THURSDAY, JANUARY 13.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon Alumni Luncheon.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave its monthly dinner for alumni members of the fraternity yesterday at the Grand hotel. A wager was made between the active chapter and the alumni in regard to which would have the largest number represented at the dinner. There were twenty-four active men present and the alumni were represented by twenty-three members. A few short speeches concluded the program.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 16.
Alpha Gamma Rho.

Alpha Gamma Rho observed Sister's Day at the chapter house, 435 North 25th Street, Sunday. The sisters present were: Misses Luella Buck, Blanch Calder, Esther Campbell, Eleanor Dunlap, Ella, Fortna, Lena Richards, Mildred Sandstedt and Dorothea Warren.

Sigma Chi.
Sigma Chi entertained the following University girls at dinner Sunday noon. Dorothy Pierce, '21, Dorothy Wright, '22, Edna Jones, '23, and Lillian Johnson, '23. Mrs. J. E. Brittain chaperoned.

"Twelfth Night."
"Twelfth Night" was repeated to large audiences Friday and Saturday nights at the Temple by the University players.

WEDDINGS.

Brown-Otopolik.
Edith Marian Brown, '18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brown of Sargent, and Hugo Otopolik, '18, of David City, and now a member of the athletic staff at the Iowa State College, Ames, were married January 7 in Omaha. They will be at home at Ames, Iowa.

The bride, after her graduation from the Sargent High School, attended the University of Nebraska, being graduated in 1918. While attending the University, she specialized in work in the Department of Physical Education. Mrs. Otopolik won honors in track athletics, was a member of the class basketball team in 1914, upperclass hockey teams in 1915-16, and girls' basketball squads in 1916-17. She won "N" awards in 1915 and 1916, and received her "N" sweater in 1917.

Mr. Otopolik is a graduate of the David City High School. He entered the University of Nebraska in 1914. He spent one, and one-half years overseas. While in school he assisted in the Physical Education Department and was a prominent member of the Cornhusker football team. Before taking up his work at Ames, he was director of athletics at the Kearney State Normal School.

Turner-Miller.
Of interest to Lincoln and University people was the marriage in Fremont last week of Etta Schneider Turner to Robert Miller of New York. The bride formerly attended the University, where she became a member of Delta Gamma. Mr. Miller and his bride left Monday evening for their honeymoon which will be spent in California. They will make their home in New York.

Warner-Kellenbarger.
Miss Esther Warner was married to Ray Kellenbarger Wednesday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. G. Warner, 1619 R Street. Rev. John Andrew Holmes officiated. Mrs. Kellenbarger was graduated from Nebraska and later took graduate work at Columbia University. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta and was elected to membership in Black Masque, now Mortarboard. She specialized in home economics work, and for the past five years she has been connected with the Home Economics Department. The groom is a graduate of Grand Island College at the University of Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Kellenbarger will make their home on a farm near Aurora.

PRE-MEDIC BANQUET SLATED FOR SATURDAY

Three well known men from the College of Medicine in Omaha will speak at the annual Pre-Medic banquet, which will be held Saturday evening, January 22, at 6:30 in the Grand Hotel. Provisions have been made to take care of more than 150 guests.

George Sims, '22, president of the Pre-Medic Society and editor of its Pulse, will act as toastmaster. He will call for toasts from Dean Cutter, Dr. Poynter, David Ford, Dean Lyman, Allard Folsom and Dr. Barker. Music will be furnished by members of the department.

The Pershing Rifles held initiation last Thursday evening in the military department in Nebraska Hall. The following men who had previously been voted on by the Rifles and approved by the military department, were admitted to membership:

Wm. Welch, L. S. Moore.

Another initiation will be held at the next meeting Thursday, January 20, when the following men may secure admittance to the honorary military organization:

- J. C. Spickles, John Corlett, C. E. Pflug, Dale Schelling, Leo Arthur, E. C. Steinheimer, Herman Frank, E. M. Herbenthal, F. H. Doremus, W. Holyoke, Adelbert Cline, R. A. Brehu, R. G. Reese.

All candidates as well as all old members, are urged to be present at this meeting. Further notice will be made in the Nebraskan concerning the place secured for further meetings.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING COMPANY
"Quality Is Economy"

Did you get an Oregon City Overcoat?

Many did yesterday; and quite a number said that they really didn't need an Overcoat but they thought Overcoats of these qualities were much cheaper than they would be when they needed one—so they bought now for future wear.

Think of it! Fine All-Wool Oregon City Overcoats at $14⁸⁵ $17⁸⁵ $22⁸⁵

Among the models are:

- Double Breasted three-quarter, full belters.
