THEATERS.
 Three of the seven numbers at the Orpheum this week are dancing acts and all are well received. Georgette and Capitola DeWolf, the headliner, have an array of costumes from all parts of the world. Miss Rogers in "Step Lively," keeps four young men busy following her around. The rest of the bill is up to the usual high standard of Orpheum presentations.

DOWN IN THE OLD "U" HALL.

To the Tune of "Down by the Old Mill Stream."
 Down in the old "U" Hall,
 Where I first met you,
 With your eyes of blue,
 I was thrilled clear through,
 It was there I knew,
 That I wanted you,
 You were my rat,
 I was your "kittle,"
 Down in the old "U" Hall.

As They Say It.

YOU HAVE WRITTEN POEMS!
 Do you care to have them revised or constructively criticised by successful authors? If you do, then send us your manuscript (stories, articles or poems). We will criticise, and place them should they prove to be acceptable for publication.
 There is no actual charge for our services. If, however, you have not previously enrolled with the advisory department of this association, we request that you enclose the initial fee of two dollars, which we must ask of each new contributor. There is no additional expense, no future obligation.
 It must be realized that we can only be of aid to those of serious intent. If you do mean to strive for literary success, we can help you in many ways. Our services are yours until we have actually succeeded in marketing at least one of your manuscripts. Send something today!
 Please enclose return postage with your communications.
