DEDICATING SOCIAL SCIENCE.

Social Science Hall will be dedicated tomorrow. President David Kinley of Illinois University will be the speaker of the day. President Kinley is a writer of note and has been a government emissary on one or two occasions. A luncheon at noon will be held at Ellen Smith Hall and a group of University authorities will compose the toast list. The speaking in the evening at Social Science auditorium will finish the dedicatory work. The University will confer the Honorary degree of LL. B. on President Kinley.

The fast growing University may pride itself on the structure which is to be dedicated tomorrow. Its first service was a patriotic one. Long before the building was ready for occupation by the classes of the University permitted it to be used as barracks for the S. A. C. members and in spite of the lost dream which the S. A. T. C. personified, there are many pleasant memories connected with this structure. So it is with a feeling of pride that we see another structure on the campus dedicated tomorrow.

Dedications are serious things. They symbolize the actual putting into operation of structures, monuments and other moments which are built to stand the test of time. They are for the benefit of the people of the future or in memory of the people of the past. With the dedication of Social Science Hall we see another step taken in the progress of Nebraska. The addition campus to the north and east of this building is the location for future buildings which will be erected as Nebraska marches onward in her education work. Social Science Hall is a cog in the machinery of the progress of the University. Next—The Gymnasium and the many other structures in the scheme of the University's building program.

DOUBLE CENSOR FOR MOVIES.

Prominent Nebraskans, especially those engaged in educational work, think that the national censorship placed on motion picture films is not strict enough to make the motion picture show safe for the youth. Accordingly, a bill providing for a state board of censors to censor the films that have passed the national board is to be introduced in this session of the legislature. This bill is opposed by film producers, because if several states follow this plan it will be necessary to produce special films for each state. On the other hand, the move to more carefully censor the films before they are released to the public is supported by a wide-spread popular opinion.

Another method of bettering the motion picture show has been tried by women's club in some communities. Instead of asking proprietors not to show certain films, they select good films and ask for them. This, perhaps, is the best method for organizations without authority. However, censorship is probably a more effective method for the government to use. Whether double censorship is advisable is a question of feasibility.

THE COLLEGE GIRL'S DRESS.

The general opinion seems to be that the girls of the University of Nebraska dress more sensibly now than they did a few years ago. Party attire for general school wear has lost its popularity. Sport clothes are becoming more and more popular.

The wearing of the middy, encouraged by the W. A. A. girls, is becoming more and more the vogue.

In some schools certain standards of dress are required. No rules regarding dress have been made at Nebraska, but the girls are interested in the adoption of definite standards. Valkyrie, a Junior-Senior girls' organization, has called for a conference on college dress for all University girls today. Much interest in this conference has been shown. It is hoped that it will help the University girls to form general, unwritten standards of dress.

Our Inquiring Reporter

Five persons picked at random are asked a question each day.

Today's question: What color do you like best?

1. Joe Ryons, 544 So. 17th street: Doesn't make any difference. All I ask is that they don't fight.
2. Dick Stephens, 1620 R street: The healthy color some girls manage to get on their faces. Exercise?—I wonder.
3. Morris Bahr, 229 No. 17th street: I don't know exactly. I guess I like blues and browns 'cause they are sober.
4. Lamona Mapes, 1410 Q street: Anything bright. Mostly brilliant reds and oranges.
5. Daisy Davenport, 312 No. 14th street: I guess blue's my favorite. Besides I can wear it better than anything else; that makes a difference.

Ex-Service Men, Attention.

American Legion dues for 1921 will be received now. Join the University post, No. 145, while you are in school by paying the adjutant your dues for the new year. You will find him in his office on the first floor of the Temple.

Frank B. O'Connell, state adjutant, writes: "Put it up to the gang straight. Tell them that they must pay their dues this month or become a 'draft lodger.' They certainly don't want to drop out of the Legion, now that it is just getting a nice start and is beginning to really do things. Open season on non-Legion men is now on. Go out and bag 'em! Put your old Post over the top with a substantial gain."

Post No. 45 dues are only two dollars for 1921. This is cheaper than dues for any other Nebraska post. (Signed.)

MILES V. GLOVER,

Adjutant.

CARL H. PETERSON,

Why not thank Aunt Tillie for those lovely organdie flowers she sent you for Christmas, on some real deluxe stationery! Not only can you obtain the ultra-correct thing in our store but every bit of it has been reduced 20%. This reduction applies on all of Hurd's paneled suede paper, correspondence cards, etc. There is white of course, and all the pastel tints for those who would strike a pale lavender pink or blue chord in their correspondence.

Wouldn't certain Philippine women wield a disgusted needle if they knew we were selling the exquisite underthings they had so patiently made and embroidered by hand, for a third less than their original moderate prices?

How would you feel yourself to spend days scuffling and embroidering a delectable teddie and then see some thrifty young person walk out with it for a mere two or three dollars. Gowns and teddies!

Attention, those of you who spurn any but all-linen handkerchiefs! There is a certain group of gaily colored linen squares on sale just now for only 50c apiece. This price in many instances represents less than half of the usual one.

Gloves! Gloves! Gloves! and if you ask your favorite little bird about them, he'll say "Cheep, cheep, cheep."

The fact is, there are certain groups of them which have been drastically reduced because they are odd lots, discontinued numbers, etc. Kid gloves for as little as $1.95 and perfectly wonderful white slip-on gauntlets for $3.95.

Just peep into this box and you'll see a smart satin hat for immediate wear that will only make a dent of $5 in your allowance. It may have one of those alluring lace veils around the crown, be combined with cellophane, or perhaps it's of brocaded Batavia and just sneaked into the satin group.
