HUSKER YEAR-BOOK BOOSTS NEBRASKA

Cornhusker for Nineteen Twenty-one Gives Publicity to Several Cities of State.

ADVERTISES NEBRASKA

Book to Contain Valuable Art Work—Townsend Studio Will Handle Portraits.

Nebraska's 1921 Cornhusker is to be a truly state-wide book. For years, residents of the state have been seeking some means of giving publicity to the high spots in Nebraska. For this reason, the managers of the Cornhusker have decided to make the feature section of the annual a Nebraska section.

To open the section, there will be a three or four-color picture, a reproduction of some mural painting or some other art work will be made. It is the purpose to make the picture one that is fitting to represent Nebraska.

The section will probably contain one or two pictures and a short written of a dozen or fifteen of the most lively towns in the state. The Cornhusker management intends to cooperate with chambers of commerce in these towns to obtain proper material for the section.

The Cornhusker management expects to go to considerable expense to make this section a success and representative. Just how the section will be made up has not been definitely decided but it is planned to have pictures of business and residential sections of the towns selected.

Each Selected Town Given a Page. Each town selected will be given a page. High class engravers have been employed to insure the best reproductions of the pictures possible. In this way, the Cornhusker besides conveying some idea of the State University will also give some pictures of the state.

The feature section is only one of the many plans that the Cornhusker editors have under advisement. The book this year, if carried out as planned, will contain more expensive and valuable art work than ever before.

Pictures for Annual Soon. Arrangements have practically been completed with the Townsend studio to handle the photographs for the Cornhusker again. This work will not begin in earnest for about a month and a half yet but arrangements have already been made for students who wish photographs for Christmas.

Any students who desire photographs for Christmas and who wants to have a print made for the Cornhusker at the same time may do so without added expense except for the price of the cut in the book. Thus girls may have pictures taken for sorority groups and Juniors and Seniors for the individuals in the class sections.

It is desired that students wishing to have pictures taken for the Cornhusker and wish to order extra Christmas pictures do this within the next fifteen days. The regular run of Cornhusker pictures for those who do not want any extra prints will not be handled until after Christmas.

EX-SERVICE MEN TO MEET.

There will be a mass meeting of all ex-service men in the University today at 7:30 p. m., in the Legion rooms of the Temple building. Plans will be made for the celebration to be held under the auspices of the University Post of the American Legion, November 11, Armistice Day.

Candidates for Graduation.

Candidates for degrees or certificates at the close of the present semester, please report your intention to the office not later than Saturday, November 6, unless you have previously done so.

FLORENCE I. MCGAHEY, Registrar.

BLOCK AND BRIDLE CLUB BOOSTS JUDGING TEAM

An effort to boost the stock judging team will be made by the Block and Bridle Club when they give their benefit dance next Saturday evening at the Armory. All the proceeds from this dance will be used to defray the expenses of the stock judging team when they go to Chicago to enter the International Live Stock Show and the Western Stock Show at Denver.

Nebraska has been sending a team to Chicago for the last fifteen years and the members of the teams have been paying their own expenses. The only assistance they receive is a small sum from the Omaha live stock commission firms. The team that is selected to go to Chicago usually leaves a week before the show and visits a number of Iowa stock farms and the Ames and Illinois Agricultural Colleges. It is very difficult to make this trip for less than $100 and many students who are eligible for the team hesitate to try for the honors because they cannot afford the cost. If the expenses of the trip are covered in part at least, more students will try for positions on the team and give the coach more material to pick from. This may result in a better team.

Ten students of the College of Agriculture visited several large stock farms around Cambridge, Nebr., last week. They were coached by Prof. W. H. Savin. The men who made the trip are: C. E. Atkinson, K. A. Clark, A. K. Hepperly, L. W. Ingham, M. V. Lambert, R. L. Schoen, C. E. Crowell, L. F. Smith, W. S. Rice and P. F. Taggart. The team that goes to Chicago will be picked from these.

MR. FRED H. RINDGE WILL ADDRESS Y. M. C. A. MEETING

National Secretary of the Industrial Service Movement here Thursday and Friday.

Fred Rindge, National Secretary of the Industrial Service Movement of the Y. M. C. A., will be here Thursday and Friday, November 4 and 5, under the auspices of the Engineering societies, Commercial Club and Committee of Two Hundred. Besides giving special lectures in various departments Mr. Rindge will give a general lecture on "The Student's Relation to Industry" at seven o'clock Thursday in the Temple Theater.

Mr. Rindge has been employed in the industrial service work of the Y. M. C. A. for the last ten or fifteen years and has worked in nearly all the large Universities of the country. He has done considerable work as a black-faced comedian. He was offered a large salary to go on the stage, but he refused to enter the Y. M. C. A. work. A Lincoln resident who heard him at Silver Bay, New York, last summer said of him, "In the morning he conducted his classes with all the dignity of a Harvard professor and in the evening he was show."

DEAN BURNETT RETURNS FROM EASTERN SCHOOL

Dean E. A. Burnett returned from his eastern trip last Friday after visiting Cornell University where he was the guest of Dean A. R. Mann. His mission was to attend the annual convention of the Land Grant College Association held at Springfield, Mass. He visited the Agricultural College at Amherst and took part in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of that institution.

Dean Burnett read a paper dealing with increased appropriations for experiment stations and land grant colleges. The convention passed a resolution favoring increased federal and state appropriations for experiment stations.

China has 20,000 students in the universities of Japan, 2,000 in the colleges and universities of the United States, and nearly a thousand in the universities of France.

Make All Reservations Today For Special Train To Kansas

Reservations should be made at once on the special train that Cornhusker rooters will take to Lawrence, November 13, for the clash with K. U. The open season for Jayhawks commences at that time, and Nebraska students are urged to take their war-paint and feathers with them on the special train.

In order to insure their share of room on the special cars, reservations must be made today. The Union Pacific headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce building, 204 North Eleventh street, will be open at all hours and reservations may be made there. The schedule and rates for the trip were announced at two different times last week in the Daily Nebraskan columns. They will be printed again for benefit of readers sometime this week.

Students will be able to save more money by taking the special student train, than if they went home to spend the week-end and blew out a tire on the family "flivver." This is food or thought—think it over!

Tickets for the game may be procured at the Student Activities office for two dollars. Nebraska rooters will be reserved a section containing four hundred seats opposite the center of the field. A report from F. C. Allen, athletic business manager of the Jayhawks, says that 7,000 pasteboards have been sold for the big game. Unusual interest is being attached to the struggle, because fans are wondering how the Kansans will fare at the hands of the Cornhuskers after their conquest of the east.

BRYAN TELLS VALUE OF THE SPOKEN WORD

Nebraska's Famous Resident Talks to Hundreds of Students at Special Tuesday Convocation.

"The spoken word will always be important as long as men feel deeply on a subject," was the statement on which Hon. W. J. Bryan based his lecture on "The Spoken Word," at a special convocation before hundreds of University students, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the Temple theater.

"The written page can never take the place of the spoken word," said Mr. Bryan, "because a writer lacks the inspiration of an audience. However, the need of public speaking has become more since we have had newspapers. The press, I believe, is one of the most serious problems in the country today. The government rests entirely on the intelligence of the people, and it is astonishing that such a great nation as ours, should leave its people entirely dependent on private individuals for knowledge of public affairs."

"There are two kinds of newspapers: partisan and those which claim to be independent. Of the two I much prefer the partisan kind, because if one knows there is poison in a bottle, he knows how much to take and how much to dilute it. The partisan paper has its poison marked on the bottle. I believe the independent papers are absolute frauds as it is impossible for a man with learning enough to edit a paper not to have his own convictions on a matter. These papers go into the homes under the guise of being non-partisan organs, while in many cases they have used these means of carrying out the personal views of the editor; or of corporations who control many of the leading independent papers of the country."

"These cases show what we are up against, and show the necessity of the government's devising a means by which official bulletins can be sent out, in reach of every citizen, giving a bi-partisan view of all public questions. When the people of the country are given the light in

HARDING WINS IN LANDSLIDE

Senator Harding Elected President by Big Majority in Republican Landslide in East.

GOVERNOR RACE IS CLOSE
887 Precincts Out of Nebraska's 1878 Give McKelvie a Lead of Almost 9000.

Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio will be our next president of the United States. Latest reports at eight o'clock this morning gave Harding a majority in the electoral college with 276 votes, with many of the western states to be heard from. Early reports from California indicate that it may go republican.

Majorities are being reported in New York, Massachusetts, and Ohio which indicate a landslide in the east. Harding carried Ohio by three hundred thousand, New York state by one million, New York City by five hundred thousand, and Massachusetts by three hundred thousand. Harding carried Cox's home precinct in Ohio with 12 votes.

Nebraska has joined the Harding ranks with a plurality of from one hundred to one hundred twenty thousand.

Complete returns from 887 precincts out of 1878 in Nebraska give McKelvie a lead of almost nine thousand over Morehead in the governorship race. These returns give the following totals: McKelvie, 74,123; Morehead, 66,886; Wray, 42,213. The size of the Wray vote has surprised the politicians of the state. The latest reports from the agricultural precincts are giving Morehead a slight majority over McKelvie.

Reavis in the First district, Jefferis in the Second, Cans in the Third, McLaughlin in the Fourth, Andrews in the Fifth, and Kinkaid in the Sixth, all republicans, were elected by large majorities.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Steal $40,000 in Liquor.
CHICAGO.—Eight burglars crawled through a rear transom today, bound and gagged the watchman and stole $40,000 worth of whiskey, gin and brandy from the liquor warehouse of Manny, Blave & Co. More than two hours were used by the burglars in hauling away the plunder in two trucks.

Record Vote Cast in Iowa.
DES MONES, Ia.—According to reports reaching here, a record early vote was cast in Iowa yesterday. Long lines of voters formed early at the voting booths, and their length appeared to increase rather than diminish as the day proceeded. Election officials expressed themselves as doubtful of whether all who desired to vote could be accommodated before the polls close tonight at 7 o'clock.

Disorders Follow MacSwiney Burial.

DUBLIN.—One civilian was killed and a soldier and a woman were wounded in a fresh outbreak of reprisal violence at Tralee today. The death of Terence MacSwiney has been followed by a wave of violence in Ireland and it has kept both the soldiers and the black and tan police active in Dublin.

Japan Decides on More Warships.

LONDON.—The leading Japanese newspaper, "Nichi Nichi," announces that "in view of America's rejection of the league of nations" the Japanese government has decided that the naval construction program of eight battleships and eight cruisers is insufficient, said a Tokio dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette today.

EX-SOLDIERS ARRANGE FOR ARMISTICE NIGHT

A mass meeting of all ex-soldiers has been called for this evening at 7:30 in the Legion rooms of the Temple building to perfect plans for the Armistice Day celebrations, November 11. The program for the entire day will be announced after this meeting.

Students at the University will be given a holiday Armistice Day afternoon. A downtown parade, in which University ex-soldiers will take part, will be a feature of the day's celebration. The committee of three, appointed to complete plans for the second anniversary of the signing of the armistice, will make known these plans tonight in the Temple.

Last year the men were entertained at a banquet in the evening at the Masonic Temple, followed by dancing at the Orpheum, and a theater party for those who did not care to dance. In the afternoon the University Players presented "It Pays to Advise" for the approval of the ex-service men. Expenses for the entertainment last year were deducted from the money subscribed by the people of Lincoln for the "welcome home" celebration that had been planned for returning soldiers.

UNIVERSITY DIRECTORY CONTAINS NEW FEATURES

Organizations Department More Complete than Ever Before—Only Limited Number Printed.

The University directories published by the University Y. M. C. A. were placed on sale Tuesday morning in Social Science building, University hall, west entrance to Armory, Law building, College Book Store and Aggie Book Store and will be on sale at fifty cents today and tomorrow, or as long as the supply lasts.

They are ready for distribution this year at an unusually early date. Last year their sale began November 24.

Only a limited number of directories have been printed on account of the increased cost of material and workmanship. The paper used this year is of a finer quality than that in last year's books, and the type is different.

The members of literary societies are listed the same as the members of fraternities. The dormitories with the names of the chaperons are listed. The campus organizations department is more inclusive this year than ever before.

RINDGE WILL ADDRESS UNI COMMERCIAL CLUB

Fred H. Rindge, National Secretary of the Industrial Service Movement of the Y. M. C. A. will address the University of Nebraska Commercial Club Thursday morning at 11 o'clock on "The Human Factor in Industry." Mr. Rindge is a speaker of national reputation and will address a number of university organizations Thursday and Friday. The address before members of the Commercial Club will be the first one delivered. A graduate of a large eastern college and in touch with the big business executives for the past ten years, Mr. Rindge has a message for Nebraska students. Last Thursday morning C. W. Nelson, credit manager of Rudge and Guenzel addressed the club on the subject of "Credit." A number of speakers have been engaged for the remainder of the Thursday morning meetings of the Club during November.

The Cornhusker team defeated Rutgers yesterday, 28 to 0. Swanson, Hartley and Pucelik, through a series of brilliant line plunges and passes were responsible for the overwhelming defeat of the easterners.

The defeat of Rutgers by Nebraska puts them on a par with the most powerful eastern elevens. The Huskers expected more opposition than was received and they found it unnecessary to uncork any of their trick plays, relying at all times on straight football.

The long end runs of Wright, Moore and Hartley were the outstanding features of the game. Pucelik played his usual stellar game at tackle breaking up play after play. The big Nebraska tackle broke through the Rutgers line and threw their backs for big losses. In the third quarter he intercepted a Rutgers' pass and sprinted fifty-five yards for a touchdown, however the referee called the pass incomplete and the play was recalled.

The team leaves tomorrow night for State College, Pa., where they will tackle the Penn State crew Saturday. Penn State is considered to have the best team in the east and if Nebraska succeeds in holding the Quakers, she will have a place among the leaders in the football world.

Following is a report of the game play by play as received over a special wire by the Lincoln Daily Star:

POLO GROUNDS, Nov. 2.—The Nebraska Cornhuskers took their first crack at Atlantic coast football teams when they lined up against the Rutgers.
