ROTARIANS SEE FOOTBALL GAME

One Thousand Strong They Attend Husker-Michigan Aggie Gridiron Contest Saturday Afternoon.

More than one thousand members of the Rotary Club and their wives from out in the state parade Lincoln's streets in gala array and witnessed the Michigan Aggie-Nebraska game Saturday on University field. A section of seats in the grandstand was reserved for them by the Lincoln Rotarians.

State members of the organization began arriving at noon and registered at the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce. Before the clash on the Athletic field parades of men and women in hats of all descriptions, paper mache decorations and other personal paraphernalia, trod Lincoln's streets led by the Lincoln high school band. A feature of the parade was the Fremont section, in which each man was attired in a woman's hat of the latest or most ancient vogue.

Sing New Song in Stands.

Out-state loyalty to Nebraska University and her football warriors was displayed when the Rotarians sang a new song to the team and the University using the tune of "Maryland, My Maryland" as the basis. Organized cheers and yells for Nebraska and the singing of Nebraska's songs were other features on the program for the Rotary Club members.

In the evening a banquet at the Scottish Rite Temple terminated a busy day. The basement of the Temple was packed to the corners and waiters had difficulty in serving all the guests.

Bountiful Menu and Clever Toasts.

Oz Black in the Lincoln Daily Star says: "The menu was so bountiful and the opening toasts so clever that it made some of the guests so hilarious that they drowned the speakers into silence with their squawks and rattles before they had entirely finished their toasts."

A good orchestra played throughout the supper. A miniature airplane scouted above the heads of the diners. Little bags of beans and rice, suspended from the ceiling, scattered their contents over the dinner table when some mischievous member of the party pulled the string.

Fictitious telegrams and long distance calls were read. Some of them announced that General Leonard Wood was preparing to fire a volley of machine gun bullets at the speaker who overstepped his time limit; that the chairman of the Omaha delegation was wanted at the Burlington depot immediately because the express car had sprung a leak; and that the new revised figures on the population of Hastings and Grand Island gave Hastings 4,220 and Grand Island 4,219.

President Charles C. Pugsley of the Lincoln Rotary and Alumni Clubs, announced Prof. E. H. Barbour as toastmaster. Governor McKeel spoke on "The State is Ours." Mayor Miller, next in line, thanked the visitors for the new capital and for remarkable extension program which has been launched at the University. Other speakers of note were on the program. Music was provided by Lincoln artists and quartets from various towns from out in the state.

Freshman Law Hop Held Friday Night

The Freshman Law hop was held Friday evening, November 13, at the Rosewilde Party House. More than one hundred couples were present. During intermission Law College songs and yells were given. Refreshments were served throughout the evening.

The party was chaperoned by Dean and Mrs. Warren A. Seavey, Professor and Mrs. H. H. Foster, and Professor and Mrs. G. N. Foster. The success of the dance was largely due to the efforts of the committee, consisting of Glen Gardner, chairman, Ray Styker, Ray Weichtman, C. E. Beck, G. W. Rodwell and Ransom Samuelson.

NEBRASKA WINNER IN CROSS COUNTRY

Huskies Beat Kansas Team in Close Race Over Belmont Course Saturday Morning.

One of the closest cross-country races ever held at Nebraska was run over the Belmont course Saturday morning. The Kansas Jayhawks were forced to forfeit the contest to the Husker athletes when Meidinger who would have finished tenth was forced to quit on account of a bad heart.

Nebraska's fastest man, Bochkora, was unable to compete for Nebraska due to orders from his physician. The Jayhawks' speediest man, Massey, could not run on account of a bad ankle.

Coach McMaster was very well pleased by the manner in which the Cornhusker runners competed against their more experienced opponents. The score would have been 27 to 28 in favor of the Kansas runners if Meidinger could have finished. The Kansas man was in a subconscious condition when picked up by one of the cars following the runners.

Six men started for Nebraska in the race with Kansas having five contestants. The order in which the men finished is as follows:

1. W. James, Kansas.
2. J. Wilson, Kansas.
3. H. Kretzler, Nebraska.
4. E. V. Allen, Nebraska.
5. C. F. Bowman, Nebraska.
6. F. Welsh, Kansas.
7. W. J. Williams, Nebraska.
8. J. McMurphy, Kansas.
9. J. W. Neilson, Nebraska.
- 10.

Frank Bieser finished tenth but on account of five other Nebraska men finishing ahead of him his score could not be counted. The Belmont course is not quite five miles in length. The time for the race was 22 minutes, 46 seconds. This time was very good considering the condition of the roads.

Nebraska's next cross-country race will be held Thanksgiving. The race will be run under the direction of the Lincoln Y. M. C. A. and will be open to all contestants. The number of men now out for cross-country running has diminished considerably in the last couple of weeks. Coach McMaster and Coach Schulte want all the men out for cross-country training that can possibly turn out in order that the men will be in better shape when the call is sounded for track aspirants for next spring.

Stock Judging Team On Way to Chicago

The Nebraska college of agriculture live stock judging team is now visiting herds in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin, before going to the city of Chicago, where it will judge November 27.

The college has shipped nineteen head of fat steers and thirty head of fat hogs to the International show. The steers consist of Shorthorns, Herefords, Aberdeen Angus, Galloways, Red Polls, cross-breeds and grades. The fat hogs consist of Poland Chinas, Durocs, Hampshire and cross-breeds.

Nebraska Campus Shocked--Old Man Awgwan again Out of Bounds

With his smiling face and peppy jokes "Old Man Awgwan" breaks his shackles and looses himself from the press today. He is scattered to the various news-stands for distribution and will soon be swallowed up by the joke-hungry public. The spicy, short, pointed smiles that are contained between the two covers this month are even beyond Awgwan's par to say nothing of being far above the comic publications of other colleges. The cover is unusual and is worth not only seeing but keeping or even framing. The contents are as good as the lid and have even more meaning.

The magazine is a long, long smite from top to bottom and from front to back. Short jokes, spicy bits of poetic license and long poems full of fun and foolishness, Awgwan's favorite dishes. The cartoons have a meaning of their own and it is left to the reader to fathom them. They are also numerous, far more so than usual. The magazine has a kick, more than the allotted 2.75% and is spicier than the most aged of Home Brew.

And "Matilda Jane" comes forth this month with the long looked for "Dear Maggie, Your Henry" letter. This alone is worth the price of admission to the inside show of the college comic. Full of punch and corn-fed humor from start to finish.

this short, concise explanation of a Freshman's first impressions is a long smile that breaks into a laugh before the first paragraph is finished.

And the entire page of cartoons by "Hobb" is a treat in itself. The smiles will grow from ear to ear when the eye hits this page. The other cartoons are also well worth their space. The campus is depicted in several different places in a way heretofore unthought of. The kick, punch, vim and vigor of this issue will make tears of joy burst forth and smiles bubble into giggles and grow into long, hard laughs. And—Awgwan won't be for sale all this week. The little old man will be read and reread until his thin covering is threadbare and his smiles will be fastened forever in the memory of the co-eds.

So make tracks to the nearest stack of smiles, get your copy and preserve it. Better yet, hide it away for the second and third or even fourth perusal. And hide it well for it is rumored among those that know that fun-starving students will be organizing raiding parties in the near future to get the few numbers which may yet be accessible. And also, it is said, some will even hire sleuths to locate the existing copies of spicy, smiling, dashing, gay "Old Man Awgwan."

LAW AND DENT TEAMS PLAY FOOTBALL TODAY

Grid Clash Begins on Athletic Field at 2:15 O'clock—Laws Confident.

The grid clash between Laws and Dents will begin promptly at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon on the Athletic field, according to announcements given out Saturday. This is the second inter-college game of the season. The Law College trimmed the Engineers in the initial game, 13 to 0.

Contrary to the announcement which appeared Friday, the Dental College has several men out for football at the University this year, among them John Pucelik, '22, star of the Husker Varsity eleven, who is taking his third year of work in the College of Dentistry.

The Law team appears to be in good condition after the game with the Engineering College. Members of the Law College will meet before the game and march to the stands in a body. Although classes in the contesting colleges will not be dismissed for the clash, it is expected that nearly all members of the colleges will be able to attend.

WASHINGTON TEAM HERE TUESDAY FOR PRACTICE

Arrive in Morning After Three-Day Trip—Twenty Players and Coaches Making Trip.

The Washington State Cougars left Pullman Saturday and will arrive in Lincoln Tuesday morning. The party includes twenty players and coaches. Popular opinion on the Pacific Coast favors the Washington State men to bring home the bacon from the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The Cougar-Husker clash will be one of the big inter-sectional games held in the United States this season. The contest will be the final game for both teams so it is expected that a real display of football will be demonstrated by both teams.

Washington State has had a very successful season this year, losing only one game. Coach Welch has been drilling his men the past week in preparation for the big clash with the Huskers on Turkey day. The Cougars are invading Nebraska territory with vengeance in their hearts. The reason for this is the beating handed Washington State by the University of California. The final out: (Continued on Page Four)

NEWS OF THE DAY

Labor Gives Ultimatum.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The organized labor's ultimatum to the employers is "No reduction in wages," according to Frank Morrison, secretary of American Federation of Labor. The federation will call at once on the 116 international unions affiliated with it to unite in resisting wage cuts. Ethelbert Stuart, government expert, charged that unemployment throughout the country is largely responsible to attempts to keep up prices.

Republicans to Increase Tariff.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—A billion dollar tariff is to be the aim of the Republicans when the new administration comes into power next March, Republican leaders here have indicated. They have also said that immediate reduction of the army of government employees, by about 200,000, will be made by the Republicans when they take control.

Will Ask to Close Monte Carlo.
ROME, Nov. 22.—Pope Benedict XV is preparing to ask the Prince of Monaco to close up Monte Carlo, the greatest gambling resort the world has ever known. The pontiff holds that the gambling at Monte Carlo is a source of immorality to both men and women, and an appalling waste of money and human life. There is little likelihood, however, that the pontiff's request will meet with success, no matter how urgent it may be.

Throne of Greece Not for Ex-Ruler.
ATHENS, Nov. 22.—Enthusiasm over the prospective return of ex-King Constantine seemed to be dying down today, although the topic of the dynasty is virtually the only one discussed. News is being awaited as to the attitude of the French and British governments and also as to the reports that the ex-ruler will attempt to reach Greece. Queen Mother Olga has issued a message announcing she was assuming the regency "in the absence of my well-beloved son Constantine."

Cost of Living Decreasing.
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The cost of living decreased nearly 2 per cent in the period from October 15 to November 15, according to statistics compiled and made public today by the national industrial conference board. Rents and the average cost of fuel, light and sundries slightly increased and offset the big decrease in the prices of clothing and articles of food, the board's statement said. Every item in the clothing list, except women's hats, went down.

Wilson to et Nobel Prize.
STOCKHOLM, Nov. 22.—President Wilson will be awarded the Nobel prize for 1920, according to Swedish newspapers. The announcement of the prize committee, however, will not be made before the end of November.

CORNHUSKERS STAGE COMEBACK BEATING MICHIGAN AGGIE TEAM

Final Score 35 to 7 in Favor of Nebraska Team Shows Best Offensive and Defensive Work Exhibited this Year—Huskies Break Through Michigan Line Almost at Will.

Varsity Holds Opponents to One Touchdown—Wright, Dale, Moore and Hartley Played Stellar Football—Dale Dashes Fifty Yards Through Michigan Team for Second Touchdown of the Battle.

The Cornhuskers staged a real comeback Saturday on Nebraska field and took the Michigan Aggies into camp to the tune of 35 to 7. When the smoke of the battle had cleared away the Huskers had romped over the Aggies' goal for five touchdowns while the Michigan crew were forced to be contented with one.

The Nebraska offense was the flashiest that has been displayed this season on the Nebraska gridiron. Every member of the Husker team was out for revenge to make up for the Penn State defeat and the tie encountered at Lawrence last Saturday. The final outcome of the game shows that the Nebraskans accomplished what they started after. Wright, Dale, Moore and Hartley were the outstanding stars for the Huskers. Floyd Wright, playing at halfback smashed through the entire Michigan team and shook off a number of the Aggie men and raced twenty-five yards for the first Husker touchdown. Wright's touchdown started the scoring for Nebraska and from that time until the final whistle sounded the Huskers were fighting at top speed every minute of the game. Dale was able to throw his 216 pounds of beef through the Aggies' line for long gains whenever called upon. The big Nebraska fullback dashed through the entire Aggie defense for a sixty yard sprint over the Michigan goal line. Verne Moore, playing a dazzling game at halfback, repeatedly brought the spectators to their feet by his runs around the Aggies' ends. Moore was forced to leave the game on account of injuries. Hartley at half showed up by making big gains through the Aggie line and around the ends. The entire Husker team cannot be given too much praise for the manner in which they shattered the Michigan defense and broke up Aggie formations. The Nebraska forward defense was like a stone wall except when the Aggies took a brace and crossed the Husker line for their lone touchdown. Captain Day featured the defensive play of the Cornhuskers against the Wolverines. "Bill" was in every play and broke through the Aggies' defense time after time throwing the Michigan backs for big losses.

Admit New Members To Debating League

Forty-four new members have been admitted to the Nebraska High School Debating League for its fourth annual contests—the largest number of new applications in any year in the history of the organization, which was launched by Prof. M. M. Fogg in 1908. The Central, North-Central, Northeastern, Southern, Southwestern and West-Central districts are full—have eight members.

New districts may be necessary in the northern territory and in the east-central which has ten applicants.

Principal Cloy S. Hobson of the Kearney High School is the director of the Western district by appointment of the president.

Seven more new members were admitted last week:

- Bassett, Supt. Edwin Aykarn
- Bradshaw, Supt. E. C. Bishop
- Ewing, Supt. O. R. Bowman
- Havelock, Supt. Frank A. Adams
- Long Pine, Supt. A. J. Hill
- Valley, Supt. N. Hammar
- Waverly, Supt. A. B. C. Jacobs

First-series district schedules for the opening debates in January on the League question for the year—the repeal of the literacy-test restriction on immigration—are being arranged. There will be about forty first-series debates.

Rotarians Present.

One feature of the game was the one thousand Rotarians who attended the game in one large group. The people from different cities throughout the state who were in attendance with the Rotary clubs expressed many favorable comments on the Husker showing. The Rotarians did a big share of the yelling and sang one of the old time Cornhusker songs.

A more detailed account of the game will give the Husker football fans a good idea how the Huskers stacked up against the Wolverines.

The contest started with Munn kicking off to the Aggies. Michigan returned the ball to their twenty-three yard line. The Wolverine backs on a series of line plunges negotiated the necessary ten yards for a first down. Michigan tried a couple of more plunges and attempted to pass. Newman caught the pass and Nebraska started a series of smashes but were held and Moore punted. Michigan recovered and started a march to the Husker goal line. Michigan made two first downs then the Huskers braced and Michigan was forced to punt. Nebraska tried a couple of passes and Moore punted thirty yards. The Aggies made first down and Swanson intercepted an Aggie pass and took the ball to the twenty-eight yard line. Nebraska tried a couple of smashes and a pass. Dale to Swanson went over the goal line and it was the Aggies ball on their twenty yard line.
