CAMPUS BORROWERS NOTICE.

It has been called to our attention that several University organizations which have recently given parties at various places in Lincoln and have either rented or borrowed flowers, baskets and other decorations from Lincoln firms to use on these occasions have failed to return them to their proper owner. Some of these were used for parties held several weeks ago.

One instance was reported of a certain society that left the decorations of a particular Lincoln firm still gracing the walls of the ballroom long after the party and they were finally rescued just as the proprietors were about to throw them away. Often times the firms which let students have these decorations do not bother to take down the name of the organization that borrows them. Should they be made to lose their property even though they are a trifle negligent, after they have been kind enough to make the students' parties more beautiful?

Every organization should realize that it has been fortunate to secure the decorations and hangings which it has received from various Lincoln firms for its parties. A prompt return of such articles is not only courteous, but businesslike.

A NEW FLAG FOR "U" HALL.

At the very peak of the highest pinnacle of old "U" Hall flies a flag tattered and torn by the breezes of many days. From its dejected appearance it looks like one of the now-famous flags that led armies during the Civil War, or called the patriots to the cause in '76.

There may be as much sentiment attached to this flag as there is to "U" Hall itself, but for the sake of appearance, a new flag should be bought. If sentiment really runs strong for the old flag it can be preserved.

Students are asked to refrain from walking on the campus sidewalks; the little paths in the grass make the landscape doubly attractive.

A NOVEL DRIVE.

University women, under the auspices of Iota Sigma Pi, honorary chemical fraternity, have launched a drive to help pay for a gram of radium that the women of the United States are planning to present to Madam Curie, noted French scientist, for further experiments on cancer. One gram of radium costs $120,000. The great war debt of France has prevented the mother country from giving her the amount of money necessary to carry on this work.

This wonderful woman, who has been awarded the Noble prize twice for her marvelous discoveries, has agreed to devote the remainder of her life to the successful treatment of cancer by the use of radium. During the war she worked in the hospitals of France. She saved more than 50,000 lives, it is estimated, by applying her knowledge as to the use of radium in treating wounds.

Every University co-ed will want to contribute some amount, however small, to a fund which in a few years may mean the solution to the cancer problem and an absolute cure for that malady.

We wonder if there will be many sunburned tonsils on Omaha Day after some students get their first glimpse of the new telephone building.

The Cornhusker debate with Iowa should receive the support of every Nebraskan. When debates are held at Yale, the hall in New Haven is jammed to the doors. It is a gala day. Nebraska as a school is coming to the front in every line of activity. We should put it on the map as a debating school.

A number of shooting stars ought to be developed on the top floor of U Hall since the construction of the new indoor target range.

The shrieking of whistles for Engineers' Night Thursday made the campus appear like the Midway at a beach resort.

"I'M FEELIN' FINE."

There ain't no use in kickin' friend. When things don't come your way. It does no good to holler 'round And grumble night an' day. The thing to do is curb your grief. Cut out yer little whine; And when they ask you how you are, Jest say, "I'm feelin' fine."

There ain't no man alive but what is Booked to get his slap; There ain't no man that walks but what

From trouble gets his rap. Go ningle with the bunch, old boy. Where all the bright lights shine. And when they ask you how you are, Jest say, "I'm feelin' fine."

Your heart may jest be bustin' with some Real or fancied woe, But when you smile the other folks Ain't really apt to know.

The old world laughs at heartaches, friend. Be they your own or mine. So when they ask you how you are, Jest say, "I'm feelin' fine." —Exchange.

Our Inquiring Reporter

Five students picked at random are asked a question each day.

Today's question: Who is your favorite movie actor or actress?

1. Jack Virtue, 1415 C st.: Charles Ray. I don't know why I like him except that he puts on a good clean show.

2. Jessie Watson, 557 North 16th st.: Oh, I don't know. I never thought much about it. I like one of the Talmadge sisters but I don't know her first name.

3. Naomi Buck, 557 North 16th st.: I like Douglas McLean and Douglas Fairbanks best of the men. I like Douglas McLean because he's so homely. Of the women, I like Gloria Swanson best. She's a sorority sister of mine from Miami University.

4. Marguerite Fallon, 312 North 14th st.: I'm just cuckoo about Viola Dana. She's as pretty as a wax doll.

5. John Lawlor, 1826 A st.: Bill Hart for mine. You may be tired of him but he doesn't get your angora as much as that insipid Mary Pickbanks.

The Biggest Things Always Come Last

Naturally the Senior May Ball which will be held on Saturday night, May Fourteenth, will be the crowning social event of the entire year. And why shouldn't it be—the time is right—the place is the Municipal Auditorium, which will be transformed into a fairy land—and the music will be the best on the little old earth—the Original Southern Rag-a-Jazz Band will play.
