

AN OPPORTUNITY

to own a fraternity home at a bargain and secure it with a very small down payment, the balance to be paid at what you are now paying for rent.

NINE BLOCKS FROM THE CAMPUS

Large house at 1216 H, occupied by Phi Gamma Deltas for several years has been turned in on purchase of another house and is now for sale. Possession this summer.

THE PHI GAMMAS DEMONSTRATED THAT IT WAS GOOD BUSINESS TO BUY A MODERATE PRICED HOUSE AND GET IT PAID FOR. When they wanted to buy their permanent home they had a valuable piece of property to help pay for it in place of a few rent receipts. This house has a dining room that will seat thirty-five, kitchen, closets, hall, and three large living rooms on first floor, and a large porch, five bed rooms and bath on second floor and beds for twenty-two in a dormitory on third floor.

You can own this valuable piece of property in a few years if you try.

Society

About one thousand students who were in Omaha for the annual Omaha day attended parties there Friday evening. The largest affair was that given for the University students at the M. E. Smith and Company roof garden. The university colors were combined with Japanese suggestions in the decorations. The promenade was lighted by Japanese lanterns. There were a number of novelty and favor dances. Fancy caps, serpentine and package confetti were distributed. Rudge Norton gave an Egyptian dance during the intermission. Punch was served during the evening. A number of Omaha people acted as chaperons. Governor and Mrs. Samuel McKelvie were among the guests.

Kappa Delta Phi

Kappa Delta Phi entertained ninety couples Friday evening at a spring party at the Rosewilde. Streamers of purple, green and gold stretched from various parts of the room to a Maypole in the center, which was surrounded by a lattice fence, thru which were woven snap dragons. Red premiers and russel roses, symbols of Mother's Day, were given as favors. A Maypole dance was given by Miss Marjorie Corrington during intermission. Refreshments were fresh strawberry sundae and wafers. The chaperons were Prof. and Mrs. Kirschman, Prof. and Mrs. Earl Santz, and Prof. and Mrs. C. C. Minter.

Phi Gamma Delta

Phi Gamma Delta entertained about sixty couples at a spring party at Knights of Columbus hall. Streamers of purple and white stretched from corners of the room to the center where the orchestra was seated in an improvised bower of white lattice wound with flowers. A two course luncheon was served at small tables placed around the sides of the room in booths of white lattice. Chaperons were Capt. and Mrs. Hagen, Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Barbour and Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Condra. Out-of-town guests were Gerald Mallowney, Francis Owens, Bruce McCulloch and H. M. Bushnell, Omaha; Bud Ranloipa, Ft. Francis, I. Walsh, Kearney; Ed Bogue, John J. Champ, Dr. J. S. Sims, North Platte; John Brain, Bont Spiece, Columbus; Whit Racey, Pender; Lloyd Palmer, Tekamah.

Senior Picnic

The members of the senior class were the guests of Chancellor and Mrs. Avery at a picnic at Crete Thursday. The class met in the morning and were transported to Crete by means of automobiles. The day was spent in dancing, boating and playing games. Luncheon was given by Mrs. Avery. The return to Lincoln started early in the evening.

Acoth

Acoth entertained one hundred couples at the annual spring party at the Scottish Rite Temple Saturday evening. A huge rainbow with its pot of gold, at one end of the room, formed the keynote of the decorations. Streamers in rain bow colors were wound about the pillars to which were attached clusters of balloons. The floor lamps were shaded in rainbow color. Balloons and serpentine were given as favors. The ices and candies were in rainbow shades. Chaperons were Prof. and Mrs. M. M. Fogg, Prof. and Mrs. George Chaburn and Prof. and Mrs. Roy E. Cochran. Out-of-town guests include Ruth Hutton of Omaha, Margaret and Luella Fourtolt of Adams, Helen Erickson of David City, Maxine King of York and Catherine Reynolds of Omaha.

Phi Mu
Mrs. H. L. Carpenter, Mrs. George H. Walker, and Mrs. Roscoe Smith will entertain at a reception this afternoon at Mrs. Carpenter's home, 2949 Plymouth Ave. in honor of the visiting officers and the newly installed chapter of Phi Mu. Invitations are out for about fifty other guests. The house is to be decorated in roses in the fraternity colors.

Phi Mu
Zeta Gamma Chapter of Phi Mu held its first annual banquet Saturday evening at the Betty Brown. Miss Bernice Ford of Kansas City and Miss Neale Hart of St. Louis, visiting national officers and Miss Dorothy Carter, Miss Helen Dickens, and Miss Mildred Kneeland of Baker University, were guests.

The decorations were in rose and white, Phi Mu colors. Baskets of roses and sweet peas and smilax were used on the tables. Menus and hand-painted toast lists and place cards, also in rose and white, carried out the color scheme. Corsages of roses and white sweet peas were given as favors. Covers were laid for forty.

The following toast were given: Perseverance, Margaret Buel. Integrity, Hilda Grunwald.

Magnanimity, Hattie Happerly. Unity, Ann Burtless.

Kappa Sigma
The Omaha and Council Bluffs alumni of Kappa Sigma entertained seven couples at a party at Omaha in the ball room of the Fontenelle hotel Friday evening. The active members from Lincoln attended. Ira Slouger flew to Omaha in his airplane to attend. The alumni acted as chaperons.

If we would believe some of the freshmen, the professors talk along these lines:

First professor—"Well, how were your exams?"
Second professor—"A complete success. Every one flunked."

Is It Good Quality?

ONE thing you want to be sure of in the thing you buy: Is it good? The price may be a very important consideration to you; it often is. But when you need things and have to buy, you want to be sure of what you get.

We know that's what you want; and that's why we are so careful in our own buying. We must have quality first; such clothes as Hart Schaffner & Marx make.

IF YOU AREN'T SATISFIED AFTER YOU HAVE WORN THE CLOTHES, WE GIVE YOUR MONEY BACK.
