PERSONALS.

Marian Moody, '22, drove to Wea-rent Friday to spend several days.
Samuel Kellogg, ex-'21, of Percival la., has returned to his home after a visit at the Phi Kappa Psi house.
Madeline Hendricks, '22, and sister, Krichman, '23, spent the week-end at Wehco.
Josephine Jack, '24, returned from her home in Beatrice.
Mary Ure, '24, was a week-end visitor at her home in Omaha.
Ruby Jones, '22, and Verna Jones,
'22, attended the Ak-Sar-Den Ball which was held in Omaha on Saturday.

VARSITY FACES
STIFF PROPOSITION

contains no truly brilliant or outstanding backfield artists that are usually necessary to produce championship teams. Schulte has no Brickley, no Harley, or no Chamberlain. His missive line is his strongest fortification.
Rutgers Defeated in First Game.
It is interesting to note that Rutgers was defeated in her first game of the season by Ursinus College, the score being 14-7. Ursinus is considered as a second-rate institution and her defeat of Rutgers would indicate that the New Jersey school will be represented by a week eleven this year. The Cornhuskers clash with Rutgers on the Polo Grounds in New York City on November 2, and is the Ursinus game is a fair indication of the strength of the Rutgers team, the Nebraskans should have a comparatively easy victory. The game with Penn State on November 7 will not be so easy, however, and undoubtedly the Huskers will have to extend themselves to the limit in order to defeat Bezel's team.
