

THE COLONIAL
 WED., THURS., FRI., SAT.
 TOM MIX
 in
 "PRAIRIE TRAILS"
 HAROLD LLOYD
 in
 "NUMBER PLEASE"
 PRICES—10c, 15c and 30c

Supreme
 2:30—Now Twice Daily—8:20
 WED., THURS., FRI., SAT.
 VICTOR MOORE
 EMMA LITTLEFIELD & CO.
 ANGER & PACKER
 ROY & ARTHUR
 OSCAR LORRAINE
 PRICE & BERNIE
 LILLIAN'S COMEDY PETS
 OWEN MCGIVENEY
 Kinograms Topics of Day
 MATS.—26c and 50c
 EVE.—50c to $1.25

LYRIC
 ALL THIS WEEK
 CHARLES RAY
 In Sol Smith Russell's Great Stage Success
 "PEACEFUL VALLEY"
 Up to Date this is Charlie's Best Picture
 "THE SKIPPER'S SCHEME"
 MISSES DOROTHY DOYLE AND LOIS MELTON
 Singing—"Don't You Remember the Time"
 PATHE REVIEW
 SHOWS START AT—1, 3, 5, 7, 9
 MATS.—20c NIGHT—35c

RIALTO
 THURS., FRI., SAT.
 Rialto Symphony Orchestra
 Pathe Semi-Weekly News
 Topical and Travel Pictures
 "LADIES' PET"
 A New Chester Comedy
 THOMAS MEIGHAN and FAIRE BINNEY
 In "THE FRONTIER OF STARS"
 SHOWS START AT—1, 3, 5, 7, 9
 MATS.—20c NIGHT—35c

LIBERTY
 THURS., FRI., SAT.
 Liberty Concert Orchestra
 International News Weekly
 "BUT OF THE ROCKIES"
 Last Chapter
 "BACK FROM THE FRONT"
 JOE NATHAN
 Versatile Novelty Entertainers
 MINETTI & REIDL
 Comedy, Harmony and Jazz on TWO PIANO ACCORDIONS
 AT THE TURN-PIKE
 A Truly Rural Episode with PEGGY HOULTON
 Frank—
 WARMSLEY & KEATING
 In "COMICALITIES OF LIFE"
 MARRIOTT MONOPLANE TROUPE Present an original Monoplane Novelty
 SHOWS START AT—2:30, 7:00, 9:00
 Mats., 20c; Night, 40c; Gal., 15c

Boyd Printing Co.
 Invitations, Christmas Greeting
 Cards, Programs.
 B-1917

WANT ADS.
 LOST—Gray lined gauntlet glove, in U Hall at 11 o'clock Wednesday. Return to Student Activities office. 11
 LOST—Wednesday morning, between U Hall and Teachers' College, Waterman self-filling fountain pen. Return to room 119, Teachers' College. Reward. 11
 Coaching by a graduate student in Chemistry and Botany. Call L7591 or write Box 1274, Station A.

DIETETICS CLASS HEARS LECTURE ON MANAGEMENT
 Miss Hazel Westover, '21, of the College of Agriculture, talked on "Institutional Management," to Professor Feddee's dietetics class on the Farm campus Monday afternoon.
 Miss Westover had charge of the Rudge and Guenzel cafeteria the past summer. She received special training in institutional management at the Washington State University.

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL ELECT OFFICERS TODAY
 The University Commercial Club will elect the officers for this semester at its regular business meeting to be held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in room 305 in Social Science Hall. At the last regular meeting of the club the following nominations were made:
 For president—Herrick and Darlington.
 For vice-president—Gillette and Latowsky.
 For secretary—McMillan and Farmer.
 For treasurer—Eastwood, Wollmer and Eastlack.

TRUE DEMOCRACY COMES WHEN CLASSES ARE EXTINGUISHED
 The social service committee of the Y. W. C. A. met for dinner Tuesday evening at Ellen Smith Hall. Miss Anne Cameron, secretary at the city Y. W. C. A., talked to the girls on opportunities for social service work. Forty girls interested in social service were present.
 Miss Cameron took up the relationship of the working girls and the students. She gave suggestions on how to prepare for social service work and emphasized the fact that those entering the work should not take a condescending attitude. "We will never have true democracy until one class stops thinking they are of better clay than another," she declared.

Miss Marian Wyman, '20, who is now a secretary at the city Y. W. C. A., led devotions. Adlieheit Dettmann was chairman of the committee in charge of the dinner.
 The group will meet the first and third Tuesday of each month for informal discussions.

ALUMNUS TAKES POSITION IN CHANCELLOR'S OFFICE
 Marcus L. Poteet of Pawnee City is now assisting the Chancellor in the compilation of statistical records. He was graduated from the University of Nebraska Arts and Science College in 1916. He is a member of the Innocents, Sigma Delta Chi, Phi Alpha Delta, Kosmet Klub, and Silver Lynx; was business manager of the Nebraskan and the Cornhusker and assistant business manager of the Awgwan.

He spent two years in the World War, eighteen months of which was overseas with the 166th Infantry, Rainbow Division, participating in the battles of Champagne, Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel, and the Argonne Meuse. He was six months with the Army of Occupation in Germany.
 Upon his return to the United States, Mr. Poteet entered the employ of the Firestone Tire & Rubber company at Omaha. He was rapidly promoted to the position of manager in charge of all the publicity and investigation work in the western division which was all of the states west of the Allegheny mountains, with office at Akron, Ohio.

He managed the McKelvie primary campaign and was on the Republican state central committee in charge of the publicity work for Nebraska on both state and national campaigns.

Mr. Poteet is first vice-commander of the American Legion, Post No. 3; chairman of the Americanization committee, and a member of the Legion's state legislative committee.

The two predecessors of Mr. Poteet in this position are Anan Raymond of Omaha, and C. L. Rein of Lincoln. Mr. Raymond was prominent in school activities and upon finishing the University he was made a member of the firm of Brogan & Raymond in Omaha. When the war began Mr. Raymond was commissioned as captain and later promoted to major. Mr. Rein is a prominent Lincoln attorney.

"What do you think of a girl that wears goloshes?"
 "Glaree! Stares! No reply."

BUBBLES
 By Ima Cuckoo.

Wotta Break! Wotta Break!
 Jinks and Jenks met for the first time in years. After falling upon each other's neck and chorusing the usual "Howzzaboyz?" Jinks undertook to be polite and conversational.
 "And how," he inquired with a show of interest, "is Mrs. Jenks standing the heat?"
 Jenks regarded him suspiciously. "How'd you know she was dead?" he demanded.—American Legion Weekly.
 "God must love thinkers He made so many of them."

Not Such a Large Place.
 It seemed that when Rastus and Sam died they took different routes, so when the latter got to heaven he called Rastus on the phone.
 "Rastus," he said, "how yo' like it down there?"
 "Oh, boy! Dis here am some place, replied Rastus. "All we has to do is to wear a red suit with horns an' ebery now and then shovel some coal on de fire. We don's work no more dan two hours out of de twenty-four down here. But tell me, Sam, how is it with you up yonder?"

"Mah goodness! We has to get up at 4 o'clock in de mawnin' an' gathah in de stahs; den we has to hau in de moon and hang out de sun. Den we has to roll de clouds aroun' all day long."
 "But, Sam, how comes it yo' has to work so hard?"
 "Well, to tell de truff, Rastus, we kin' o' short o' help up here."—Inter-collegiate Exchange.

BRIDGE.
 In playing Bridge fifty-two cards are usually required, but as many acts and kings may be used as can be gracefully concealed up the sleeve or under the seat. There is no joke allowed in Bridge,—in fact, any jokes passed across or around the table are considered very bad taste,—they should never be allowed in the game anyhow. However, as at most games and parties, there is always a dummy,—notwithstanding his social status he should be treated with courtesy.

The seating at Bridge is the same as at the dinner table; always sit where you have been accustomed to sit since you reached the age of sitting.

Sodateria
 Quality Foods at Reasonable Prices
 ✕
 Fountain Prices Cut Low
 ✕
 Let Us Prepare Your Party Eats
 ✕
 Punch—Pastry—Sandwiches
 1434 O B2373

The Kline Publishing Co.
 "They Print While You Sleep"
 Printers of the Nebraskan The Leading Western College Daily

If you find your hand is a foot, casually pull your sleeve up to your finger tips and it will be very apparent that you are short-handed and a new deal will have to take place. Be very careful in discarding. Some of the best players have been greatly disconcerted by discarding an ace on an ace of the same suit and then being discovered. If playing that sort of a game, first call your adversaries' attention to a risque picture on the wall, at the same time hum an old-fashioned lullaby to yourself so as not to arouse his suspicions.
 Always enter a game properly equipped. For instance, if you want your partner to bid a "diamond" point to your diamond ring; if a "heart", point to your left side. In the same way it is often found convenient to have a loose spade or club lying around. Sometimes it is very helpful to have mirrors placed in back of the players as this can often give you a good idea of the other hands.

Try to make the game amusing. If your hand holds no face cards say "This hand is not double-faced anyway," at the same time giving a little chuckle to start the general uproar that this unique joke naturally would make. Such bits of repartee are bound to make your card parties a success.

the College Gossip
Let the Girl -- who wants to buy a new dress for a song (even if she can't sing very well) attend this absolutely and positively sensational
Sale of Dresses at 7.50 and 15.00
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.
 In these two groups are attractive frocks of tricotine, serge, taffeta, Georgette, satin, Jersey and velvet—all reduced to prices which represent less than the cost of the materials alone.
 —Second Floor.
Rudge & Guenzel Co

City Auditorium
DANCE
Tonight
 All your friends will be here. Come early!
 Dancing under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Carroll.
 Admission only 10 Cents.