

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

VOL. XX. NO. 93.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1921

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

HONOR MEMORY OF DEAN REESE

Unveiling Tablet at Meeting Tuesday Afternoon—Many Former Students Present.

WRIGHT IS CHIEF SPEAKER...

L. R. Stonecker of Omaha Made President of La Section of Alumni Association.

The memory of Dean Marshall B. Reese, for ten years dean of the College of Law, was honored Tuesday afternoon in the assembly room of Law Hall, when many of the dean's former students were present to join the present students in the unveiling of the Reese Tablet.

Judge Hastings presided as chairman of the meeting and Elias A. Wright of Seattle, Wash., who originated the movement for the memorial, was the chief speaker. Lester R. Stonecker of Omaha, state chairman for the raising of the fund, also spoke. Others who made talks during the memorial exercises were: Judge H. H. Wilson, Professor Robbins, Chief Justice Morrissey of the Supreme Bench, Judge Cain, Judge Letton and J. J. McCarthy, former congressman from Nebraska.

Following the dedication of the tablet, which is a lifelike relief in bronze by Mrs. Elizabeth Tuttle Herman of Chicago, a short meeting was held of the alumni for the purpose of making plans for a law section of the University of Nebraska Alumni Association. These plans were presented following the banquet Tuesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce by the committee appointed to draft the constitution and was adopted unanimously. The purpose of the Law Section of the Alumni Association is the advancement of the interest in the Law School. One year of attendance in the Law School is required precluded by a membership in the Alumni Association of the University of Nebraska before a student is entitled to be included in this section.

Elect Officers.

After the adoption of the constitution an election of officers was held with the result that L. R. Stonecker of Omaha was elected president; E. A. Wright of Seattle, vice president; Ralph P. Wilson of Lincoln, secretary and treasurer. Two others, T. M. Huett of Lexington and Dean Warren Seavey, were elected to serve with these officers as members of the executive committee. After discussing the possibility of a publication for the law school and the annual appearance of a news letter, the meeting was turned over to Dean Seavey, who called upon Judge Hastings, Chief Justice Morrissey and Mr. D. L. Wilson for short impromptu talks.

The meeting was then turned over to the members of Phi Alpha Tau, honorary public speaking, fraternity, who had prepared a lively talk-off on several members of the law faculty and a mock trial as evidence of the advisability of the case system. Character delineations of Dean Fournier, Dean Hastings and Professor Robbins were acted out by Herman Schroeder, Glenn Foe and Ray W. Newrow. As evidence of the advisability of the case system the state bar examinations was the next subject for delineation. It was apparently proven that the average justice of the peace in the small towns of the state can absorb from his office a sufficient knowledge of law to admit him to the bar. A trial was then held in which the State of Unconsciousness was plaintiff against the Members of the Nebraska Legislature for 1919 for the murder of Al. K. Hall. From evidence submitted in the state court, where the color of the star informs the jury as to the truth of the witness's words, it was very evident that Al. K. Hall is still very much alive and the defendant was acquitted without even submitting the case to the jury.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL.

All girls trying out for basketball teams must have eight practices in by Friday afternoon, February 18. The Monte Carlo tournament will be played the latter part of next week. The class tournament will be played the week following.

DOBISH LOST FROM BASKETBALL SQUAD

Varsity Forward Undergoes Operation for Appendicitis—Notre Dame Coming.

The Huskers suffered another setback yesterday when Emil Dobish, who has been filling the position of forward on the Varsity, was operated on for appendicitis. Dobish will be out of the game for the remainder of the season.

Chances for bringing the Missouri Valley championship to Nebraska are dimmer than ever with the loss of Dobish. With Patty, Kussell, Summers and Dobish out of the game, the Huskers will present a somewhat crippled lineup to do battle against Notre Dame on Friday and Saturday nights of this week.

Coach Schissler gave the men a light workout on the Coliseum floor yesterday afternoon as a starter to get in shape for the Irishmen. Notre Dame is bringing a powerful team to Nebraska this year and Coach Schissler will not predict anything on the outcome of either game with the present condition of the team.

The Varsity will take a stiff workout tonight and tomorrow will finish up the work in preparation for the Friday and Saturday contests. The entire Notre Dame team is made up of men who played on the gridiron eleven that defeated the Huskers on Nebraska field this fall.

Mehre Leads Irish.

Three of the squad played in the contests with the Huskers last year when Nebraska drubbed the Catholics in both contests. Captain Mehre is at the pivot position and is a real fighter and a good floor man. Last year Mehre played a good game at center and reports indicate that he is better this season than last. Kiley and Anderson performed on the Nebraska floor last year also and gave good accounts of themselves in both games. The remainder of the squad are new men this season and have not been heard from only on the gridiron.

ORGANIZATIONS FAIL TO IDENTIFY PICTURES

Work on Annual Delayed By Failure to Claim Proofs—Honor Cards Must Come in.

There are several junior and senior organization pictures for the 1921 Cornhusker still unclaimed or identified at Townsend's studio. Work on the annual is being delayed as these proofs must be accepted so that they may be sent to the engravers. Officers of organizations who know what proofs of their group pictures have been accepted are asked to identify their proofs at once.

Many junior and senior students have not turned in their honor cards. It is necessary that these cards be filled out in order that the data used in this section opposite the picture can be obtained. The full name, the college and the home address of all students is needed on these cards. If students have no other honors that they wish to have published, The Cornhusker office will be left open so the students can leave their cards on the editor's desk any time during the day. Tomorrow is the last day on which these data cards may be turned in and unless the editor has these data cards only the name and home address will be printed.

Leave Data in Office.

If there are no cards in the office, the juniors and seniors should leave the following data on a blank sheet of paper: Full name (first name first), college (in University), home address (town or city), organizations, and other honors.

The freshmen who have been appointed to work on the Cornhusker staff and who are able to operate a typewriter are asked to call at the Cornhusker office. Work will start at once and those who have arranged to work on the annual and can use a typewriter should see the editor at the first possible chance and work will be assigned.

The following seniors and juniors have failed to turn in their honor cards:

Seniors—Alice Crawford, Alma Crawford, William Day, Cecil Day, Helen Hutter, Joe Ihm, Marlon Kief, Louise Knight, Bernice Miller, John Noel, Earl Leslie Nelson.

Juniors—V. S. Acton, Cozette Airy, O. T. Babcock, Leonard Cowley, Edith Dexter, John Dodds, Mildred Doyle, Louise Emmett, Jane Foster, S. Frances Foster, Amos Ginn, Ruth Hoveland, Gene Hudson, Myra Knowlton, E. L. Kokes, Merle Malchow, Beulah Mills, Isabel Pearsall, Marjorie Reese, Edna O. Schultz, Blanche Votopka, I. C. Wertz, Ethel Woods.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION SMASHES ALL RECORDS FOR VOTES CAST

Hadley, Shaw, Wythers, Van Pelt, Randol, Boyer, Austin, Wenke, Stryker, Dippel and Adams Are Victorious.

Campaigns Closely Resemble Famous "Barnstorming" Methods Used in National Politics in Late Nineties.

SENIOR CLASS.

For President—
Richard Hadley	161
For Ivy Day Orator—
Lawrence I. Shaw	95
Lawrence E. Slater	55
Charles S. Reed	41

JUNIOR CLASS.

For President—
Roy Wythers	299
Joy P. Guilford	184
For Publication Board—
Robert Van Pelt	210
Mary Sheldon	194
For Editor of the Cornhusker—
Ward M. Randol	214
Clarence H. Ross	170

SOPHOMORE CLASS.

For President—
Harlan V. Boyer	401
James L. Proebsting	188
For Publication Board—
Jack Austin	264
Loren A. Daugherty	259
Elizabeth Schlichting	44
For Junior Managing Editor of the Cornhusker—
Adolph E. Wenke	259
Einer Nielson	221
For Business Manager of the Cornhusker—
Ray F. Stryker	359
Stanley A. Matzke	227

FRESHMAN CLASS.

For President—
Edna Dippel	401
For Publication Board—
Charles F. Adams	249
Truman A. Hamilton	58

NEBRASKA GRAPPLERS WIN FROM SOONERS

Oklahoma A. & M. Team Falls Before Cornhuskers—Score Is 39-11.

The Nebraska grapplers defeated the Oklahoma A. & M. College wrestlers last night by the score of 39 to 11. A large crowd witnessed the first big wrestling match the University grapplers have participated on the local mat.

The Huskers out generated their opponents in nearly every match of the evening and were superior artists at the game at all time. The first match between Swim and Bingham was declared a draw, neither man having any advantage and both wrestling hard in the 125 pound division McCollough lost to Power of Nebraska on a decision. Both men were about equally matched but the decision was awarded Power in the final bout.

Long brought the crowd to their feet by his wonderful display of agility in dumping Frost in the 135 pound division for the first fall and wrestling the other two bouts to a draw. Reed was awarded the decision over Nash in the next bout. Captain Locabow was given the decision over Pickwell of Nebraska in the last two bouts of their match, thereby winning the match.

Sensational Match.

Troutman and Vols wrestled the sensational match of the evening. Both men were equally matched and the bouts were hard fought throughout. Troutman was awarded the decision when the extra periods were completed. In the heavyweight division Captain Hoyt of the Nebraska team had no difficulty in disposing of Williams. Both falls were obtained by the head-lock route. The first coming in 49 seconds and the next in 1 minute and 20 seconds.

The Nebraska wrestling team should bring home a long string of honors when the Huskers go to some of the big meets that Dr. Clapp, the wrestling coach has entered the team for Smashing all previous records for the number of votes cast, the second semester general elections came to an exciting close when the results of the contest were announced from the registrar's office. The official canvass showed that Lawrence Shaw won the fight for Ivy Day orator, while Hadley, Wythers, Boyer and Edna Dippel have been selected to lead the four classes.

Record Vote Cast.

Almost 1,700 votes were cast when the polls closed at 5 o'clock and the tired campaigners left Social Science Hall with a cheer and another handshake. No one would even venture a guess on the outcome until the official returns showed that majorities of the successful candidates ranged anywhere from five to over 200 votes. At no time during the time when the polls were open did the crowd quiet down, and at times the four or five hundred onlookers had to be cleared from the halls in order that classes might be carried on.

In an even and uncertain contest, Lawrence I. Shaw won the honor of delivering the Ivy Day oration from his two competitors by a majority of forty votes. Richard Hadley received a complimentary vote of 161 votes for senior president. Hadley was the one candidate for head of the fourth-year class.

Junior Election Exciting.

The junior class contests furnished the most excitement for the campaigners, and the fights for president of the class and editor of the Cornhusker were closely contested. Roy Wythers ran over a hundred votes ahead of Guilford, his opponent. Randol nosed Ross out for editor by forty-four votes. The vote on editor was closer and the successful candidate was less than fifty votes in the lead. Adolph Wenke becomes the new managing editor and Ray Stryker the new business manager of the Cornhusker as a result of the elections.

Harlan Boyer won a smashing victory in the sophomore fight and led his opponent by 213 votes. He received the largest majority of any successful candidate. Edna Dippel received one of the highest complimentary votes cast in any general election. Charles Adams carried off the honors in the freshman publication.

(Continued on page two.)