DAILY NEBRASKAN'S SECOND SEMESTER PLATFORM

1. Clean politics in competitive campus affairs.
2. More paid readers on the campus.
3. A wider scope of news.
4. Realization of the new gymnasium and stadium.
5. Lower prices to University students.
6. Each student an "unofficial" staff member of the Daily Nebraskan.

"RAG" IS FOR "AGS," TOO.

Solicitors report that some students of the College of Agriculture are not subscribing to the Daily Nebraskan because they feel that the publication is not for them. The "Rag" is for "Ag" students as much as it is for those in any other University college. Several special reporters make the Farm campus on their daily rounds, and the Daily Nebraskan endeavors to transplant activities within the College of Agriculture into print through its columns.

The Nebraskan has always devoted much space to the happenings at the State Farm and students out there should feel that the paper is printed for them, too.

Other complaints have come to the Nebraskan that students who do subscribe to the "Rag" on the Farm campus do not receive their papers regularly. About a month ago the service to the Farm campus was reorganized. With the added improvements made, students of the College of Agriculture are insured of one hundred per cent service.

If members of the Agricultural College feel that they are being slighted in news values, a "complaint to headquarters" would be appreciated. Just so much as the College of Agriculture is a vital part of the University of Nebraska, the Daily Nebraskan is printed for "Ag" students as well as those in other colleges.

Thieves respect property. They merely wish the property to become their property that they may respect it more fully.—Chesterton.

GREATER NEBRASKA LUNCHEONS

The first of a series of Greater Nebraska luncheons will be staged this noon at the Grand Hotel. These luncheons are planned for each Friday noon until the series is completed. This is a splendid opportunity for Nebraska's men to gather around the banquet board and discuss improvements and activities that will make the University truly a greater Nebraska. These luncheons are bound to develop a better school spirit, because it is a united desire on the part of all Nebraskans to see their own University expand.

Because the luncheons will begin promptly at the noon hour and close at 12:50, ample time will be given students to attend their one o'clock classes. The program calls for twenty minutes of "chicken pie," fifteen minutes for two speakers and a fifteen minute open discussion on Nebraska's needs. Bill Day will lead the discussion this week.

The reasonable price of the luncheons—forty cent a plate—ought to be a sufficient inducement to attend them. Dr. Alexander and Director Luehring will talk and at some future luncheons special musical numbers have been promised by Edward J. Walt.
