

GLOOM SURROUNDS HUSKER CAMP AS GAME DRAWS NEAR

Nebraska Faces Notre Dame With Number of Stars Carrying Troublesome Injuries.

HOSPITAL LIST HEAVY

Hubka May Be Missing From Lineup When Team Battles in Annual Classic.

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Oct. 13.—Coach Rockne worked his men at a blinding pace behind closed gates today. He donned a headgear himself and demonstrated how the heavy Nebraska backs will crash into the Notre Dame line. The Cornhuskers carry a superiority in weight that will be hard to offset. Twenty-two men will be taken to Lincoln. The personnel has not been decided, that depending in a large degree on the showing of the candidates in tomorrow's scrimmage against the Freshmen. Rockne is worried over the condition of Grant, substitute quarterback, who has been slow in rounding into form.

Injury Jinx Hits Hard.

When Nebraska faces Notre Dame Saturday she will be without the services of a number of men who have made up the back bone of the Cornhusker machine so far this season. Coach Schulte has been forced to change his plans a great deal for this reason. Hubka, the main ground gainer for the Huskers against Washburn and the Colorado Aggies is out of the game for the time being due to injuries. Nothing definite can be announced as yet whether "Hub" will have a chance to battle Notre Dame or not. McGlasson is out of the game indefinitely on account of a broken shoulder. Howarth and Dana are suffering from injuries sustained in practice but will probably be in the lineup Saturday. Newman, Young, Wenke, Moore and Rogers are out on account of minor injuries but it is hoped they will be able to participate Saturday.

With this number of men on the hospital list Nebraska's stock in the game Saturday dropped about 50 per cent. Very little can be learned definitely as to just what Coach Schulte has up his sleeve for Saturday but there is one thing certain, the fighting spirit that has in the past dominated the Husker warriors will not be missing Saturday.

That Notre Dame is expecting the hardest fight of the year can be seen from the reports that are given out. Coach Rockne and his men will arrive in Lincoln Friday morning and will take a light workout on Husker soil in the afternoon.

From Rockne Camp.

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Oct. 12.—Notre Dame and Nebraska will clash at Lincoln next Saturday in what promises to be one of the most bitterly fought contests of the season.

It took all of the power of Coach Rockne's champion 1919 eleven to defeat the Cornhuskers and the westerners are said to be stronger than ever this autumn. Rockne is hopeful, but is making no prediction of victory in the 1920 engagement. Next to the Army, Notre Dame fears Nebraska more than any team on its schedule.

Season's Big Test.

The jam with Nebraska will be the first test of the season for Notre (Continued on Page 4.)

LECTURES PLANNED ON CHRISTIAN FUNDAMENTALS

Miss Charlotte Adams, Biblical instructor at the National Training School of the Young Women's Christian Association, New York City, will give a special course of three lectures for all University women on "Christian Fundamentals." The opening lecture will be given at Vespers Tuesday, October 19, 5 p. m. The second lecture will be given Wednesday, October 20, at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m.; the third, Thursday, October 21, at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Miss Adams has just returned from a trip around the world and is now making an extended tour in central U. S., visiting chiefly college centers to advise as to religious methods. Only two colleges in this section of the country could be visited. Miss Adams chose Nebraska as one of them because the girls of this University were capable of absorbing her lectures. She comes here from Iowa University where she has put on a series of her work.

EIGHT HUNDRED AT STUDENT BANQUET

Large Number Attend Gathering Given Under Auspices of the Committee of Two Hundred.

"This is the largest thing of its kind which I have ever come across, and it promises to become one of the traditions in the University," said Dean Buck yesterday in speaking of the banquet given under the auspices of the Committee of Two Hundred, Tuesday evening, October 12, in the banquet room of the Scottish Rite Temple. Eight hundred students and faculty were present.

Harry J. Linton, '21, chairman of the Committee of Two Hundred, presided. Guy E. Reed, '11, the first speaker of the evening, talked on "Why Are We Here?" He mentioned the work that the committee was doing to promote true Nebraska spirit. Dean P. M. Buck spoke of "The Three Reverences," which are reverence for one's self, reverence for one's fellows and reverence for the power of God, which three factors constitute an important part of education. He said, "I would extend the force of these gatherings until they impress and penetrate the whole student body."

Stone Discusses Christianity.

Dr. John Timothy Stone, who was the principal speaker of the evening, spoke of Christianity as an inward condition, not a philosophy nor a theory to be academically debated or toyed with. He argued that our religious instincts must be given a fair chance and contended that to teach Christ one must know Christ.

He said that for training in Christianity the Bible is the textbook and he regretted the gross ignorance of many with regard to the Bible. He said a certain group of college students ranked 15 per cent on six test questions from the Bible and 75 per cent in six questions upon Shakespeare. He spoke of the reporter who covered one of the trips of the late President Roosevelt. The reporter carried a Bible and concordance so that he might accurately report the ex-president in his addresses.

Must Have Positive Character.

The speaker said regarding the character of the individual, "The man of positive character who sturdily stands for what he believes to be right will be in the minority, but the world is ultimately ruled by such minorities."

FARM COMPANY DRAWS FIRST RIFLES ISSUED

Company D at the University Farm has the honor of being the first company to receive rifles. Rifles were issued to this company Tuesday. When it is known that rifles are issued to companies in order of their merit we have to hand it to the young bucks in D company. Putting the snap in drill, therefore, has its reward.

Captain Arden Godwin's men have been taking the "tary" out of military and have shown that they are capable of handling themselves efficiently in the high and noble art of "squads east and west" as well as learning what will make two rows of potatoes grow where one grew before, or words to that effect.

Gigantic Torchlight Parade Feature of Monster Rally to Be Staged Friday Evening

In preparation for the gigantic torchlight procession which will be a feature of the rally Friday evening before the clash with Notre Dame, Freshmen at the University were busy all day Wednesday cleaning torches and carting tin cans from the basement of the Mechanical Engineering Building. The torches that spelled success for the parade that greeted the Indiana team last year will again flash in the dark after the short pep meeting at the Armory which begins at 7:30, Friday night.

Seth Taylor, who has charge of the parade for the Innocents Society, reports that the cellar of the M. E. Building will be thoroughly ransacked for old cans. These will be filled with oil, cleaned up, and new wicks will be inserted in them. The cans will then be ready to be placed on the end of the torch-sticks. Students will be handed the fire-brands at the Armory, and a small fee will be charged until the torch is returned to the Armory after the parade.

The rally which will precede the procession of torches will be the first step in a complete victory Saturday afternoon. The program will begin promptly at 7:30 and will be printed in full in the Daily Nebraskan for Friday.

Nebraska's new cheer leaders will be present, as well as the Cornhusker band. The Husker team will be seated on the platform. Short speeches will be made by Director Luehring, Coaches Schulte and Schissler and Captain Day. Several members of the Innocents Society will give talks.

The parade of lighted torches will form at Twelfth and R streets. It will then proceed to Twelfth and Q, then up Q to Sixteenth street, up Sixteenth to O, and down O street to Ninth and the Lincoln Hotel.

The Lincoln delegation will welcome the Notre Dame team at the Lincoln Hotel where the Indiana warriors will occupy the front balcony overlooking the street. Nebraska will remember how the crowd of serpentine dancers cheered the visitors from the street in 1919, and introduced to Notre Dame the Nebraska chant, which was then in its infancy.

Freshmen are asked not to wear their green caps in the parade Friday night. "We are asking first-year men to come minus their emerald headgear because no class or organization distinction will be made in the line of march," declared a member of the Innocents Society Wednesday evening.

FRESHMAN LAWS ARE ORGANIZING CLUBS

FOUR ORGANIZATIONS AMONG THE FIRST-YEAR MEMBERS.

Purpose of Groups is to Promote Legal Discussion and Debate on Problems and Points of Law.

Four Law clubs are being organized in the Freshman class of the Law College by the first-year president, Edward T. Gardner, with the aid of several other students and members of the faculty. Upperclassmen Law students have the privilege of becoming members of these clubs.

The plan as outlined is to make the membership in the respective clubs as nearly even as possible. The promoters of these clubs and the committees appointed by President Gardner are as follows:

- First Club—Gardner, Stryker, Stanton.
- Second Club—Williams, M. E. Beck.
- Third Club—Campbell, Elman.
- Fourth Club—Cressell, Smith.

Start on Equal Footing. The clubs will be started as nearly as possible on an equal footing. Every member of the Freshman Law class is urged to see any of the men mentioned above, and to identify himself with one of these organizations. As soon as the required membership of each club is filled, the members will meet, adopt a name, constitution, by-laws and complete the organization by the election of permanent officers. (Continued on Page 4.)

UPPER CLASSES TO MEET THIS MORNING

SENIOR AND JUNIOR GROUPS TO SELECT MINOR OFFICERS.

Various Committees to Be Announced at First Gathering of These Organizations.

Members of the Senior and Junior classes will meet this morning in the Social Science Building for their first class meetings of the year. The third-year students will assemble in the Auditorium and the Seniors will meet in Room 101. Both meetings are scheduled for 11 o'clock.

President Aylne O'Laughlin will read the list of class committees for the first semester at the Senior meeting. These will be printed in the Daily Nebraskan Friday morning. Isabel Pearsall, president of the Junior class, said Wednesday that the third-year committees would be given out before the two weeks that she had set early last week.

Minor officers of the classes will be chosen at these meetings and matters of general interest will be discussed. Every upperclassman should attend the meeting of his class because of the fact that this is the first gathering for class organization this semester.

A large turnout of members of both upperclasses is expected at the meetings as considerable excitement has been stirred up over the minor elections.

Alumni and ex-students from all over the state will throng the capital Saturday to help celebrate the annual Homecoming Day.

The committee in charge of the celebration Saturday has prepared for thousands of former University of Nebraska students and it is planning to make this the biggest day in the history of the school.

The Freshmen and Sophomores are making their final preparations for the Olympics which will be held Saturday morning at the M street park. If the Freshmen win they will be allowed to wear their regular headgear, but if not, the green caps will be seen until the snow flies.

The chief event of the day will be the Nebraska-Notre Dame struggle on Nebraska Field, but the U. of N. Alumni Club have other plans in store for the "homecomers." Gavin, '07, for a place at the luncheon and homecoming reunion. Alumni may make reservations by writing Miss Annis Chaiken, alumni secretary, at her office in Administration Building.

The University Post of the American Legion elected Carl H. Peterson, '22, commandant of the organization Wednesday evening, October 13, at the first meeting of the year in the old cafeteria room of the Temple.

WALTER JOHNSON IS FOUND DEAD IN SWIMMING POOL

University Freshman Dies of Heart Failure Wednesday While in Association Class.

HOLDREGE HIGH GRADUATE

Boy Was 18 Years Old and Had Entered School of Business Administration This Fall.

Walter H. Johnson, 1101 Garfield street, of Holdrege, Neb., a University of Nebraska Freshman, died Wednesday at 6:15 p. m. in the swimming pool of the city Y. M. C. A. The cause of the death is supposedly heart failure.

Young Johnson was 18 years of age and a graduate of Holdrege High School, completing a four year course in that institution. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson of Holdrege. Mr. Johnson is a retired farmer.

The boy was a member of the city Y. M. C. A. He had been given a physical examination by one of the association officials who found no heart lesion.

He entered a swimming class at the association. The class met last evening and Young Johnson had just received praise for the good progress he was making in the class work a short time before he was found dead in the pool.

Found By Fellow Students. E. J. Lahey, First and J streets, and Maron Layton, 1319 A street, discovered the body of the boy. The acting fire chief of the Lincoln fire department hurried to the scene with a pulmotor but efforts to revive the boy were useless.

Association officials do not believe that the death was due to drowning because no water was found in the lungs, the members of the class saw no struggle and the fact that the boy did not respond to the efforts with the pulmotor.

Johnson was taking a four year Business Administration course in the University, and was a pledge to Sigma Chi fraternity. His parents were notified of the death Wednesday evening.

NO INDIVIDUAL SCRAPS.

There are to be no scraps between individuals or groups representing the Freshmen and Sophomore classes before Saturday, the day of the Olympics. Drastic measures will be taken by the executive dean against students who attempt to kidnap contestants or individuals of either class. The Olympics were instituted to do away with hazing and class scraps which used to be the custom at the University in days gone by. Such customs are not to be revived this year. The fight between the Freshmen and Sophomores must be confined to Saturday's Olympics is the definite stand taken by the executive dean.
