

GLOOM SURROUNDS HUSKER CAMP AS GAME DRAWS NEAR

 Dame. If Rockne's athletes win it is believed they will defeat every opponent in their path. Barring accidents in scrimmage next week, the team will be in good shape for the struggle. The personnel of the squad is now intact. Halfback Walsh, who was injured a week ago, rejoined the team Wednesday. Chet Grant, quarterback of the 1916 team, has returned. Grant has not played football since he left Notre Dame four years ago. Rockne doubts if he will be available for the Nebraska game. Grant's presence will add greatly to the backfield attack in later contests, however.

The Notre Dame squad is well fortified at every position. The line bulges with experienced material. Headed by Capt. Coughlin, the list of forwards includes H. Anderson, E. Anderson, Smith, Larson, Shaw and Kiley.

Bank Faith on Gipp.

In Joe Brandy the team has a brainy field general. Brandy's generalship turned apparent defeat into victory in the contest with West Point last November. At halfback there is the versatile George Gipp, whose forward passes are feared by every team on the Catholics' schedule. Gipp was an all-western half last season and he is showing more stuff than ever this fall. Mohardt, Barry and D. Coughlin are other good halfbacks.

Castner, Phelan, Wynne and Dooley are fighting for the fullback position. Castner's showing in the Kalamazoo game gives him an edge on his rivals.

"Watch for Rosewilde announcement in Monday's Rag."

Big Ten Conference foe was upset last Saturday when the long touted Minnesota team met defeat at the hands of Northwestern. The score of 17 to 0 certainly testifies to the ability of the Purple team. Iowa's decisive defeat of Cornell college and the Illinois defeat of the Drake Bulldogs also shed a great deal of light on the Conference title.

FRESHMEN LAWS ARE ORGANIZING CLUBS

 The purpose of the clubs is to promote legal discussion and debate on legal problems. Points of law will be briefed, and the students' efficiency in finding the issue of law will be increased. "Readiness in legal argument at the counsel table is well worth the students' time," said Professor George N. Foster Wednesday.

The work of the clubs will be entirely voluntary and the organizations will be under the complete control and management of the students. Each club will have a faculty adviser who will help the members in the organizations' work in giving out problems and in contests with each other. Professor G. N. Foster is the faculty committeeman for the new clubs.

COMMITTEE SELECTED FOR SATURDAY PARTY

Joint Chairmen Clarence Swanson and Mary Sheldon have announced the complete reception committee for the second All-University party to be held in the Armory Saturday night, October 16. Although not a closed night, a large number of people are expected to attend the party because of the great number of old students returning to the University for Homecoming Day.

The party will be a brilliant affair and many special stunts have been arranged by the committees in charge. The Notre Dame team will be the guests of honor Saturday night.

The committee appointed is as follows:

- Reception Committee.
 Marvin Meyers
 Isabel McMonies (Chairmen)
 Edwin Pierce Henrietta Stahl
 Osmond Perry Francis Billy
 Harold Payne Louise Tucker
 A. Wenke Francis Graham
 Worth McDonald Madeline Stinger
 Jack Redelfs Mary Baker
 Wallace Craig Muriel Allen

GREEN GOBLINS HOLD FIRST MEETING OF SCHOOL YEAR

Howard Turner Elected President of Freshman Men's Society at Tuesday Gathering.

The newly initiated members of Green Goblins, Freshman men's society, held their first meeting at the Delta Upsilon house at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, October 12. The purpose of the meeting was to perfect the organization for this year. The length of the meeting did not dampen the pep and spirit of the new members, according to those who attended the get-together.

Officers were elected as follows for the coming year:

- President—Howard Turner.
 Vice-President—Leslie Cadwallader.
 Secretary—Merle Hale.
 Treasurer—Stephen King.
 Sergeants-at-Arms—Elbert Evans, Kenneth Schwab.

Plans for the semester were discussed at length and committees appointed for various activities which the society will sponsor. The Green Goblins announce that again this year they are planning to do many worth while things, including aiding in ticket selling for game, ushering when opportunities arise, and helping out in various other school activities.

The following resolution was adopted at the meeting and the Nebraskan publishes it at this time in order to acquaint students in general with the purpose of the Freshmen society:

"Since the Green Goblins was originally established to promote friendship and to lend its aid to all school activities worthy of assistance, it is also the purpose of the new Green Goblins to further promote this good ideal. The Green Goblins will refrain from entering politics as an organization."

CORNHUSKER LUNCHEON TO BE GREAT AFFAIR

"Are you going?"
 "Going where?"
 "To the Girls' Cornhusker luncheon, Saturday noon at the Lindell Hotel."
 "What is it?"

"One of the oldest traditions the girls have at Nebraska—that of lunching together before the Homecoming Day."

The W. S. G. A. is in charge and are planning a very peppy affair. Ruth Lindsay, chairman of the entertainment committee, promises a very unusual program. The program will to a certain extent be carried out in the decorations. Forty "sure enough" footballs will be hung from the ceilings. It is due to the courtesy of Lawlor Cycle Company, that the W. S. G. A. is able to secure the real stuff.

The W. S. G. A. urges all the girls to co-operate with them by learning as many yells as possible before the luncheon. The Varsity cheer leaders will be in charge and have declared that the girls can not leave until they can give the cheers and sing "The Scarlet and the Cream." Very unique favors are going to be given, which will add to the pep of the affair.

Don't be afraid to buy a ticket because the luncheon won't be over in time, for it is the plan of the committee in charge to go in a body to the game.

Get your ticket today—they are on sale at the Student Activities office and are 85 cents.

Notre Dame snowed Western Normal under the score of 42 to 0. Rockne played his second string men for practically the entire four quarters. The work of Captain Coughlin was one of the features of the game.
