LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1921.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

COACH RESTS TIRED PLAYERS

Husker Squad Will Start Training Today for Dual Contest.

IRISH FAST ATHLETES

Nebraska Will Try to Hand a Defeat Similar to Last Year's.

Coach Schissler rested the Huskers yesterday after their strenuous Iowa trip last week. The squad returned in fairly good condition considering the four hard games they played.

The team will start training today for the two contests with the Notre Dame team on Friday and Saturday of this week. The Huskers will probably scrimmage with the best teams in the city league in preparation for the "fighting Irishmen."

Reports from Notre Dame indicated that the Catholic school is represented by the fastest basketball quintet this year that has represented that school for a number of years. Followers of the cage sport will remember the two games Nebraska played with the Irishmen on the Armory floor last year. The Huskers sent the Notre Dame team home with the short end of the score in both contests last year.

Huskers Forced to Limit.

Nebraska was forced to the limit to defeat the Indiana school last year. The Catholics put up a real battle and both contests were hard fought and both teams used rough tactics throughout the two games. Nebraska had a much heavier team to put against the Notre Dame quintet last year but Coach Schissler feels that the speed of the pony five will make up for this advantage that the Huskers had in weight.

Just what the lineup will be that will face the Notre Dame men will not be decided until the eve of the first game on account of injuries received to some of the men on last week's trip.

Captain Bailey has a bad foot at present but should be in condition to battle against the Irishmen. Smith was forced to leave one of the games on the Iowa trip on account of a bad hand. Bekins, who started on the trip with a bad leg is rapidly recovering and will be in first class shape for the Notre Dame contests. Warren received a sprained ankle at Grinnell and had to be carried from the floor. There is some question as to whether he will participate against the Catholics. The remainder of the squad is in good condition for the contests.

Armstrongs vs. Hardys.

A game that will interest a large number of University students will be played on the Armory floor this afternoon at 4:15. The Armstrong team of the city league will meet the Hardy All-Star team. Armstrong's is practically made up of University men, alumni and freshmen occupying positions on the team. The Hardy aggregation have a good record and should put the Clothiers to a real test. The price of admission will be fifty cents for the game.

COURSE IN HOME NURSING ON SCHOOL SCHEDULE

A new course in home nursing has been added in the School of Agriculture at the University Farm under the direction of Dr. J. C. Lyman, and Miss Onah Torrence. A dispensary has been equipped on the second floor of Machinery Hall, for use in connection with this course.

The dispensary is open six days in the week from 8 until 9. Dr. Harms will be in charge Monday, Wednesday and Friday and Dr. Ruth Warren in charge Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

The students have been availing themselves of the advantages of the dispensary. Physical examinations were required of all freshmen entering the school this semester.

SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE TO VISIT SOUTH OMAHA

The School of Agriculture will be entertained as guests of the South Omaha Live-Stock Commission Companies, February 17. Over two-hundred students have signed up for the trip, and sixty short-course men. Prof. Howard Gramlich, chairman of the Animal Husbandry department, will have charge of the details of the trip. The forenoon will be spent in visiting the packing houses. In the afternoon the men will inspect the stock yards and the girls will visit several commercial manufacturing plants. A banquet will be held for the students in the evening at the Live-Stock Commission Cafe.

TICKETS FOR UNIVERSITY NIGHT ON SALE TODAY

Organizations Are Planning Stunts and Skits for the Program.

University Night tickets, at thirty-five cents each, will be placed on sale Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock in the American Legion room of the Temple. A block of seats will be reserved for the faculty; tickets for these may be secured from Don. C. Heffly, Y. M. C. A. secretary.

Among the features of the program is an act by Mr. Norton of Omaha, who has appeared in a dancing act with considerable success at several University functions. John Chaney, the University magician, will appear in an original act.

The Engineers have prepared an original electrical skit entitled "The Man Whom Electricity Can Not Hurt." The Ag Club is planning a skit in which comic songs and "rube" impersonations are to be the main feature. Lois Melton and "Izzy" Pearson will put on a singing and dancing act in costumes.

The Law skit has not yet been definitely decided upon. Two clever skits have been submitted, but a choice has not yet been made.

The Green Goblins will act as ushers and the Silver Serpents will have charge of the concessions.

FINAL RAG CAMPAIGN FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS WADE

Co-Eds Competing for Cash Prizes— Nearly All Frats Are 100 Per Cent.

Subscriptions to the Nebraskan for the second semester will be taken today at the polls and on the campus by a group of co-eds. This will be the last chance for the students to subscribe, except as they bring in their own subscriptions to the office.

The competition for the fifty dollars in cash prizes for the three students bringing in the largest number of subscriptions has been extended over today. The prize winners should be known in a day or two. The number of subscribers is slowly increasing but should reach a much larger number today, according to the circulation department. Practically all of the fraternities and sororities are coming up to the 100 per cent mark and are now receiving the paper each morning before breakfast.

The girls who are taking subscriptions on the campus today are as follows:

Jessie Watson, Willa Perkins, Mercedes Abbott, Genevieve Lames, Marie Hills, Dorothy Fall, Helen Greece, Ruth Miller, Nora Livingston, Winifred Maryhue, Edna Dippel, Maud Ernst, Mildred Walker, Miriam Gilliland, Esther Marshall, Rhea Nelson, Lolite Rominger.

"N" Club meeting tonight at 7:15, Athletic office. Election of officers.

TARDY STUDENTS DELAY PROGRESS ON ANNUAL

Failure to Identify Pictures and Supply Information is Troublesome.

Work on junior and senior and organization sections of the 1921 Cornhusker is being delayed by the failure of some of the students to turn in some of the necessary material for these departments of the annual.

There are a half dozen organizations' pictures at Townsend's studio which have not yet been identified and proofs have not been accepted. Officers of organizations who know that proofs of their group pictures have not yet been accepted as yet should go to Townsend's at once and identify the pictures so that they may be sent out to the engravers at once.

This trouble is probably due to an oversight on the part of officers of a few organizations. Unless these pictures can be identified, they may have to be omitted from the book in order that the work of laying out the organizations section may go on.

Fail to Fill Out Cards.

Probably thirty junior and senior students who have arranged for pictures in the class sections of the annual have not turned in junior and senior honor cards. It may be that the cards were turned in, but were mislaid.

It is necessary that these cards be filled out in order that the data used in this section opposite the picture can be obtained. The full name, the college and the home address of all students is needed on these cards if students have no other honors that they wish to have published.

GENERAL ELECTIONS ARE MAIN ISSUES TODAY

Some Candidates' Qualifications Were Omitted in Yesterday's Issue.

General University elections hold sway today from 9 until 12 and from 2 until 5 o'clock in room 107, Social Science Hall. Professor Cochran, chairman of the faculty committee to judge the election, asks that students vote early and keep an even line to the polling room all day. This will make it easier for those in charge of the balloting.

Agriculture men will vote at the finance office in Agricultural Hall at the State Farm campus. All other students, including the girls in the Home Economics Department, will vote in Social Science Hall.

Each candidate will be allowed to have a challenger from the same class and with a written permit from the registrar to act in such capacity, present at the polls during the voting. The candidates will also be allowed a representative who may be present at the counting of the votes this evening.

SOONERS WRESTLE HUSKERS TONIGHT

Officials Making Effort to Secure a Record-Breaking Crowd.

GOVERNOR WILL ATTEND

Nebraska Team is Trying to Revenge Defeat of Last Year.

University of Nebraska students will have their last opportunity to see the Cornhusker wrestlers in action when the Nebraska wrestling squad mixes with the Oklahoma A. & M. grapplers from Stillwater, Okla. The match will be staged in the Armory at 7:30.

Arrangements are being made to take care of a record crowd. Members of both houses of the Nebraska legislature have been invited to attend and a majority have signified their intention of attending the matches. Governor and Mrs. S. R. McKelvie have accepted an invitation to attend.

Southerners Arrived.

The Oklahoma wrestlers arrived in Lincoln yesterday afternoon and declared themselves to be in fit condition for the tussle. Coach R. G. Clapp of the Nebraska squad declares his men are ready for the meet and with the added experience gained in the tussle with Ames last week the Nebraska grapplers are expecting to give the southerners a run for their money.

Last year the Scarlet and Cream aggregation received a trimming from Oklahoma.

E. R. Schroeder of Iowa University will be the third man on the mat.

Students Urged to Attend.

Director Luehring and Dr. R. G. Clapp, the latter coach of the Nebraska wrestling squad join in issuing an appeal to Cornhusker students to turn out to the Nebraska-Oklahoma meet. They cited the recent Nebraska-Ames Aggie meet at Ames, where the Cornhusker and Aggie grapplers competed in the presence of 2,500 Ames students, a gathering which packed the Ames gymnasium to the doors. They explained, incidentally, that the Ames attendance was not exceptional, citing the fact that at many western and middle-west schools the wrestlers perform before packed houses.

The case of Penn State college may be mentioned in this connection. A news letter, issued last week by the athletic department of the Pennsylvania school, provides proof of the intense interest displayed by Penn State students in the activities of their wrestling teams.

Performers in the Meet.

115-pound—Swim or Dixon, Oklahoma; Bengston, Nebraska.
125-pound—McCullough, Oklahoma; Power, Nebraska.
135-pound—Jackson or Frost, Oklahoma; Long, Nebraska.

UNI PLAYERS PRESENT THREE PLAYS THIS WEEK

The University Players will give three presentations of four one-act plays in the Temple Theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The plays are: "The Florist Shop" by Winifred Hawkrige, "The Old Lady Shows Her Medal" by Barrie, "Moonshine," and "A Night at an Inn," Lard Dunsany's last and most popular melodrama.

"A Night at an Inn" deals with four London crooks who have stolen a famous jewel from the head of a Hindu idol. This play recently created such a sensation when it was presented in New York that in spite of its brevity it has been repeated again this season. Lord Dunsany is known as one of the best writers and interpreters of English drama today.

Tickets went on sale Monday morning at seventy-five cents, and seats may be reserved anytime this week at Ross P. Curtice's.
