THE FALL ARROW COLLAR

Society

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20.

Beta Theta Pi.

Beta Theta Pi entertained thirty couples at a progressive dinner Saturday evening. A turkey dinner was served at the chapter house after which the party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rosborough, 2020 South Twenty-fifth street, for their desert. The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing. The dinner table was attractively decorated with American beauty roses. The favors were in the form of booklets with the Beta crest and fraternity colors on the covers. The Beta loving cup song and the names of all who were present were written in the booklets.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave a dance at the Commercial Club Saturday. Ninety couples were present. Purple and gold, the fraternity colors, were used for the decorations. Baskets of lavender and yellow chrysanthemums carried out the color scheme. Purple candlesticks were used on the serving table. The ice cream and cake were also purple and gold. Chrysanthemums were given to the ladies as favors. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Al DuTeau, Dean and Mrs. J. E. LeRoussignol, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burnett.

Alpha Theta Chi.

Alpha Theta Chi gave their fall party in the dining room of the Lincoln hotel Saturday evening. The colors, green and old gold, were used for decorations and also in the color motif in the refreshments. Several out-of-town guests were present. The chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hadley, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sardeson.

Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Sigma Phi Epsilon entertained thirty-five couples at a dancing party at their chapter house Saturday night. Purple and red were the colors. Baskets of red roses and shaded lights carried out the color plan. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Day Erickson, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Koupal acted as chaperons.

Alpha Delta Pi.

The pledges of Alpha Delta Pi entertained their upperclassmen at a house dance for thirty-five couples Saturday evening. Orange and brown were used in decorations. The party was called the "Pilgrim Hop" and appropriate favors were given the guests. Dean and Mrs. Charles Fordyce, and Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Stewart were invited as guests.

Bushnell Guild.

Bushnell Guild entertained twenty-five couples at a Thanksgiving dance at their chapter house Saturday night. Gold and black, the fraternity colors, were used as decorations. Prof. and Mrs. Dana Cole acted as chaperons.

Phi Kappa Phi entertained at its annual fall party Saturday night in the Lincoln hotel ballroom. Boyd Center's orchestra of Omaha furnished the music. Decorations were carried out in the fraternity colors. Punch and parfaits were served for refreshments. Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Lieurance, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Ford were invited as chaperons.

Alpha Gamma Rho.

Alpha Gamma Rho was host at a house party. The decorations were in the fraternity colors, green and gold. Prof. and Mrs. H. J. Gramlich and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wells were invited as chaperons. Out-of-town guests were John D. McKelvey, '18, of Waterloo, Ia.; D. W. Spencer, '20, of Alliance; R. H. Stephens, '20, of Tekamah, and Coach George Clark of East Lansing, Mich.

Phi Kappa Psi.

Nebraska Alpha of Phi Kappa Psi observed its annual Fathers' day at the chapter house. Dinner was served at 12 o'clock for forty persons. Afterwards the fathers attended the football game with their sons. Among those present were: J. A. Sire of DeWitt, G. W. Noble of Omaha, F. H. Hovey, W. M. VanBrunt and J. E. Fisher of Beatrice, W. S. Harding and Dr. A. P. Ginn of Nebraska City, A. L. Haecker, C. W. Branch, Thomas Roope, George Coryell and J. J. O'Rourke of Lincoln, William Overton and W. G. Boyer of York, R. McCreery of Waterloo, and G. H. Hanson of Brantford, Canada.

Lines to a Pencil.

I know not where thou art.
I only know
That thou wert on my desk,
Peaceful and contented,
A moment back,
And as I turned my head,
Some heartless wretch
Went west with thee.
I know not who he was,
Nor shall I investigate.
Perchance,
It might have been the guy
I stole thee from.

HOUSE OF MANY TONGUES

Eleven Nationalities in Girls' Club of Smyrna.

Eleven nations are represented in the recently organized Y. M. C. A. of Smyrna, Asia Minor, which has something over three hundred girls as members. They are Greek, Turkish, Armenian, Jewish, Hindu, Polish, Slovak, British, French and American. Though of many tongues and customs all are enthusiastic over tennis, stenography, typewriting and music, according to reports.

MRS. LANSING DIRECTOR OF
Y. M. C. A.

Re-elected on Washington, D. C.
Board

Mrs. Robert Lansing, wife of the former Secretary of State, has recently been elected as corresponding secretary of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Lansing has served on this board since the beginning of the war.

Alumni Notes

Dr. Charles Way, '16 and '17, of Wahoo, was a visitor at the Alumni headquarters recently. C. W. Mengo, '10, who is an engineer with a land company at Belhaven, N. C., also called at the Alumni office during the past week.

W. L. Stockton, '93, visited the headquarters of the Alumni association recently. Mr. Stockton owns a large ranch at Clarkston, Mont., where he is engaged in the dairy business. He will appear with a paper for the third year on the program of the Montana state dairymen's association program, which will be held in December.

Florence M. Wirt, '17, will, after December first, be secretary of the Y. W. C. A. work at Fargo, N. D.

Rose L. Hanson, '20, is supervisor of home economics in the Iowa State Teachers' College at Cedar Falls, Ia.

W. C. Nobbings, electrical engineering '16, is doing repair work for the U. P. Coal company at Superior, Wyo.

F. W. Raly, '18, writes to Alumni headquarters from Pittsburg, where he is employed by the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company, that he is going to move to Philadelphia in the near future.

Helen M. Givits, '16, has moved from Omaha to Seattle, Wash.

E. Dale Dungan, '18, is assistant cashier of the First National Bank at Hermiston, Ore.

F. A. Manley, '89, formerly of Rock Springs, Wyo., has moved to Chicago where he has a position with the O'Gara Coal company.

George Borroman, former professor of Chemistry in the Nebraska University, recently wrote to the Alumni headquarters: "I have opened a laboratory in Chicago. After my return from Europe, I decided to go into private practice and chose Chicago chiefly on account of my Borromite interests here. We are more than pleased to be nearer our friends of the middle west." Mr. Borroman's wife was formerly Mildred Parks, '02.

Jennie G. McGuffey, '02, is doing Americanization work at Camp Lewis, Washington. She recently visited in Missoula, Mont., and while there she met Mr. and Mrs. Fred Monell, '02 (May Edholm, '04). Mr. Monell is supervisor of a forestry district with headquarters at Missoula.

DARTMOUTH IS ON WAY TO PACIFIC COAST STATES

BOSTON.—The Dartmouth football team, accompanied by its coaches and trainers, left here tonight for the Pacific Coast, where they will meet Washington University on November 27, at Seattle. After defeating Brown University here this afternoon in its first victory over the Browns in fifteen years, the big Green team left for the west in high spirits. Hundreds of Dartmouth students cheered the special train as it pulled out of the South station.

Harvard, 9—Yale, 0.

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—Horses have raced to a victory by a whisker; crews have won by a nose; fights are always won by a hand; and Harvard beat Yale today by two feet with a 9 to 0 score.

May we thank you for the Opportunity of Service;

May you thank us
