

WORK ON CORNHUSKER VERY PLEASING TO STAFF

Some of the Completed Departments
Now Off Press—Results
Are Gratifying.

Copies of some of the completed departments of the Cornhusker annual are now off the press and the results of this year's labor is more than pleasing to both the editorial and the business staff. The book is very well illustrated with pictures and cuts and the interest of the reader is held from the opening of the book until the last page is read and then one turns the back cover over in search of more.

At the beginning of each department a well made cut represents the contents of that section. Take for instance the "student life" section which has lurking on every page some of the leading lights of the campus. The family skeleton stalks forth from his abode and shaking the folds of his flowing robe discloses much to the content and maybe discontent of the reader the true character of those whom we regard as our idols and to whose level we vainly attempt to reach.

The organization section which has caused more than one gray hair in the editorial staff has been very near completed. Pictures of the various school and campus societies and writeups of each one of these organizations compose this department.

The only department lacking material is the athletic section, but students having snapshots of either the track teams or the base-ball teams may help to make this section one of the best in the annual if they will turn in any pictures they have in to the editor. The sooner these pictures are in the quicker the printers will be able to turn out the annual.

Circumstances have been so that the annual will be out this year at an earlier date than usual judging by the manner in which things have been progressing in the past the annuals will be ready for distribution about one month from this date. Persons desiring to obtain orders for extra annuals had better notify the business staff immediately.

DELTA GAMMA OFFICER SPEAKS TO PAN-HELLENIC

Mrs. H. H. Lambert of Iowa City, province secretary of Delta Gamma, spoke to the members of the Pan-Hellenic Council at the regular meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Lambert discussed matters of interest to all sorority women.

Pan-Hellenic went on record as favoring the movement to abolish cheating which was inaugurated by Valkyrie. The members pledged themselves to help raise the standards in the university.

Exchanges of dinner guests by sororities for the remainder of the semester was discontinued by a vote of the group. Because of the large number of activities which come on Thursday, evening, guest night, it was considered inadvisable to continue.

Waitress (offering suggestion to hungry actor)—"Soup, fish, eggs, ham!"

Actor (highly offended)—"Ham! I guess not. I'm a regular actor."—Rutgers.

Professor in Astronomy—Give me three reasons why the light falls in this manner.

Student—The book says so, you say so, and I knew it anyway.

My brain began a blissful reel
Her girlish lips were charmin'
And though I thought I kissed Lucille,
I really tasted Carmine.

—Daily Cardinal.
