CARNEGIE FUND SENDS SPEAKERS

Foundation to Send Lecturers to Speak to University of Nebraska Students.

OPEN MEETING IS PLANNED

Professor Allen of University of Minnesota Will Be First Speaker of Group.

The Institute of International Education, financed by the Carnegie Foundation, through its International Relations Clubs section is sending to the University of Nebraska club several speakers of world fame. The Carnegie Foundation is furnishing the funds for these lectures, some costing as high as $500. The lectures are given free in several leading universities of the country to the general student body.

Prof. C. D. Allen of the University of Minnesota, head of the department of political science, will speak at 7:30 at the Social Science auditorium on the economic and political condition of England with special reference to foreign affairs.

Professor Piccoli of the University of Pisa, Italy, who is giving a series of lectures here on modern language, will give a lecture at 7:30 Tuesday evening, March 14, of special interest to the club. His topic will be "Political Life in Italy."

Bishop Nicholar, formerly Father Vellimirovic, of Serbia, will speak at 7:30 Friday evening, March 18. He is the most distinguished Prelate of the Eastern Orthodox church. He is also an author of educational, political and religious books. He speaks English fluently. He will talk on the reconstruction of Europe.

FOUR NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO PRESS CLUB

A short business meeting of the University Press Club was held Tuesday evening in the auditorium of Law Hall. Story Clark, president of the organization, presided. Four new members were elected: Roberta, '24; Alice Heldt, '23; Genevieve Lamés, '22, and Phyllis Langstaff, '23. These new members are members of the Daily Nebraskan and Cornhusker staffs.

The Single Tax system was unanimously endorsed by members of the club. It was decided to ask for two pages in the Cornhusker, in order that every member's name may appear in the annual. Members were urged to attend the lecture to be given by Irvin S. Cobb, March 22, in the city auditorium.

Several new matters of business were taken up and laid upon the table until the April meeting.

STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT ITALIAN EDUCATION

Prof. Raffaele Piccoli of the University of Pisa, presented to an audience of faculty and students in the Social Science auditorium Tuesday afternoon picture of the Italian education system as contrasted with our own.

Dean L. A. Scipio of Roberts College, Constantinople, will speak at a Convocation Monday morning at 11:00 o'clock in the Temple Theatre on "Conditions in Turkey During the Recent War." He is touring the country in the interest of Roberts College. This college is an American college at Constantinople supported by American people. Dean Scipio is a former member of the engineering faculty of the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Winfield Scott Hall, lecturer and writer, connected with Northwestern University as a professor in the medical department, will talk on "Social Hygiene" at a special convocation for men Thursday, March 17, at 11:00 o'clock. He is now with the National Board of Moral Welfare.

FLOYD OLDT ELECTED PRESIDENT OF Y. M. C. A.

Association Elections Held Tuesday and Wednesday—Glen Dorsey is Vice President.

Officers for the Y. M. C. A. were chosen yesterday for the coming year. Floyd Oldt was elected president, Dorsey vice president, and William Oldstadt secretary. These men will take office immediately after spring vacation.

The task of providing recreation for the basketball boys is occupying the attention of the present cabinet this week. The Y. M. C. A. social rooms have been given over to the visiting high school boys and the recreation headquarters have been established in the building. Information concerning the tournament or city may be secured at the desk in the main hall, and the schedules of games and scores of contests in all classes will be posted hourly in the lobby beginning this morning.

Floyd Oldt, general chairman of the committees in charge of recreation, has supervision over three groups. One group has been responsible for meeting all trains, starting before daylight Wednesday. Taking the men to the rooms assigned at the Chamber of Commerce has also been undertaken. The Y. M. C. A. has also provided a program of free entertainment for the teams. well as views of the Michigan Aggies on the home field will be shown. The University Players will also present a play under the direction of the "Y." All basketball players have been invited to make full use of the reading material in the lounging rooms and to spend as much time as they wish in the Temple. The cafeteria in the basement is able to furnish meals to the out-of-town boys all during the week.

GRACE STUFF ELECTED PRESIDENT OF Y. W. C. A.

Two hundred and fifty-four ballots were cast for the new Y. W. C. A. officers. The following were elected: President, Grace Stuff; vice-president, Margaret Henderson; secretary, Florence Sherman; treasurer, Nancy Penoyer; undergraduate field representative, Adelheit Deitman.

The cabinet will consist of the ten girls who were nominated for officers and others who will be chosen later. They will be installed the week after spring vacation and take over the work of the association at that time.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL CAGE TOURNEY AMONG NEBRASKA HIGH SCHOOLS GETS UNDER WAY THIS MORNING

Seventeen Hundred Athletes Flock to Lincoln to Attend Big Basketball Carnival—Thirteen Classes Start Play Today.

COLISEUM TO BE SCENE OF MAJOR DIVISION CONTESTS

Varsity Letter Men Aid in Handling Big Affair—History of State Tourney Reveals Many Interesting Features.

With all tournament records shattered by an entry list of 201 teams the Eleventh Annual High School Basketball tournament will get under way this morning at 8 o'clock when the first series in each of the thirteen divisions will be started. The tourney will continue at top speed until Saturday evening when the finals will be staged.

Close to two thousand high school athletes will be in Lincoln for the tournament. Six playing floors will be used to play off the thirteen divisions into which the teams have been classed.

A small army of officials are required to handle the some three hundred games. "N" men assist in handling the tournament, serving as referees, scorers, timers and clerks.

This is the eleventh year of state high school tournaments in Nebraska. Each year has brought an increased interest in the cage sport and the entry list has been constantly increasing, rising from twenty-one teams in 1911 to over two hundred quintets entered for the 1921 tourney.

In 1911 the first Nebraska high school tournament was held at Lincoln. Twenty-one teams were entered for the event. The honor of winning the first tournament went to Beatrice.

Omaha Central won the 1912 tournament in which twenty-five teams were entered. The Omaha five won a 22-8 victory from South Omaha in the final game. University Place took the consolation tourney from Beatrice by a 19-6 score.

Tourney Enlarges Classes.

The tourney branched out a trifle in 1913. Two playing floors, the Armory and chapel at the University of Nebraska, were used and forty-four teams took part in the play. Geneva won the championship by defeating University Place, 41-26.

Three floors were used to accommodate the sixty-four teams entered in 1914. Lincoln won the championship that year by defeating Omaha, 21-18. The Red and Black squad won in the last twenty seconds of play. In the consolation tournament Crete won from Sutton, 25-11.

Up to 1915 all the teams were entered in one large tournament and often the quintets were required to play two or three games a day. In 1915 the system of classifying the teams was introduced to aid in handling the tournament and also to encourage the smaller teams to enter the tourney. Seventy teams were entered in 1915. Lincoln again won the tourney by defeating Omaha, 17-10. Hebron won Class B. Nebraska City took Class C, the consolation tourney, from Oakdale, 21-6.

Metropolis teams were crowded out of the finals during the 1916 tourney. Eighty-five teams were entered and Beatrice won the state title by defeating Crete, 15-11. Minden won from Arlington in Class B, 19-9. Humboldt took Class C from Dunbar, 22-20.

In 1917 the entry list passed the one hundred mark. One hundred and nineteen teams were entered. Lincoln won Class A from Omaha, 17-11. In Class B Hardy took first honors by defeating West Point, 26-11. Diller won Class C from Alexandria, 33-11.

Lincoln and Omaha again went to the finals in 1918. The addition of the tournament entry list made more classes necessary and six divisions were run off that year.

Lincoln vs. Omaha Again.

Lincoln defeated Omaha for the title 29-13. In Class B Shelton won from Oakdale, 46-23. Exeter won from Hardy, 14-12. In Class C, Ravenna defeated Seward, 30-2. In Class D, Scribner won Class E from Sidney, 17-16. Gretna defeated Bayard, 32-31, in the fight for Class F laurels.

One hundred and fifty teams competed for honors in 1919 and eight classes were needed to handle the

SCORES BY WIRELESS.

The Engineering and athletic departments are co-operating in sending out reports on the results of the high school basketball tournament. The results will be sent out on Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 12:30, 6:30 and 10:30 o'clock and if any games have not ended by that time their outcome will be sent out later. H. O. Peterson is in charge of the wireless; G. S. Slater is chairman of the committee.
