

PERSONALS

Kappa Delta Phi will entertain at a house party Saturday night for nine members of Alpha Gamma Zeta of Lambda Chi Alpha. The visitors will attend the Nebraska-South Dakota game.

Miss Irene Holston, '22, and brother, Sterling, '24, were called to their home at Trenton Wednesday by the serious illness of their mother.

M. Moses, father of Colonel G. W. Moses, came from his home at St. Petersburg, Fla., Tuesday and will stay indefinitely at the colonel's home.

Prof. W. W. Burr made a trip to York last Tuesday.

Roy Noble, Jack Schwartz and Chester Trimble, of the Omaha Medical College, visited at the Delta Chi house for several days last week.

Inez Bachmann, who has been visiting at the Alpha Delta Pi house, has returned to her home in Crete.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Gibbon, of Dunbar, visited their son, William Gibbon, at the Pi Phi Chi house for several days last week.

Marian Miller, of Sioux City, was a guest at the Alpha Omicron Pi house last week-end.

Mrs. C. G. Marshall, who has been visiting her daughter, Mary Marshall, at the Pi Beta Phi house, has returned to her home in Fremont.

Allan Mullis, '20, Allan Walker, '19, and Robert Ganz, '19, all of Dunbar, were guests at the Pi Phi Chi house last week.

Halsey Noyes, '20, of Waterloo, Ia., who has been visiting at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house, has returned to his home.

Louise Enochs, '18, of Superior, was a guest at the Alpha Delta Pi house for several days last week.

R. Lawhorne, R. Shirey, H. Elston and R. Hille, of the Omaha Medical College, visited at the Pi Phi Chi house last week-end.

Kathleen Hargrove, '20, who was a guest at the Alpha Delta Pi house for several days, has returned to her home in Hildreth.

Mrs. J. J. Harrington, who has been a guest of her daughter, Helen Harrington, '21, at the Delta Gamma house for the past few days, returned yesterday to her home in O'Neill.

O. R. Hill, of North Loup, visited his son Russell at the Kappa Delta Phi house the first of the week.

Ethel Kittinger, who graduated in 1917, is principal of the high school at Big Sandy, Mont.

Mary Kittinger, '15, is engaged in Red Cross work at Muskegon, Mich.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Max Wilcox, '17, in July.

A. E. Fisher, '02, is cashier of the Nebraska State bank at Bridgeport.

G. E. Kline, '18, of Hastings, has bought a relinquishment near Torrington, Wyo., and expects to homestead soon.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Selzer, '17, at Scottsbluff in September.

Gertrude Wilcox Tedd, '12, is teaching in the Bridgeport high school. E. L. Novotny, '17, is superintendent in the same schools.

Leota Coombs is traveling thru Canada doing chautauqua and lyceum work.

Leon Mooman, '16, of Bayard, is candidate for state representative.

Snakes and Parrots Hobnob Together in A City of Their Own

—and more, too. The residents of this unique city include all breeds and varieties of snakes. Snakeville today has a housing capacity of 18,000 snakes. The buildings are substantial concrete structures. Additional to snakes, 5,000 parrots claim this their home while monkeys, tigers, lions, bears, wildcats, lizards, giraffes and others southern types of wild animals wander through special forests and are living here without paying taxes.

Snakeville is all the name indicates

King, rules this reorganized jungle. He's getting rich selling the animals to zoos all over the world. This spring he shipped a carload of snakes to Osaka, Japan. Princess Raja, vaudevillianess, has bought her snakes of King for the last ten years. All circuses look over this allotment of the latest styles in snakes and animals before buying.

Snakeville was organized from a $10 bill. More than twenty years ago Bill King, just finishing a third rambling tour of the world decided

King, rules this reorganized jungle. He's getting rich selling the animals to zoos all over the world. This spring he shipped a carload of snakes to Osaka, Japan. Princess Raja, vaudevillianess, has bought her snakes of King for the last ten years. All circuses look over this allotment of the latest styles in snakes and animals before buying.

Snakeville was organized from a $10 bill. More than twenty years ago Bill King, just finishing a third rambling tour of the world decided Old Prices Have Been Divorced!

LOW 1921 PRICE NOW!

On All Men's Suits and O'Coats

Prices are coming down, but they'll hit bottom in other stores about next season, but you don't have to wait until then for lower price levels with such a store as M. B. Co. in Nebraska.

We Are Reducing Every Garment In Our Stock Including The World Celebrated

Society Brand Clothes Suits and Overcoats

TO THE PRICES THAT WILL PREVAIL NEXT SEASON

We can do this because of our day-by-day policy during the past year, instead of purchasing a full season ahead. The fact that we own our clothing for less, coupled with our big volume, small profit idea of selling, brings lower prices now than any other store can offer. This sweeping announcement will startle the entire community. Here are the prices that will create a furore—

Further than this every garment bought at the old price is also reduced to conform with today's prices. Here is an example of how we are revising our prices. There's no guesswork—the savings are clearly stated

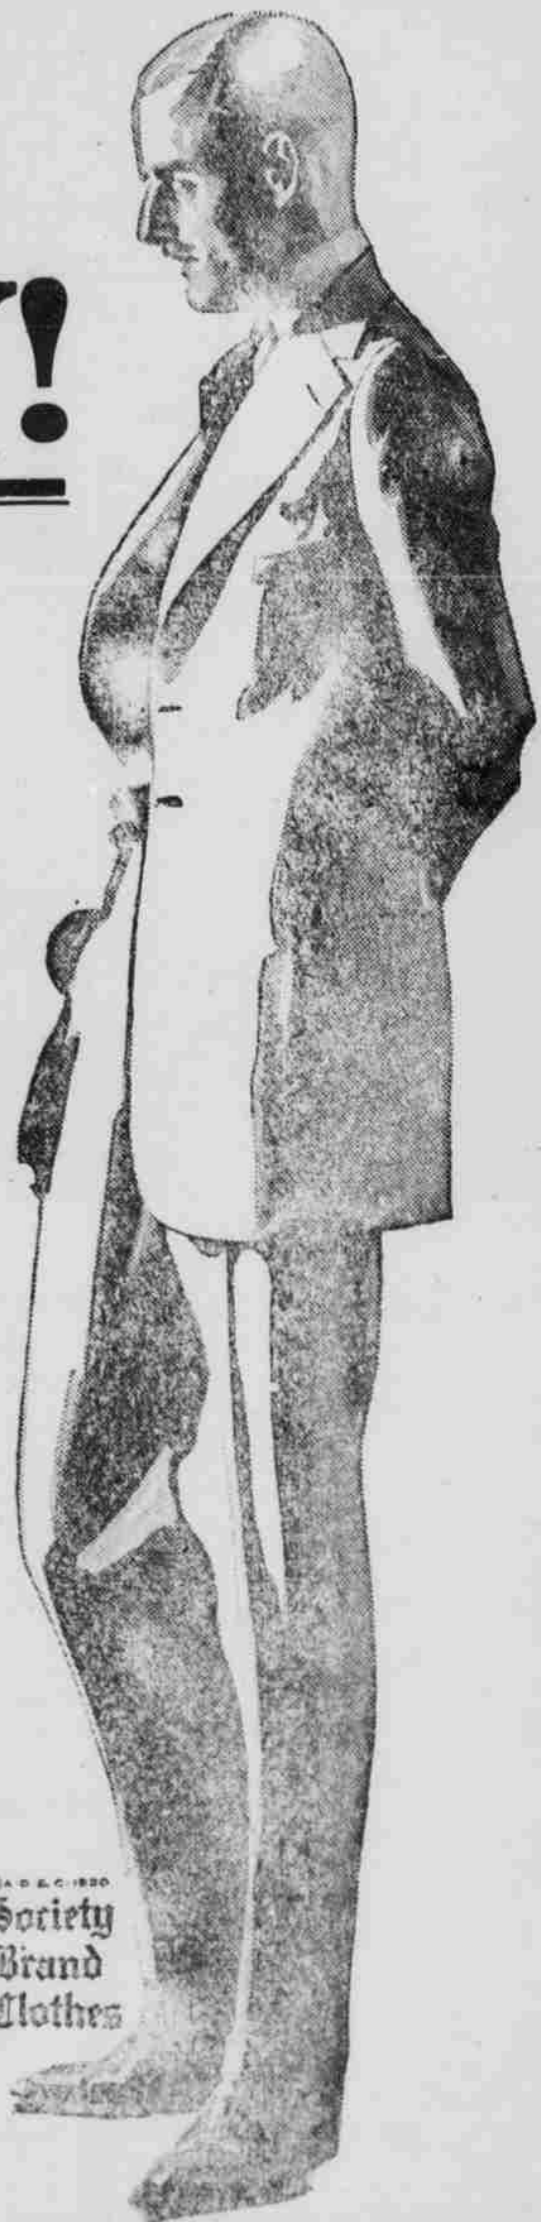

Service and quality a foregone conclusion here, we need but say. The garments are all wool, smartly styled and skillfully tailored. Sizes to fit all men.

Suits and Overcoats	24	Suits and Overcoats	34	Suits and Overcoats	44	Suits and Overcoats	54
formerly up to $40.		formerly up to $50.		formerly up to $60.		formerly up to $70.
New low price		New low price		New low price		New low price

Mayer Bros. Co.

—ELI SHIRE, President—

Society Brand Clothes

ALUMNI NOTES

W. H. Warner, '01, is president of the Risco school of metallog. This school is conducted for the employes of the Republic Iron and Steel company.

Louise Meredith, '13, is head of the home economics department of Midland college at remont this year.

Mero J. Outhouse, '11, writes alumni headquarters that she, her sister, Winifred, '14, and Jean Landale, '20, are teaching at Stanton and Margaret O'Sullivan, '14, is expecting to join them soon.

Elizabeth Seymour, who graduated from the university in 1916, is librarian for the engineering society at New York.

F. A. Wirt, '13, has been promoted from head of sales promotion work to assistant sales manager for the Emerson-Brantingham Implement company at Harrisburg, Pa.

Mrs. Cora Banta Dorr, '81, of Los Angeles writes that she is still very much interested in Nebraska university, even after so many years have elapsed since her graduation.

Visitors at the alumni office last week were: C. A. Phillips, banker at Cambridge; N. R. Simmons, '08, farmer at York, and Robert E. Steele, raiser of pure bred hogs at Falls City.

F. L. Copeland, '08, is superintendent of schools at Broadwater.

Beulah Dexter, '51 is superintendent at Central City.

Mrs. G. W. Irwin, '17, secretary of the Morrill county U. of N. club, sends the following information concerning alumni from that section of the state:

WANT ADS.

LOST—A Sigma Nu sister pin somewhere between the Law building and the Alpha Phi house or between the latter and the city Y. M. C. A. Finder please return to Student Activities office. 17

PARTY who found brown Martin fur leave at Student Activities office or call B6486. Reward. 21

LET Stafford's Fearless Orchestra. Graham, Uni's master saxophonist. Call L5698.