COMMITTEE OF TWO HUNDRED LAUNCHES BIG DRIVE TODAY

TWO ORGANIZED TEAMS OF STUDENTS READY TO SOLICIT FUNDS FOR UNITED BUDGET.

Student Representatives Already Have Planned for Big Banquet to Be Held October 12 in Scottish Rite Temple—Movement is Worthy of United Student Support.

Today the Committee of Two Hundred begins the drive for funds which are to support its work throughout the coming year. On Friday in this paper was printed something of the history of the movement. The Committee has already demonstrated its practical work during the registration week and the program which they have is not something which is theoretical but something which will do big business for the University in a religious way during the year which is to come.

Big Banquet October 12.

The program for the first semester of this year is printed elsewhere in this issue. Special emphasis is to be placed upon the banquet of 1,000 students to be held on October 12 and addressed by Dr. John Timothy Stone, of Chicago. The Scottish Rite Temple has been secured by the program committee for this banquet.

To carry on as extensive program as this requires an increased budget. The budget of the churches which are affiliated with the movement and the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. are combined and total $7,315. There is no way in which a student can be more loyal to the University than to give liberally to this cause.

Teams Announced.

The organization for the financial campaign is composed of two divisions of teams. Division "A" under Harry Linton has the following men and women as captains of teams: Laurence Slater, Mary Brownell, Harold Skelton, Ada Stidworthy, Archie Jones, Lucile Tourtelot, Derwin Bay, Margaret Henderson, Ernest Lundeen, Mary Herzog, Glen Dorsey, Marion Mote, Wm. Altstadt, Mary Sheldon and Kenneth McCandless. Division "B" under Miss Janet Mailand has as captains: Mary Baker, Floyd Old, Ethel Curry, Sam Brownell, Grace Stiff, Paul Cook, Ruth Pickett, William Hill, Olive Hartley, Joy Guilford, Hattie Hepperly, Clyde Wilcox, Agnes Lorison, John Wilburn and Florence Price. Although the Committee of Two Hundred uses students in carrying out their work and is itself composed of students, our faculty, leading students and graduate students are heartily behind the movement. The following are some of the statements from those who are most vitally interested in the movement, which show just how important they believe the work of this Committee is.

Has Faculty Endorsement.

The faculty has heartily endorsed the work of the Committee of Two Hundred on the University of Nebraska campus. Following are comments by several University professors and one student in regard to the movement:

"The plans of the Committee of Two Hundred have my most cordial approval"—Chancellor Avery.

"I consider it an exceedingly valuable piece of work and the whole University should by all means get behind and support the Committee of Two Hundred to the best of its ability"—Dean Carl C. Engberg.

"This is the most important and significant movement for social and religious work that has ever been attempted at the University of Nebraska"—Professor A. A. Reed.

"There is a wonderful future ahead for the work the Committee of Two Hundred has set out to do. It means the doing of real things, by real men and women. Surely in no place can such things be carried on better than right here in our own University"—Harry L. Reed, (Law 2).

The 1920-21 plan for the Committee of Two Hundred follows:

1. First Semester—First Half of Semester.
 - a. Adjustment of students.
 - a. Meeting of trains.
 - b. Assist in finding rooms.
 - c. Assist in registration.
 - d. Assist in finding employment.
 - e. Social activities.
 1. Campus. Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. mixers, September 15-16.
 2. Church. Open house—Friday, September 17. General reception, September 24.
2. Help connect students with churches.
 - a. Invite students to attend

Campaign Starts Today For Sale of Student Football Tickets

The campaign for the sale of five-dollar football season tickets is on in full swing this morning. The prize of a round trip ticket to the New York and Pennsylvania games is being eagerly sought after by many of the co-eds who have been extracting promises from their fellow students for several days. If the goal of $3,000 is to be reached, according to those in charge, a greater enthusiasm than ever before will have to be shown by the student body.

The game with Washburn next Saturday opens the home season of six games. Some of the other games are with Notre Dame, Michigan Aggies and Washington State. The price of five dollars for such games should attract every loyal Husker student according to the opinion expressed by F. W. Luehring, director of athletics.

Many of the organizations on the campus have been concentrating on one person through whom they will sell all their tickets. The solicitors will give the purchaser cards which entitle them to a season ticket booklet, which may be purchased at the Student Activities office later.

WOLFE RESEARCH FUND INCREASES

CONTRIBUTIONS FROM ALL PARTS OF WORLD RECEIVED.

Many Alumni Have Responded to Call for Assistance in Creation of Fellowship Fund.

The Harry Kirk Wolfe Research Fellowship in Philosophy continues to receive contributions from all parts of the world. This is the first research fellowship to be started in the University, and it is to be in memory of Dr. Harry Wolfe, who was formerly head of the Department of Philosophy. In the spring of 1919 the Padian Literary Society upon consultation with the faculty decided upon a fellowship fund of $10,000 as a memorial which the University of Nebraska could dedicate to one of her greatest teachers. This fund will enable some earnest student of psychology to engage in an intensive study of the subject.

First Philosophy Teacher. Dr. Wolfe was the first teacher of Philosophy in the University. He founded the present Department of Philosophy, and was especially interested in Psychology. In his relations with the students he exerted an influence which has never been forgotten by those with whom he came in contact.

One of the greatest needs of the University has been the establishment of fellowships which allow students to carry on research in higher work. It is the interest in investigation that these fellowships allow upon which the art of teaching rests.

The members of the graduate council issued a formal request to the Chancellor encouraging contributions. The Padian Literary Society has pledged to raise $3,000 of the $10,000 which is the amount of the endowment of the fund.

Additional Subscribers.

Henry Baldwin Ward, head of the Zoology Department at the University of Illinois, in a letter written to Professor H. C. Caldwell, treasurer of the Padian Society, asks to be placed on the list of the contributors. Mr. Ward is an honorary member of the Padian Society. Dr. E. F. Tucker, '94, of the William-Porter hospitals in Telchow, Shantung, China, sent a contribution to the fellowship fund. In a letter to Professor Caldwell he says, "It was one of the keenest delights to myself and Mrs. Tucker to be present at several 'Padian' meetings during my furlough." Edson Rich, assistant general solicitor of the Union Pacific railroad at Omaha also generously subscribed.

COWLEY AND SUKOVATY RECEIVE APPOINTMENTS

Two new appointments have been announced by the Military Department. Arnost Sukovaty will be tentatively assigned to command the First Battalion and Leonard Cowley will be regimental quartermaster with rank of first lieutenant.

FRESHMEN CONVOCATION LAUNCHED THIS MORNING

YOUNG HUSKERS SCHEDULED TO IMBIBE SCHOOL SPIRIT.

Band Music, Yells and Songs to Feature in First Gathering of School Year.

The Freshmen are to be initiated into real Cornhusker spirit at the convocations this morning when band music, yells and songs will echo from building to building. The men are to gather in the Armory at eleven o'clock and the women in the Temple Theater. Most of the professors have agreed to dismiss Freshmen from their classes at that time.

The University Cadet Band will start the excitement while the crowd is assembling. Yells of the U-U-Unt that has spurred many a Husker team to victory will almost raise the roof off the Armory. Strong voices will be in demand. Candidates for yell leaders will be invited to try out.

The girls do not intend to let the men get ahead of them when it comes to yelling. Dorothy Wright and Lois Melton will lead them. The girls too will have a chance to try out for yell leaders.

Program.

The list of speeches for the men's convocation follows:
"Student Activities"—Clarence Haley.
"Education"—Dean Philo M. Buck.
"1920 Prospects"—Coach Schulte.
"The Team"—Capt. Bill Day.
"Nebraska Traditions"—Dr. Condra.
Dr. Hyde will give a general talk to the girls and Mrs. Raymond will play the accompaniments for the songs. Ada Stidworthy will represent the Y. W. C. A. in a short talk; Mary Brownell, the W. S. G. A.; Betty Scribner, Silver Serpent, Xi Delta and Mystic Fish; Marjorie Barstow, W. A. A.; Ruth Lindsay, Student Council; Dorothy Barkley, The Daily Nebraskan; Fay Curry, Senior Girls' Advisory Board.

The few days intervening before the approaching game with Washburn must witness some rapid progress in the Husker ranks if Schulte's team is to chalk up a victory against the Kansas school. Washburn is by no means bringing a green or inexperienced team to Lincoln and the Cornhuskers must display greater gridiron ability than was in evidence Saturday in order to win. It is quite likely that the Nebraska line will outweigh the Washburn forwards as the beefy Husker line is one of Schulte's main points of attack. Again it is quite likely that the Washburn backfield will possess greater poundage than the Nebraska backfield. The Nebraska backs are of the steady, sure variety, with nothing of the spectacular about them. The Husker team (Continued on Page 3.)

Ichabod Coming Strong.

Coach Schulte's 1920 football machine has had its first test. The scrap with the Freshman eleven Saturday afternoon was the initial taste of battle that the Huskers have enjoyed this season. The Varsity-Freshmen tilt has become an annual event of the Husker institution and is usually held on the Saturday preceding the opening game. Its purpose is to give the coaches a definite idea of the real value of the material on both squads and Saturday's game was by no means a failure in this respect.

The outstanding lesson taught by the first scrimmage was that the Cornhusker Varsity must develop to considerable extent if such teams as Notre Dame, Michigan Aggies, Kansas, Rutgers, Penn State and Washington State are to be defeated and the University of Nebraska is one more to enjoy an all-victorious season. The "Frosh" crew held the Varsity at bay with apparent ease Saturday and at several stages of the game outplayed the veterans completely. A sensational run by Thompson and the blocking of one of Lowell's punts were responsible for Varsity scores. The Yearling counter was earned by straight football. The 1920 Freshman team is equipped with an exceptionally heavy line and this accounts in a large measure for the apparent inability of the Varsity backs to make any very substantial gains.

CROTHERS AT CONVOCATION

Samuel McCord Crothers, a writer and lecturer of national reputation, will address University students at a special convocation at eleven o'clock, Thursday, September 30, in the Temple Theater. This will be the first of the special convocations which are to be given under the new plan of assembling University people only upon occasions of especial interest and speakers of note.

Dr. Crothers is the author of "The Gentle Reader" and other books of essays, and is a well known contributor to the Atlantic Monthly. The geniality and piquancy of his style and the warmth of his personality, which have charmed thousands of Harvard students every year at Cambridge, his home, have made him a figure of national importance. He has been called the Charles Lamb of America.

NOTICE.

All students having Daily Nebraskan subscription books please turn them in at once with the total amount of receipts at the Student Activities office.
