A WORD TO THE WISE IS—SUPERFLUOUS.

It's a hard, hard fight at the end of the semester
 When you've dilly-dallied in your work and half the time "skipped class;"
 It's a stiff lastweek that you keep the candles burning
 Cramming for examination -- and you're lucky if you pass.
 It's a darned sight more monotonous I grant you
 To attend French composition class than go and see "Irene,"
 But though Charles Ray thrills you more than Dr. Swezey
 It isn't what you'd call a good excuse to hand the Dean.
 And when the finals come, and brain and "crib" you're searching
 For the stuff in trigonometry your teacher asks concerning,
 You'll wish you'd had the sense to know throughout the weeks preceding
 That Wallace Reid and Doris May wouldn't add much to your learning.
 The "Banking" and the "English" that Charlie Moon instructs in,
 Are more fascinating than when taught by Ivey or by Gass,
 But the grade reports the Registrar sends Father
 Aren't based upon your showing in "Saratoga Class."
 My boy, I don't advise you to become a gosh-darned book-worm,
 But you'll save yourself a bunch of grief and mental strain, I know,
 If you'll not postpone all your work till mid-semester,
 But work a wee bit harder on your studies as you go.
 —Doane, '22.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY ON THE CAMPUS.

It has come to our attention from first hand information that a number of students were caught in the act of practicing "highway robbery tricks" on a few Cornhuskers yesterday after the tickets for the annual University Night performance went on sale in the Temple. A number of students purchased tickets in large numbers—the highest reported was fifty-five—and in some cases expected to sell them to unsuspecting students for fabulous prices. A certain crowd purchased a number of tickets for thirty-five cents and later sold them for fifty cents each to those waiting in line for tickets.
 This practice of campus robbery must be stopped. Students who are offered University Night tickets at prices in excess of thirty-five cents which the committee has set as a fair price, should boycott those who offer these tickets for sale.

Parasites that take advantage of their apparent means of making a little easy money to the disadvantage of someone else should not be allowed to thrive at this University. They are just about as welcome as the worms that were trying to sap the life blood from the University, with their methods of sinister gnawing. Boycott them!!!!!!

REMINDERS OF ANOTHER DAY.

The election yesterday was one of the most exciting student affairs that the campus has seen for many years. It was notable from other standpoints too. The novel methods used by some candidates deserve particular mention. Concerts by jazz bands at meetings and in coaches of other days, stump speeches and "musical calls" were some of the methods used that are a reminder of the national political campaigns of the late twenties. There is no doubt that it was the most exciting and most orderly campaign and election for years. Politics has been reborn at Nebraska.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION SMASHES ALL RECORDS FOR VOTES CAST

 tion board scrap with a majority of 121.

No election of recent years has caused the excitement of yesterday's polling. Monday night at the Knights of Columbus Hall about five hundred men came together to "hear the dope." The Southern Rag-a-Jazz band and a number of fiery speeches made an exciting pre-election battle. On Friday morning, an old stage coach drawn by two white horses paraded up and down Twelfth street with a jazz band inside. Big signs announcing the candidacy of Randol, Wythers, Wenke, Stryker and Boyer were hung on the sides.

Laws Come in Body.

The crowd at the polls in Social Science 107 became the largest about 10 o'clock when the men from the Law College came in a body to support their candidates. Cheers and the tune of "There'll be no Lawyers There" made the onlooker believe that he was attending a football rally rather than an election booth. The Engineers were present one hundred per cent strong.

Richard Hadley, senior president, is a member of Phi Gamma Delta. He belongs to the Kosmet Club, Sigma Delta Chi, Iron Sphinx and Vikings.

Roy Wythers is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Iron Sphinx, Vikings and has been business manager of the Nebraskan. Ward Randol, new editor of the Cornhusker, is a member of Beta Theta Pi and besides being active on the Awgwan and the Daily Nebraskan, he is chairman of the Cornhusker song-book committee.

Harlan Boyer, president of the class of 1923, is a member of Phi Kappa Psi, Iron Sphinx, the Kosmet Club and of Phi Alpha Tau. Edna Dippel, freshman president, is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Adolph Wenke successful candidate for Cornhusker managing editor, is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, Iron Sphinx and was a charter member of Green Goblin. Wenke is an "N" man. Stryker, new business manager, is a member of Phi Delta Theta. He is a member of Iron Sphinx and assistant business manager of the 1920 Cornhusker.

Lawrence Shaw, Ivy Day orator, is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Delta Phi and Kosmet Club. He has won his "N" in football and was president of his class in his sophomore year.

Robert Van Pelt is a member of Silver Lynx. He is chairman of University Night committee, is on the Y. M. C. A. cabinet and has been on the Nebraska debating team. The junior member of the Publications Board is Jack Austin. He is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi and Iron Sphinx. Austin is managing editor of the Daily Nebraskan this semester. Charles Adams is the other newly elected member of the board. Adams is a pledge to Pi Kappa Phi. He is a member of Green Goblin and was graduated from Lincoln high school.

To the University Students

Arrangements have been completed whereby there will be presented at the ORPHEUM THEATRE on Monday and Tuesday of next week the MOST BEAUTIFUL and UNUSUAL ENTERTAINMENT EVER OFFERED IN THIS CITY.

This will be an attraction that will AMAZE, DELIGHT and THRILL. It is not GRAND OPERA; it is not DRAMA; it is not TRAGEDY; it is not COMEDY; it is not PANTOMIME, nor an exploitation of CHOREOGRAPHIC ART; it is not POETRY nor is it PAINTING!

And yet you will find it is COMPACT OF ALL THESE ARTS—a new and an EIGHTH ART—combining the beauties of all the OTHER ARTS welded together into one perfect, harmonious whole by the MASTER-MAGICIAN OF THE ART WORLD!

It is DAVID WARK GRIFFITH'S master effort, a picturized elaboration of the play, "WAY DOWN EAST," and presented as a complete new ART FORM, combining music with its other attributes. This unusual offering will be shown here for only two days and there will be matinees on each day in addition to the evening performances. The presentation consumes upwards of three hours and can only be made twice each day.

The carefully chosen organization of symphony players, who are brought especially from New York and interpret the thematic score in accompaniment of the attraction, is under the direction of Mr. Gustav Hinrichs, who succeeded the late Theodore Thomas upon the death of the brilliant leader of that famous organization. Mr. Hinrichs has been associated with the Metropolitan Opera in New York and has occupied a chair at Columbia University during the past few years.
