

RHODES SCHOLAR REACHES ENGLAND

Alfred Reese, '20, Sends Interesting Booklet to Nebraska's Faculty Telling of Oxford Life.

Enters Lincoln College

Steamship Aquitania Carries Thirty-three Men from United States to English College.

Alfred Reese, '20, Nebraska's Rhodes scholar who has several years of Oxford training in store for him, has arrived in England, and has sent an interesting booklet to faculty members of the University describing the various colleges and opportunities at Oxford.

As a preface to the book there is a list of all the Rhodes scholars who sailed for England on the steamship Aquitania, September 21. Thirty-three men from various colleges throughout the United States were selected to attend Oxford this fall. Two scholars were chosen from Iowa. Alfred Reese will enter the Lincoln College at Oxford.

The Oxford terms are divided into four University periods: Michaelmas, from October 10 to December 17; Hilary or Lent, January 14 to March 27; Easter, from April 7 to May 21; Trinity or Act, from May 22 to July 10.

There are four University officers at Oxford: The Chancellor, the vice-chancellor, the clerk of the University, and the secretary. The colleges are named as follows at Oxford: All Souls, Balliol, Brasenose, Christ Church, Corpus Christi, Exeter, Hartford, Jesus, Lincoln, Magdalen, Merton, New, Oriel, Pembroke, Queen's, St. John's, Trinity, University, Wadham, Worcester and Keble College. Christ Church is the largest of the Oxford colleges. It is known as "the house," and was founded by Cardinal Wolsey in 1525, and was originally to be called Cardinal's College.

Russell Peters of Omaha, former Cornell man, won the scholarship this year. It was awarded September 25. He was one of seven applicants. Mr. Peters was very prominent in athletics and journalism at Ithaca where he was editor of the Cornell Daily.

PEACE DELEGATE

SPEAKS THURSDAY

Prof. G. B. Noble Addresses Socio-Economics Club—Will Talk on Versailles Conference.

Prof. G. B. Noble, who had charge of the French Current Political Intelligence section of the peace conference at Versailles, will speak on some topic pertaining to the peace conference at an open meeting of the Socio-Economics Club in Social Science 105 at 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

This will be the first open meeting of the Socio-Economics Club this year. The meetings are informal and group discussion follows the speech. It was for the purpose of giving students an opportunity to meet and discuss current problems that the club was organized. The speaker of the evening leads the discussion. All students are invited to attend.

Professor Noble's work at the peace conference was to read French newspapers and prepare a daily summary and estimate of what the French press printed about the peace conference. He made this report to the American commissioners to keep them informed in regard to French public opinion.

Hines Speaks Before Commercial Club

Clarence Hines, of the First Trust Company, will speak to the University of Nebraska Commercial Club at 11 a. m. today in Social Science 302 on "The Federal Reserve System and Its Relation to the Present Financial Situation." Mr. Hines, who is a former student and graduate of the University of Nebraska, last year taught a class in the College of Business Administration in Money and Banking.

There will be a short business meeting held by the Commercial Club after the address, to complete plans for the initiation of new members to be held Friday night in the Temple.

State Farm Aggies Get Stiff Workout

The State Farm Aggies encountered some stiff practice last Wednesday when Coach Proctor lined them up against the second team. The first team pushed the substitutes down the field for several touchdowns and held them for downs when put on the defensive. The Aggies anticipate a difficult game next Friday when they meet University Place at University Place. The Methodists have a strong aggregation this year. They succeeded in winning over Lincoln High by a score of 15-16 the very first game of the season.

The Aggies have a heavy line but whether or not they will be able to stop the fleet-footed University Place backfield is problematical. Their main difficulty is that only three men of last year's team are in the lineup and the rest are inexperienced—some of them playing their very first game of football next Friday. Coach Proctor announced Wednesday that no definite team has been picked.

R. O. T. C. Says "More Music With Our Drill"

Members of the University R. O. T. C. unit made an interesting appearance Tuesday afternoon on the new drill field when they did "squalls right" and "to the rear march" with the aid of the Cadet band. The embryo soldiers looked as though they were taking part in a miniature review.

Although the surface of the drill field was not quite smooth and the soldiers had to kick a "cloud" of dirt out of the way here, and a stone, there, the music kept their spirits high. "The drill hour went three times as fast with music," were the enthusiastic words of a Sophomore yesterday.

"Music with our drills is what we want now," he continued. "Tuesday's treat spoiled us, and I'm afraid our feet will refuse to move now without the familiar strains of 'National Emblem' to urge us on. It seems more military with the music and there are not many men at Nebraska who can listen to an American march without at least marking time. What we want now is 'more music with our drills.'"

Every Awgwan Cartoon Has

"A Meaning All Its Own"

No longer should Freshmen weep bitter tears because of homesickness or of the incomprehensible amoeba and protoplasm. Upperclassmen should discard their worried frowns and forget psychology, for the October Awgwans are out! Nebraska's peppy comic magazine is a sure cure for any kind of blues.

What a wealth of fun and humor lies between its yellow and blue covers only the regular subscriber can know. Every line, every cartoon, "has a meaning all its own," and even its gay-colored covers call forth an inevitable smile. One looks with interest at the broad grin of a student with a huge pile of books under his arm and a new Awgwan on top. He is thinking perhaps, of the new "You tell 'em" he has just read, or he recognized a joke on one of his friends.

If there is someone who thinks that he has had more than his share of blues today, let him forget his studies, buy a chocolate soda and drown his sorrows in the Awgwan.

FRESHMAN PARTY HALLOWE'EN AFFAIR

General Chairman Babcock Outlines Plans for Entertainment in Armory Saturday, October 30.

The first All-Freshman party will be staged at the Armory Saturday, October 30, according to plans outlined by Richard Babcock, general chairman, in co-operation with other committee members. Because the party comes on Halloween eve, decorations appropriate to the fall holiday will be displayed in the building. A special program of Halloween stunts and dancing has been arranged to make the affair a complete success.

"If the first Freshmen mixer of the year is to outshine those of last year in point of numbers and pep, we must work hard for a large attendance," said Chairman Richard Babcock yesterday. "Every first-year student is invited to get acquainted with his class-mates that evening."

Proceeds Go to Freshmen.

The net proceeds of the party will go into the Freshmen class treasury for expenses which the class may be required to meet during the school year.

A meeting of all committee chairmen for the mixer has been called for this afternoon at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall. Final preparations for the party will be made at this time.

The following committee members have been announced:

AEROPLANE CARRIES

NOTRE DAME MOVIES

Shipped By Air to Catch East-Bound Mail Plane at Omaha or Chicago.

Motion pictures of the Notre Dame game could not have been developed, printed and put in shape for showing at New York theaters in sufficient time had it not been for the fact that they could be shipped by airplane. Arrangements were made with the postmaster at Omaha to catch the airplane mail either at Omaha or Chicago, depending on the schedule.

Films showing the 11,000 cheering spectators at the Saturday struggle will be shown at all Broadway moving picture theaters in New York City as soon as the pictures arrive on the fast mail plane. These films will be used as an advertising feature for the Nebraska-Rutgers game which will be played at the Polo Grounds in New York, November 2. They may also help to advertise the game with Penn State College at State College, Pennsylvania, November 6, because many grid enthusiasts will attend that game from the United States metropolis.

The principal plays, the swarming crowds, the Nebraska cheer leaders in action, the cadet band, the South Omaha delegation, the cheering stands, the daring end runs and the mock marriage of Notre Dame and "defeat" will all be shown in the pictures which were shipped to New York. It is possible that these same films will be exhibited at Lincoln theaters in a short time.

Commercial Club Initiates Friday

The University Commercial Club will meet Friday, October 22, at 7:30 p. m., in the Y. M. C. A. reading room of the Temple building. New members of the organization will be initiated at this time.

It is urged that all members of the club attend this meeting and that all initiates be at the Temple promptly at 7:30. A program has been planned for the evening following the initiation.

Dr. Pool Starts Lecture Series

The first of a series of popular lectures upon scientific subjects offered by the Department of Chemistry, through the Chemistry Club, will be given in the general lecture room, Chemistry Hall, at the University, Friday, October 22, at 5 p. m. Professor R. J. Pool, chairman of the Department of Botany, will speak on "Certain Relations Between Chemistry and Biology in the Industrial World."

Dr. Pool is biologist of the commission appointed by the federal court to investigate the relation between certain smelting operations and agriculture, and will speak of his first-hand experiences in this very interesting field. Mr. Aronson of the Chemistry Department, who is in charge of the lecture series, stated that similar lectures, handled in an interesting non-technical manner for the public and students generally, will be given in Chemistry Hall at 5 p. m. every two weeks beginning with Dr. Pool's lecture Friday. The lectures had a large attendance last year and are therefore opened to the public again this fall.

English Women Stop Betting on Love, But Wager All on Horses

LONDON.—English women have quit gambling on love, to put their hopes on the gee-gees. Astounding numbers of women have placed large bets with commission agents during the 1920 racing season and these bets come from extraordinary sources. A well-known bookmaker told the United Press that most of the large bets placed with him by women have been from those residing in quiet country villages.

"I think they are seeking some kind of excitement to lessen the tedium of country life," he said. "Many of them have taken it up only recently. They don't profess to know anything about horses—form, pedigree, jockeys and all those things which the male gambler studies—assiduously mean less than nothing to women."

SCHULTE'S MEN TRY NEW PLAYS

Pucelik Works Out

Varsity Runs Signals and Scrimmage With Freshmen Squad—Schissler Laid Up in Bed.

Nebraska's Cornhuskers were put through another stiff workout last night in preparation for the South Dakota Coyotes Saturday. Coach Schulte is driving the men at race horse speed every night in order that as many new plays and formations as possible may be mastered before the trip east. Every one is looking forward to the game with Rutgers and Penn State in the next few weeks and is not giving as much thought to the South Dakota game as might be. That the Coyotes are out after Nebraska's scalp is evident from the reports that are being received here. Coach Schulte is of the opinion that Saturday's game will be one of the hardest fought battles on the Husker calendar this season.

Pucelik reported for work last night and is fast rounding into his old time form. Hubka has not as yet donned his suit but is expected out soon. The entire Husker squad is in pretty fair shape except for a few minor bruises with the exceptions of these two men. Last Saturday's defeat at the hands of Notre Dame has injected a new fighting spirit into the men and Husker followers are sure to receive a demonstration of the old time fighting spirit in Saturday's game.

This will be the first game these two teams have participated in for six years. The last battle was a tie and Coach Schulte is bent on having his proteges give the Coyotes one of the worst beatings ever administered a visiting team at Nebraska. Coach Schulte is anxious to have the followers of the Huskers see for themselves what Nebraska can do against a team that would be a match for either Rutgers or Penn State.

Scrimmage With Freshmen.

The practice last evening was devoted entirely to running signals and scrimmaging against the Freshman squad. The Freshmen are worthy foes of the Varsity and give the older men a real battle every night. Assistant Coach Schissler, who has been directing the Fresh all season, is confined to his bed and reported quite sick. Since there has been secret practice every night this week just what kind of an attack Coach Schulte is going to have his warriors launch against the Coyotes cannot be determined.

DIRECTORY NOTICE.

The publishers of the University directory request that the presidents of those clubs and societies which have been organized since September, 1919, leave a list of their officers with the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at the Temple building not later than Friday, October 22. This is absolutely the time limit for corrections and additions for the new directory.

October 11, 1920.

To: All Officers of Instruction: At the senate meeting last Saturday it was decided to make quarterly reports on delinquencies of the Freshmen and Sophomores as well as such other reports as might be of value in promoting better work, and higher scholarship. For instance, a student starts out as an 80% student, but has lost his grip and though still passing, is now down to say 70%. These reports should not be considered as doing away with the weekly use of the "Remarks" and "Standing" columns. The first report is due Friday of this week.

Prompt co-operation is urgently desired.
