FAST GAMES IN INTER-FRAT MEET

Tournament Gets Away to Flying Start—first Four Matches Played Yesterday.

ONLY ONE GAME TODAY.

Kappa Sig, Kappa Delta Phis, Delta Chis and Phi Deltas All Win in First Round.

The inter-frat tournament got away to a flying start yesterday afternoon and last evening when the first four games on the schedule were run off. In the first game the Kappa Sig took the measure of the Pi Kaps by the count of 22 to 14. Wyant for the Kappa Sig was the big point winner for his team with four field goals and eight free throws.

In the second contest the Pi Phi Chis defeated the Kappa Delta Phi aggregation by a score of 20 to 7. The Medics were too much for the Kappa Deltas and had little trouble in winning this game. Tipton scored the largest number of points for the P. Chi Chi team with a total of 8. Hill for the Kappa Deltas had 5 points to his credit when time was called.

The hardest fought game of the evening was between the Alpha Theta Chi quintet and the Delta Chi crew. The final score was 12 to 7 with the Delta Chis on the long end. Close guarding on the part of both teams was the feature of this contest. Hamman secured 5 of the Alpha Thetas points while Dunlap was high point man for the Delta Chis with 4 counters.

In the final contest the Phi Deltas trimmed the Alpha Gamma Rho team with a score of 22 to 11. The Phi Deltas displayed the superior team work of the two teams and Hall was able to locate the basket from any angle. Kimball for the Alpha Gamma Rho team secured 6 of the counters for his team while Hall for the Phi Deltas was credited with 16 points.

He will also speak before the National Society for Education. His theme will be on the correlation of the results of mental tests and teachers' gradings. MONTE CARLO TOURNAMENT STARTS WITH FAST GAMES

The first part of the Monte Carlo tournament was played off Wednesday afternoon. The games were hard fought from the first sound of the whistle.

The Reds played the Whites and came out with the longer end of the 14 to 9 score. The Pink team managed to keep the ball in its territory most of the time and won over the Greens by a score of 20-9. In the Yellow and Purple scrap the Yellows had possession of the ball most of the time but were only able to win with a score of 8-4. The Black and Blue affair was justly named. Both teams were just about evenly matched and took turns in leading the score. The Blacks got in a field goal just before the final whistle and lead the score 16-15.

The Whites will meet the Pinks today at eleven o'clock in the semi-finals. The Yellows will play the Blacks Friday noon. The finals of the tournament will be played Saturday at ten o'clock.

VESPERS SPEAKER TALKS ON CENSORSHIP BILL

Mrs. Sheldon Gives Reasons for Need of Movie Control by Board in Nebraska.

Mrs. Sheldon spoke at vespers Tuesday on the bill providing for a state board of censors for motion picture films, which the Nebraska legislature is now considering.

The girls attending vespers were given an opportunity to sign a petition, which the University Y. W. C. A. is circulating, asking the legislature to pass the motion picture censorship bill.

Mrs. Sheldon was a member of the Child Welfare Commission, whose duty it was to study the child laws in Nebraska. One of the most important things the commission was to report on was the influence of motion pictures on children.

The commission sent the following questionnaire to all the superintendents of city schools in Nebraska:

- 1—What is the influence of the 'movies' on the children in your community?
- 2—What per cent of the pictures are objectionable?
- 3—What are the objectionable elements?
- 4—What per cent of the children attend?
- 5—Personal remarks.
- 6—Would you like to co-operate in helping get rid of the objectionable features?

The substance of the majority of the replies was that the influence was bad, that 50 per cent of the pictures were objectionable and that 75 per cent of the children attended. The features most emphasized as objectionable were the eternal triangle, the showing of the home relationship at a disadvantage, the trivial subjects treated and the making a hero of a criminal. All were eager to help eliminate the objectionable features.

Four states already have their motion pictures censored and they have found it successful. Attempts have been made to have these laws repealed, but the laws have remained. If this is true, Mrs. Sheldon argued, a board of inspection for Nebraska cannot be unfair or unconstitutional can it?

This board would not cost the taxpayers anything, as the motion picture producers would have to pay a small fee to cover it.

SONG-BOOK CAMPAIGN ENDS IN THREE DAYS

Sororities Neck and Neck in Race for Three Prizes Offered for Subscriptions.

Three days are left in which to subscribe for the Cornhusker Song book. Saturday night subscribers will have an opportunity to hear some of the catchy tunes to be contained in the book when when sung by Lois Melton and Izzie Pearsall.

The book, which will contain all the popular songs of Nebraska days gone by and many new songs by students, faculty and alumni, will make the volume well worth having. Not only will there be the best Nebraska songs, but the song hits from all the big Universities in the United States.

Sororities are working hard on the subscription campaign in hopes that they will be the lucky ones to get the big $125 rocking chair, or the two lamps worth $75 and $40 each. The contestants are neck and neck now and with three days left in which to get subscriptions it would be hard to predict who will come out victorious in the contest.

No better way to show Nebraska spirit or increase the spirit we now have can be found than by buying a songbook. Doing this makes it possible to publish a book that will be a monument to the students of the University. It will serve as a beginning for later songbooks and a copy of the first edition of the songbook will make a keepsake worth while.

HUSKERS TO TAKE FINAL WORKOUT

Schissler's Squad Will Receive Last Practice Today Preparatory to Colgate Games.

COACH ON SCOUTING TRIP

Easterners Have Enviably Record—Have Lost Only Two Games by Small Scores.

Today will be the last practice the Huskers participate in before meeting the fast Colgate team tomorrow and Saturday nights at the Coliseum. Coach Schissler will put the squad through a stiff scrimmage this afternoon in preparation for the easterners.

Coach Schissler will go to Omaha this evening to scout the Creighton-Colgate contest. The Creighton team were able to defeat the Notre Dame quintet and should prove to be a stumbling block for the fast eastern aggregation.

Colgate will in all probability be the hardest opponent the Huskers will have to face this season. That Colgate has a wonderful scoring machine can readily be seen from the record the easterners have made during the past season.

The Colgate quintet have suffered defeat only twice this season and have eleven games on the winning side of the score board. The easterners lost to Pittsburgh and the Rose Polytechnical Institute. Both of these contests were hard fought and were lost by small margins.

Has Met Strong Teams.

Colgate has played some of the greatest basketball teams in the east this season and the followers of the Husker team will have a chance to compare the standard of the Nebraska quintet with that of other eastern teams.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLANS FIRST PRODUCTION SOON

University Players to Present "Pygmalion" March 3 in Temple Theater.

The University Dramatic Club will give its first production of the year on Thursday night, March 3, at the Temple theater. "Pygmalion," by Bernard Shaw, will be presented by a cast of students, most of whom have appeared this year in the University Players production.

Tickets for the play will go on sale today and may be purchased from members of the Dramatic Club. The price of admission is 50c. Reservations may be made at the Ross Music Store. The leading parts are played by Eleanor Pegg, Edward Norton and Stoddard Robinson.

The story of "Pygmalion" centers around a curbstome flower girl. She is taken and on a wager taught how to speak and act properly in high society so that she may be passed on as a duchess within six months. Her experiences and those of her tutor during this time form an interesting and exciting plot.

"Pygmalion" may be the only Dramatic Club production this year, as no other play is under consideration at the present time. Miss Alice Howell will coach the play next week. The cast has been at work for some time.
