Didja?

Did you ever
Lose your silver mounted
Pen with your initials on it
And your Eversharp pencil
And your chem notebook
And your locker key
And your free receipt
And your registration blanks
And your newly written theme
And your sweetie's letter
And your check from home
And your self-confidence
All in one day?

MISS BERTHA CLARK TO SPEAK AT VESPERS

Americanization will be the subject of a talk by Miss Bertha Clark, national secretary in the emigration department of the Y. W. C. A., at vespers Tuesday at 5:00 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall. Miss Clark comes to the University recommended as one of the best speakers in her field. Miss Frances Perry, who spoke at Vesper services last Tuesday, says that Miss Clark has an unusual personality and is an exceptional speaker. Her talk will be of particular interest to girls interested in social service work.

nett traced the history of petroleum from the beginning until the present time. He also pointed out the lines along which it would develop in the near future.

The Fire Worshippers, a romantic cantata, written by Howard Kirkpatrick, of the voice department of the School of Fine Arts, was presented to the students in the school corridors Thursday evening, February 10. Those taking part were Eula Marshall Brewster, soprano; Mrs. R. O. Hummel, contralto; Homer Compton, tenor; and E. C. Boehmer, bass.

POTER WILL ATTEND PRESIDENTS' MEETING

welcome to hear Mr. Porter when he gives an address at the Red Room of the City Y. M. C. A. at 6 o'clock on Saturday evening, February 19. The topic will be "Students of Other Countries." Mr. Porter should be well posted on this topic as he attended the World's Christian Student Confer-ation held in Europe last summer. Students from forty countries were present at the conference. Mr. Porter thinks that the students in other countries are much more wide awake to the world's problems than are American students. The plates for the dinner are fifty cents.
