Society

There is always a freshness about the fall party that the formal season rather wears out. But these last spring parties, perhaps because they are the last, quite equal their predecessors. There is a certain something about lanterns and lilacs and fluffy organdie dresses that gives to the spring party its distinction. And then, those of us who are not coming back want to make the last parties something to remember—and generally we succeed.

Friday, May 21
Delta Gamma

Delta Gamma held a spring dancing party Friday evening in Woman's Hall. The decorations were in lavender and shades of purple. Irises and lilacs carried out the color scheme. The punch and candies served further blended with the decorations. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Hovland, Mrs. A. G. Plehn, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sardeson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Chapin, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hines.

Phi Delta Theta

Phi Delta Theta was host at an attractive party at the fraternity house. The yard was hung with Japanese lanterns and fitted with rustic seats. A two-course supper was served at the close of the evening and ices were served during the dancing. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lau, Mr. and Mrs. Phil McCullough and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harding chaperoned.

Bushnell Guild

Bushnell Guild entertained at an Oriental spring party at the Lincoln Hotel. Chinese lanterns strung across the ballroom in a zig-zag manner carried out the Oriental effect. Shade lamps with bright colors of the Orient were placed at intervals at the sides of the room. A decorative feature of the party was an image of Buddha, the Asiatic God, ten feet high, which was in a conspicuous place. During the evening incense of different perfumes was burned and lent an Oriental atmosphere to the affair. Favors consisting of small daggers, little dogs, Chinese whistles and Oriental head pieces were given to the guests. Out-of-town visitors were Ted Frank, Frank Panstian, Omaha; Ross Hill, Manhattan, Kans.; Eric Kelley, Atkinson.

Alpha Chi Omega

Alpha Chi Omega entertained forty couples at a house dance. The rooms were attractive with apple blossoms in large baskets. Dr. and Mrs. George E. Condra chaperoned the affair.

Alpha Xi Delta

Alpha Xi Delta was hostess to a series of parties. Friday evening the chapter entertained for Hazel Miller who is to be married soon to Ralph Thiesen. A crystal salad was presented to the guest of honor at the dinner party. Saturday the members of the lower classes entertained for the Seniors in the Chinese Room of the Lincoln Hotel. Sunday afternoon the alumnae entertained the active chapter at a tea at the chapter house.

Teachers' College

The Junior class of the Teachers' College practice school gave a dinner to the Seniors. The dinner was prepared and served by the cooking class under the direction of Miss Jessie Harris. The student teacher of the class was Miss Helen Erickson, who received many compliments for her work. Covers were laid for sixty-three.

The toasts were arranged in newspaper form with "The Prod" as the general subject for the evening. Speeches were made by:
Dean Charles Fordyce.....Daily Drift
Morrell Do Ran.....Minerva's Mail
Supervisor Ona Wagner.....

Mary Eisele.....Limericks

Saturday, May 22
Phi Kappa Psi

Thirty active members of Phi Kappa Psi entertained at a spring picnic at Horkey's Park, Crete. The couples made the trip in cars. Boating on the Blue River, and impromptu baseball games featured the day. Because of the heavy rain in the afternoon the picnic dinner was served in the pavilion cafeteria style. Dancing was the program for the evening. Out-of-town visitors were Winslow Van Brunt, Joe Hepperlen and Paul Sackett of Beatrice; and Sam Kellogg of Percival, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Wardner G. Scott chaperoned the party.

Pi Kappa Phi

Pi Kappa Phi held its annual picnic at Beatrice. Forty couples made the trip in automobiles in the afternoon. A picnic lunch was served on the banks of the Blue River in the evening. Dancing in the Country Club was a feature of the picnic. Music was furnished by a six-piece orchestra from Lincoln. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde B. Dempster and Mr. and Mrs. Harlow F. Weatherbee, all of Beatrice.

Kappa Delta

Fifty couples attended the spring party of Kappa Delta which was held in the ballroom of the Lincoln Hotel. Bowls of roses and blue shaded lamps decorated the room. The feature of the evening was a feature dance during which favors of whistles, horns and caps were given out. Professor and Mrs. Barbour, Dean and Mrs. Engberg, and Dr. and Mrs. Hinman chaperoned the party.

Cadet Officers Association

Forty cadet officers attended the annual banquet of the Cadet Officers Association in the Garden Room at the Lincoln Hotel. A five course dinner was served after which toasts were given, under the direction of the Adjutant. The program:
"Chlorine," Harold Long, ex-Cadet Colonel, 2nd Lieut. Infantry R. C.
"Hot-Air," Cadet Captain of Infantry.
"More Hot-Air," Cadet Captain of Artillery.
"Phosgene (Poison)," J. Burks Harley, Cadet Colonel.

Kappa Delta Phi

Kappa Delta Phi Freshmen entertained the upperclassmen at a house dance. Thirty-five couples attended. Professor and Mrs. J. E. Kirschman and Professor and Mrs. W. W. Burr were the chaperons. Streamers of green and white, the Freshmen colors, were used in decorating the chapter house. Numerous colored balloons were suspended from the ceiling. Ices and punch were served during the evening. Serpentine were thrown and ticklers passed around. Among the out-of-town guests were Misses Antoinette Paine, of Chicago; Marie Cejnar, Steffie and Irma Klepetko, Sylvia Kutak and Lillian Anderson, of Omaha; Messrs. H. J. Winchester, of Knox College, Galesburg, Ill.; C. S. Halderman, Ames College, Ames, Ia.; E. G. Robison, of Cornell University; Professor C. C. Minter, of Ames, Ia.; and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kuska, of Colby, Kans.

Delta Zeta

A unique lilac party was given by the active members of Delta Zeta at Woman's Hall. Solo dancing by a tiny girl who scattered flowers and favors among the guests was a feature of the affair. Out-of-town guests were Marian Durns, Kansas City, Mo.; Winifred Estes, Broken Bow; and Ruby Bamy, of Sterling.

Alpha Gamma Rho

Thirty couples attended a spring dance given by Alpha Gamma Rho at the chapter house. Twenty-fifth and Q streets. Flowers and ferns were intermingled with the fraternity colors—green and gold. Professor and Mrs. Granlich and Lieutenant and Mrs. Murphy acted as enaperons.

Kappa Alpha Theta

Kappa Alpha Theta was hostess at an informal party at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Flower-covered lattice work and flying kites, symbolical of the sorority pin, formed attractive decorations. Mrs. E. C. Stivers chaperoned.

Sigma Alpha Iota

The mothers and patronesses of the sorority were entertained by the active chapter. Spring flowers and roses in large baskets lent an attractive air to the party. Tea was served by the Freshmen during the afternoon. Red roses and souvenir programs containing pictures of the chapter members were given out as favors. A musical program was enjoyed during the afternoon.

M. M. FOGG SPEAKS AT PALISADE AND STRATTON

Prof. M. M. Fogg was at Palisade Thursday where he gave the commencement address and in the afternoon in the theater gave a lecture, "Over Nebraskans' Battlefields in France," illustrated by views he took while director of the College of Journalism of the A. E. F. University. He also was the commencement speaker at Stratton Friday evening, his subject being "Straight Thinking and Democracy."

A Word About The New Summer Hats!

Here are lovely affairs of leghorn, horse hair and meline to go with fluffy frocks—not to mention the ORGANDIE HATS to exactly match your organdie dresses.

For SPORTS WEAR, you will find every sort of style in all of the sweater shades—some of ribbon, some of Batavia cloth—some of straw, but all unmistakably smart.

And then of course, NAVY TAF-FETA HATS to wear with one's suit.
