Beta Theta Pi.

Beta Theta Pi was host to more than a hundred couples at a dance party in the ballroom of the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening. The walls of the room were hidden by white lattice over which vines and flowers were entwined, and flowers were used everywhere in decoration. Booths at he sides of the hall afforded retreats among the foliage. Pink and blue, the fraternity colors, were used in the decorations and refreshments. President William Jessup of Iowa university and Mrs. Jessup were out-of-town guests. Several vocal selections were given by I. L. Triplett during the intermission. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Roth, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Begtol, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McAfee and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Stoddard.

Bushnell Guild.

Bushnell Guild entertained at an elaborate spring party at Roseville Friday evening. Ninety couples were present. Decorations were in spring tints. Suspended from the ceiling were baskets of flowers and pink roses were given as favors. At the entrance of the hall was a quaint room built of lattice work and covered with vines and flowers which gave the effect of a summer porch. Places for the chaperons were arranged within. Across the center of the hall was an electric sign bearing the initial letters of Bushnell Guild formed in a diamond shape which is the emblem of the Guild. The lights of the hall were lowered and cast a soft glow over the dancers. Refreshments of ices, frozen in the shape of individual roses, tulips and carnations and cakes were served. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mickey, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kushner and Mr. and Mrs. Starboard.

The eighth annual banquet of Bushnell Guild was held at the Lantern room of the Delavan Saturday with seventy members present. Following is the toast list:
