and are in the hands of the Green Goblins and members of the Freshmen Mixer Committee composed of Mike Miles, chairman, Fred Richards, Emma Cross, Blanche Neff, Tudor Gardiner, Bernice Scoville, Gladys Miekkel, Robert McCandless, Pauline Moore, Alta Thietje, L. C. Yeager, Mildred Sparks and Eugene Phibrick.

With the exception of a few dollars to take care of last minute expenses, every dollar received from the five hundred tickets validated, is to be spent. "Every possible thing that will make the party a success will be made use of," said one of the Committee. "We want to make it the most successful mixer of the year."
