HUSKERS WALLOP INDIAN WARRIORS

Nebraska Ball Nine Take Long End of 8-2 Score—Munger Pitches Tight Game.

SECOND CONTEST IS TODAY

Scarlet and Cream Pastimers Nick Big Chief Kilbuck for Fifteen Bingles.

Nebraska walked on the Haskell Indians in the first game of the two game series yesterday by an 8 to 2 score. The pitching of Munger and the batting of Thomsen were the features of the contest.

The second game will be played this afternoon at the State Farm campus diamond at 4 p. m. Coach Schlessler expects to use the same crew today as performed in yesterday's game. Carman will probably be on the mound for Nebraska.

The Indians began the fireworks by putting two runs across the plate in the first inning. The Huskers came back strong in the second round and tied up the count. Nebraska scored in every inning after this excepting the fourth and seventh. The Nebraska nine played errorless ball while the Indians made two bobbles.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT PLAY RENEWED TODAY

Fourth Round Matches of Linjoco, Skallberg, Elliott, McBride, Raymond and Russell Feature.

Play in the University of Nebraska singles tournament will be resumed today when the third round play will be completed and work on the fourth round started.

Two matches that hold the center of interest in the single competition today are fourth round matches three in number.

Conrado Linjoco and Minor Skallberg will meet in a clash to determine which will enter the semi-finals. Both rate among the best tennis players in school and the match promises to be crowded with interest.

Don Elliott and Gregg McBride will furnish the other interesting match. Both have worked their way through to the fourth round by winning a pair of matches. Elliott defeated Powers, 8-6, 6-4, and DeVoe, 7-5, 6-2. McBride defeated Whitfield, 6-0, 6-3, and Matthews, 6-2, 5-7, 6-4, and won from Wiles, 6-0, 6-4.

Bob Russell and John Raymond, Jr. will feature in the other fourth round match. McLeod vs. Gingrich and Fisher vs. Crawford are the third round matches which will be played today.

Fraternity Registration Today. The inter-fraternity tennis tournament will start Friday. Fraternities wishing to enter teams in the tourney must register at the office of Director of Athletics Fred W. Luehring by 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A number of fraternities have already signified their intention of entering teams in the tournament and the committee in charge desire that every fraternity in school join in the competition. A registration fee will be charged and a skin awarded the winning team.

IRON SPHINX TO HELP STAGE BALL

The Iron Sphinx will do the decorating for the Senior May ball to be given at the auditorium Saturday evening, May 14. The Sphinx voted unanimously at their last meeting to do this and a committee is already at work on the plans. All members are asked to be at the auditorium Saturday morning to put the building in first class shape for the dance.

INTER-FRAT GAMES PLAYED WEDNESDAY

Three games were played yesterday in the inter-fraternity tournament. The Phi Deltis won from Sig Alphas by a 4 to 3 count and the A. T. O. men defeated the Kappa Deltis, 22 to 5. An extra inning was needed for the Sig Chis to hand the Pi Kappas the short end of the score, the final count being 4 to 3.

The remainder of the first round will be today.

ROAST OX FOR LAWS AT BARBEQUE TODAY

Disciples of Blackstone Prepare for Annual Holiday—Lincoln Bar Invited

Strains of band music, including variations of "U-U-Uri" and "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder," will indicate this morning that the students and faculty of the Law College have declared their annual holiday and are preparing for a barbecue at the state fair grounds. The celebration will begin at 8:30 a. m. and will continue until late this afternoon.

The members of the college are asked to meet in Law 101 at 8:30 a. m., wearing their fezzes. A parade will follow. At twelve o'clock the barristers will journey to the state fair grounds where an ox will be roasted and eaten with all its trimmings.

"Wild West" N'Everything. Bern Coulter, '21, who succeeded in winning the prize offered for riding bad horses at the Farmers' Fair, and James Giffen, '21, have promised to do some "wild west" exhibitions during the afternoon. Another feature of the day will be a ball game. It is announced that the program contains no long after-dinner speeches. Only a few impromptu talks will be given. The members of the Lincoln city bar have been asked to be present. Classes in the Law College will be dismissed for the day.

PICNIC LUNCHEES TO FEATURE IVY DAY

Home Economics Department Have Arranged Attractive Menu—Dance in Evening.

Picnic lunches in the most ideal spot in Lincoln and afternoon and evening dances with Gayle Grubb's Southern Rag-Jazz orchestra in the shade of a grove of trees are announced by the Ivy day committee as part of the afternoon program of Nebraska's traditional Ivy day next Wednesday.

It is estimated that almost the entire student body besides a large crowd of faculty members and visitors will throng the State Farm campus to witness the masquing of the Motar boards, the tapping of the Innocents, to see the game between Nebraska and Oklahoma on the diamond, to eat their picnic lunch prepared by the girls of the home economics group and to dance both the afternoon and evening dances in an open air pavilion especially constructed for the occasion.

Three sandwiches, potato chips, fruit, pickles and olives, cake and individual wrappings of ice cream put up in attractive individual box, can be secured at the home economics building for lunch so that every one may stay for the evening entertainment. These attractive lunches may be reserved beginning Friday and may be obtained for 50 cents each from members of Green Goblin, Iron Sphinx, Vikings, Innocents, Mortarboard, or may be purchased at the Student Activities office any time until the day before the picnic.

That students will take advantage of their last opportunity to hear Gayle Grubb's orchestra before their European tour and will dance in the afternoon and all evening has forced the committee to construct a huge open air dance floor which will be used continuously.

HIGH SCHOOLS IN FORENSIC CLASH

Debaters Arrive to Take Part in Championship Contests.

ALL PICKED SPEAKERS

Five Debates to Be Staged This Evening—One Contest on Friday

Coming prepared to put up the case for either side, as lot-drawing determines of the question of repealing the literacy-test restriction for immigration, eleven district-championship debating teams are guests of the University the next three days battling for state-championship honors through ten contests of the new tournament that concludes the fourteenth annual contests (about eighty in number) of the Nebraska High School Debating League of ninety-seven schools, which M. M. Fogg, professor of English, the president, organized at the request of schoolmen, with thirty schools in 1908.

The Alliance delegation, which got in Wednesday night, was the first to arrive. Greeley comes by automobile. All the delegations will be here by mid-afternoon.

After the five debates Thursday night, lots will be drawn to pair North Platte and the three winners for the three debates Friday morning at 10 o'clock. There will be one contest Friday evening, and the final (state-championship) battle will be fought out in Memorial Hall Saturday morning between 10 and 12 o'clock.

Some of the judges for Friday will come from Omaha.

The opening five-debate program Thursday evening will be as follows, the school named first maintaining by lot the affirmative of the League question: "Resolved, that the literacy test restriction for immigration should be repealed."
