CADETS WHO GO CAMPING TO RECEIVE VACCINATION

All students who are planning to attend the summer R. O. T. C. camp, June 17 to July 28, should report to Dr. A. H. Webb in the Pharmacy Hall for the triple typhoid vaccination. The War Department requires that all students attending the summer camps be given this inoculation, and to this end the Military Department has secured from the Army Medical School, Washington, D. C., enough vaccine to permit all those students who so desire to secure their inoculations before June 17. It is especially desired that all vaccinations be completed before this date in order to avoid a loss of several days at camp. Certificates of inoculation will be furnished upon request and these should be saved and presented at the camp.

DR. LAURA B. PFFIEFFER GOES TO SWITZERLAND

Dr. Laura B. Pfeiffer, of the European History Department, left the latter part of last week for Geneva, Switzerland, where she will attend the international congress for woman suffrage as the alternate delegate for Mrs. W. E. Barkley of Lincoln. This is the second time that the University of Nebraska has been represented by professors in international conferences in the last few years. Dr. F. M. Fling, also of the European History Department was one of the historians at the Peace Conference.

After attending the Woman Suffrage Congress, Miss Pfeiffer will go to Paris where she will meet Miss Ona Wagner, also of the European History Department here, and they both will do historical research for the summer.

ENGINEERS HAVE MOTION PICTURE TREAT TUESDAY

Moving pictures showing the manufacture of air compressors and the mining and transportation of coal were given under the auspices of the American Association of Mechanical Engineers in Nebraska Hall Tuesday during convocation hour. The first pictures illustrated the processes and machinery used in the making of air compressors and mining machinery. The story of coal was then shown on the screen. The different types of mining machinery, the transportation of coal by rail and by water were set forth in detail. The films were furnished by the Sullivan firm of Chicago.

MARY WATERS IS QUEEN OF MAY

carrying a bouquet of white roses. She wore a white satin dress. The little twin boys held up her train. At the end of the procession were the six attendants. They wore yellow and lavender organdie dresses with halo hats of the same colors.

The Coronation

Fae Breeze, the maid of honor, took the crown and placed it on Mary Waters' head. On the throne on the platform Mary Waters reigned as Queen of the May during the rest of the program. The next part of the program was a vocal solo by Margaret Perry. Then Genevieve Freeman read the class poem composed by herself. Twelve girls dressed in light blue and tartan dresses gave a dance.

George Driver, senior president, and James Lucas, junior president, walked up the central path side by side. Phillip Brownell carried the ivy, which was sent by General Pershing. He handed it to the May Queen and she presented it to George Driver. He and Lucas went to the north side of the Administration Building where Driver planted it.

Twenty-three Senior girls in white Grecian robes gave the May Pole dance. The class gift to the University was presented by Helen Giltner, president of the Black Masques. As the gift is an arch in the new stadium, it could not be actually presented, but Helen Giltner handed a scroll upon which the announcement was written to the Queen. She read it. H. P. Cravengaard delivered the Ivy Day oration as the conclusion of the program. It is printed separately.
