Student Opinion

EXPLAINS POSITION.
 Editor, the Daily Nebraskan:

In your number of Friday, March 25, 1921, you have a heading "Baseball Diamond at Farm Campus, Military Department Forces the Sport Off the City Campus."

This was evidently published under a misapprehension. This department would be more than glad to see intra-mural baseball, but it has been assigned a small field 300 yards by 100 yards for use as a parade ground and that after having surrendered the athletic field and almost exclusive use of the armory to the athletic department. Had we consented to the use of the small field for baseball, all we had left, the several hundred students who take military instruction would have been forced back on the public streets.

I am not accusing your staff of unfairness, for such members of it as I know personally are not at all of that type, but the article itself is most decidedly unfair and unjust and I am sure you will after proper investigation, publish another story which will correct any false impression which may have been conveyed in some quarters by this one, an impression which may do much towards discouraging students from backing the games at the Farm Campus to the limit, as they should do as a matter of duty to the University.

The military department is now and has been squarely behind all athletic activities and has strained its authority to the limit to encourage entries and help Professor Luehring in every way to develop his department. The trouble is that the situation of the University makes it impossible for the authorities to provide either him or us with adequate facilities within the campus.

Very sincerely,
G. W. MOSES,
 Colone Cavalry.

W. A. A. Girls Stage Outing Again at Crete

Camping already? Yes some of those peppy W. A. A.'s couldn't learn a lesson from last Easter, so they hopped off to Crete again this year. Last year they had to shovel their way through the snow to get back to town and school. This year nature was less cruel and sent a rain storm with freezing weather following. It was nice of it to rain as it did not interfere with river navigation at least, but or... the cold and the time spent in gathering the wood. And it is such fun to receive the waffle-iron impression from the narrow little cots through the thin supply of blankets taken when the weather was fair and warm.

Both in-door and out-door sports were indulged in by these ever active girls. When the weather was bad a Jack's tournament was held, and turns were taken in reading from the magazines that had been left by some forgotten summer occupant of the cottage. When the weather permitted the girls spent the time in rowing, mumblety peg, and even hop scotch. The only disagreements came in camp about the preparation of the of meals and the washing of dishes: a sport for which no credit is yet given toward an "N" sweater. The girls were such good sports that they returned home as soon the weather was beginning to be campable, and will not let a single person argue them out of the good time they had during the first part of their spring vacation.

TO SPEAK ON CONDITIONS IN THE CLOTHING MARKET

E. L. Smith, general manager of Magee's Clothing Store, will address the University Commercial Club at 11 o'clock this morning in Social Science Hall, room 305 on "Conditions in the Clothing Market." The address will consist of plain facts selected for interest and helpfulness to members of the Commercial Club.

Following the talk announcements will be made concerning the club dance to be given Friday, April 8, and other business will be taken up.

Anderson-Johnson Engagement.

The engagement of Miss Ruth Anderson of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Anderson, to Dr. Ernest Johnson was announced at a beautifully arranged luncheon Tuesday at the Blackstone in Omaha. Miss Anderson was graduated from Central High school of Omaha last June and entered the University in the fall. She is a member of Alpha Phi. She will not return to school following the Easter holidays as her marriage will take place in June.

Mrs. Anderson and her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Southwell, were hostesses for the party. Pink roses and tiny white daisies, symbolic of spring time, were used to form the center piece for the table where covers were laid for twenty-eight guests. At each place were tiny envelopes containing the names of Miss Anderson and Dr. Johnson.

Dr. Johnson was graduated from the University of Nebraska College of Medicine and is a member of Iowa chapter of Phi Rho Sigma.

Junior Hop.

About one hundred couples attended the junior hop which was held on Friday, March 25, at Knights of Columbus Hall. Andrew F. Sihoeppel was chairman of the committee in charge. The chaperons for the party were Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Barbour, Prof. and Mrs. P. H. Grumann and Prof. and Mrs. M. M. Fogg.

Pi Kappa Phi.

Pi Kappa Phi entertained at a banquet in the Lantern Room of the Delavan cafe Monday evening in honor of its national president, Roy J. Heffner of Berkeley, Cal. Mr. Heffner is making an extended tour and visiting all the undergraduate chapters of the fraternity. He has been a guest of the local chapter for the past few days.

Stoddard Rodinson, '21, presided as toastmaster. The toast list included Mr. Heffner, George D. Driver, '20; Roy B. Ford, '19; Harve L. Rice, '21, and F. S. Pegler, '19.

LINCOLN HOTEL COMPLIES WITH BOYCOTT TERMS

The management of the Lincoln hotel has reduced the price asked for their ballroom to $25 an evening. The hotel has a number of open dates remaining for week-ends during the remainder of the year. This reduction by the Lincoln conclusively shows that the boycott practiced by the students during the last year has been a decided success.

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL HOLD DANCE FRIDAY

The University Commercial Club will hold the annual hop Friday evening, April 8, at the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce. The tickets are now on sale at $1.25. They may be procured from the following members of the committee: Bert Reed, Mr. Petseys, Mr. Sullivan, Howard Wiley, Paul Brehm and Carter Farrar.

NINE MEDICAL STUDENTS AWARDED HIGH HONORS

Nine seniors in the University of Nebraska Medical College at Omaha were elected to Alpha Omega Alpha, honorary medical fraternity. The honor is awarded to one-sixth of the senior class for scholarship and corresponds to Phi Beta Kappa in colleges.

The men are E. E. Simmons and A. D. Davis of Omaha; C. F. Helder, Elm Creek; L. H. Lee, Greenwood; A. B. Anderson, Pawnee City; D. T. Ford, Lincoln; A. E. Bennett, Alliance; W. A. Killins, Council Bluffs; L. D. Rose, Maravia, Ia.

Nebraska Alpha chapter of the fraternity gave its annual dinner at the University Club Friday, March 25, honoring the new men. Dr. Ernest Sachs of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., gave a lecture on brain surgery to the student body and faculty members in the new laboratory building at the medical college, following the dinner.
