ALLEN FOSTER SPEAKS AT TUESDAY VESPERS
New York Man Talks on Artistic Order of Life.
Dr. Allen K. Foster of New York spoke at this weeks vespers Tuesday.
His subject was "The Artistic Order of Life." He said that all arts and sciences are so intertwined in each other that no one can be definitely separated from the others. What is more, one cannot go very far in any study without finding that at many points it touches spiritual things. In a word, religion is the heart of life.
This was his message. To prove this Dr. Allen spoke of literature, and he quoted Browning and Shakespeare almost exclusively. He said that there are three great principles that underlie any work of art, and that these are also found in life. They are idea, feeling and form. The artist must not only have the idea, but must have felt it, and then he must be able to put it into the right form. Human life is as beautiful as any work of art and can be made to excel any masterpiece.

PLANS BEGUN FOR SENSIBLE DRESS PARADE
(University of Southern, California.)
"Dress Right" is the latest slogan.
The proper wearing apparel for every occasion, the right colors to combine with each other and the personal peculiarities of the individual student, and the advanced spring styles are to be the subjects of the big "How to Dress" exhibit to be staged on the campus soon by the classes in advor-tising, in co-operation with the J. W.
Robinson company, of Mrs. Kingsbury, advertising manager for Robinson's, the art classes of the university, the Trojan.

"The well dressed man or woman is the one who is dressed appropriately for the occasion," said Mrs.
Kingsbury in discussing plans with the ad class yesterday. Men are also interested in matters of apparel. Mrs.
Kingsbury thinks, and are as entitled to be told what to wear with each particular suit and whether their overcoats should be "pinchback," as a girl is to be told that she should not wear high heels on a hiking trip or an evening dress to class.
The demonstrations will be varied and as realistic as the nature of the show will permit. Besides portraying the proper garment, the right colors and the appropriate styles, there will be horrible examples of the wrong thing, as it is done in institutions of higher learning as well as elsewhere.
The idea, said Mrs. Kingsbury, is to call the attention of careless dressing so that they may not be thrown into the embarrassing positions of going wrongly dressed when a little thought might make them proper.

Models will probably be chosen at random by a committee from the advertising classes, and will consist of both men and women. Good-looking girls and men who "look like somebody" will be especially in demand.
The "Sensible Dress Parade" is strongly approved by President Bovard, who has stated that he considers the idea of real practical value; by Miss Biles, dean of women, who is enthusiastic about the possibilities of such a movement, and by other members of the faculty.
The committee will consist of the student president, Gwynn Wilson; Grace Cooper, A. B. S. president; Miss Biles, Miss Beers, Miss York and Mr.
Goodnow from the faculty, and Florence Gilbert.

As the support of the entire student body is expected, the exhibition will be held during the school day, probably at 11:40 and at the "Y" hut. The date has not been definitely set.
The co-operation of such a company as Robinson's insures a show that would be obviously impossible for a purely student production. The store is standing back of the advertising class with loans of material, the services of Mrs. Kingsbury, window dressers and similar aid, and with the co-operation of their advertising and publicity facilities.—Trojan.

BETTING ON TIGERS GIVES GIRL CHANCE TO BOB HER HAIR
When your conscience hurts because you contemplate doing a more or less rash act, the best thing to do is to get an excuse for doing this rash act.
So, when a young woman wanted to bob her hair as fashion dictates, her conscience bothered her. Therefore, she made a wager with her girl friends that if Missouri won the game from the Kansas Tigers she would bob her hair.
She is a Freshman. Certainly she knew that Missouri would win.—The Columbia Evening Missourian.

PERSONALS
H. C. Schleuter, deputy city engineer, addressed the class in city engineering yesterday and will repeat his lecture today.
Dorothy Pond, '23, has returned from Omaha where she spent several days.
Phyllis Brown of Omaha will be week-end guest at the Alpha Omicron Pi house.

at the Chi Omega house, has gone to her home in Beatrice.
Jeanetta Adams, '18, of Eagle was a guest at the Alpha Omicron Pi house for several days.
Eva Holloway, '22, is ill at the Alpha Delta house.
Kate Helzer, 18, who is assistant dietitian at the Michael-Reese Hospital in Chicago, is visiting her sister, Bertha Helzy, '23, at the Gamma Phi Beta house.
Nell Wood, '24, was called to her home in Logan, Ia., on Sunday.
Glen Heller, an alumnus of Acacia, is spending a few days at the chapter house. He is on his way to his new home in California. For the past several years he has been in Colo-where he will spend some time before he joins his parents at Long Beach.

Robert Parrott, ex-'23, writes from Tuscaloosa, Ala., that he will not enter school until next fall. He was compelled to leave the University early this semester because of the illness of his father at Bullgap, near Knoxville, Tenn. Since then he has visited at Atlanta and Cairo, Ga. He writes: "Tuscaloosa is certainly a live little town of 20,000 people during the time that the University of Alabama is running full blast. I wonder what kind of a town it will be when the students leave."
C. M. Rydeberg left for Manhattan, Kan., Tuesday to test a dairy herd for the Agricultural College at that place.
Ransom Samuelson has been out of school as a result of an operation for an abscess on his foot.
Miss Wilber of the "Mikadi" company, a member of Beta chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, University of Michigan, was a guest of the local chapter Wednesday.
