WEDDINGS
Jacobs-Lingenfelder
The marriage of Miss Hazel Marie Jacobs to Fred O. Lingenfelder, both former students of the University, was solemnized Friday evening at the Hol-dredge street Baptist Church. The Rev. C. H. Spadding officiated.
The church was delightfully decorated for the occasion and a pretty ceremony was carried out. The bridesmaids were Miss Iola Garrison and Miss Helen Thompson, and Mrs. T. A. Bennett, sister of the bride was matron of honor. Oliver Axtel was best man. Lucile Dale was flower girl, and Pavey Dale carried the rings. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

Weir-Peterson
A quiet wedding took place when Miss Elizabeth Weir and Homer H. Peterson pronounced the marriage vows at the home of the bride's parents in Grand Island at eleven-thirty o'clock last Thursday. Mrs. Peterson was a sophomore in the University last year and was a pledge to Kappa Kappa Gamma.
Only the immediate families and close friends were present. Miss Roberta Prince, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Miss Peggy Sorenson were bridesmaids. Harland Peterson, brother of the bride-groom and a student in the University, was best man. Marjorie Scoville was a guest.
A breakfast was served after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left in the afternoon for a wedding trip through the Pacific coast states. They will be at home in North Platte after the fifteenth of next month.

The Rosemary Dresses at $55
For Late Fall and Early Winter

ENGAGINGLY appealing—presenting the grace of line and harmonies in color you intuitively seek—and invariably find in the modes of "Rosemary." Featuring many of the season's well known and more exclusive materials, including Spanish Lace, Crepe Madelon, Duvet-de-laine, Imported English Twill-back Costume Velvet, the finer Tricotine, and others in equal favor.

SIX NEW MODELS in all their Falltime modishness—as featured in the new Vogue, Harper's Bazar and Fashion Art—the self-same Rosemary Frocks now featured by leading stores through the States, such as Franklin Simon & Co., New York, Mandel's Chicago, etc.—are now displayed here. We invite you to see them. Size range—for women, 34 to 44. For Misses, 14 to 18. Their partial descriptions follow:

Model 165—A slim low-blousing frock of navy blue tricotine has added youthfulness given it by the open flare of the collar and the soft, deep fringed sash. Embroidery adds interest to the front.

Model 164—Simplicity, when well executed, can be smarter and more becoming than any amount of furbelows. This is proved by the frock of Duvet-de-laine trimmed only with contrasting bands. Colors: navy, dryad, twilight, sanibar, suchow.
$5.00

Model 163—Much chic and distinction can be assumed on donning this twill-backed velvet frock. Little circles of bright embroidery decorate smart wrist and neck and hem. Colors: black, navy, blue, brown.
$5.00

Model 161—The sort of a frock that is made for dining or dancing, is sedate in its color, but airy in the Spanish lace that makes her overdress for the dip of Crepe Madelon. Colors: black, navy, brown.
$5.00

Model 160—A smart low-waisted frock of Crepe Madelon, has a graceful and charming trimming of ringed silk fringe—we vest collar and cuffs of tucked net and lace. Colors: black, navy brown, stone blue.
$5.00

Model 162—One may still trust one's chic to the slim straight frock, such as this one of Duvet-de-laine, effectively embroidered up the front length. Colors: dryad, sanibar, navy, twilight, suchow.
$5.00
