

NEBRASKA SONG
BOOK VALUABLE
TO SCHOOL SPIRIT

tuneful, as melodious, as stirring, as those of any college in America.
The Song Book will serve with the Cornhusker to preserve the present for the future, bringing, in the day, to come, memories of our college days. There are songs to revive memories of football triumphs, of Ivy Day, of old "U" Hall, of your best girl, of the fraternity harmony four, and of all those treasures of college days which will grow more dear as the years pass by. The songs to be published are representative of Nebraska's best musical talent; they have a strictly Nebraska flavor; and are such that anyone may be proud to claim them as the songs of his alma mater. The book will enable all Nebraskans to carry their college songs with them wherever they may roam, and it will be the link whereby our present will be connected with the future.

WANT GIRLS FOR TRAINING COURSE

Girls who would like to take the Camp Fire training course for guardians this semester are asked by Mrs. F. F. Teal, Wolohi leader, to meet at 4 o'clock Monday at Ellen Smith Hall. All girls who completed the course last semester should meet for a few minutes at the beginning of the hour. The first talk in the series of twelve will be given by Mrs. Teal at this meeting. No previous Camp Fire experience is necessary to enter this class. Classes during the first semester were held every other week.
