UNIVERSITY PLAYERS APPEAR BEFORE CLUB

Five members of the University Players staged "The Florist's Shop" at the west end of the chamber of commerce Saturday noon before a large audience. They held the attention of the nearest diners so closely that nobody even rattled a spoon during the forty minutes of the play and many a luncheon was completed after the curtain fell—only there wasn't any curtain or any stage.

The play was an exposition of how the girl in the florist's shop may mold the destinies of her customers. Miss Lucille Foster as "Maud" had the leading part, and she and Miss Mary McCoy as "Miss Wells," whose romance was consummated in the shop, discoursed much original philosophy. Sam Brownell as "Henry," the assistant, was a good foil for Maud, and John Dawson scored a distinct hit in the part of the proprietor, "Mr. Slob-sky." Rhue Green as Mr. Jackson, victim of the plot, made the most of a rather ungrateful part.

The players were coached by Miss Alice Howell, who was approached at its conclusion with several invitations to repeat the skit on other occasions. The performance marked the conclusion of "Fine Arts week" at the chamber of commerce, begun a week before with a concert by the University orchestra and continued through the week by an exhibit of work from the various art departments.

BOOK BY NEBRASKAN RECEIVED FAVORABLY

"The Sophistry of Socialism," the third of a series of three booklets by Dean J. W. LeRossignol of the college of business administration has received the following comment by a national authority on economics to whom the publishers sent the manuscript of the book:

"I have no hesitation in saying that I think it is an excellent piece of work—a temperate but searching exposure of just what socialism really is and means, and a convincing refutation of its arguments and conclusions. It ought to have a wide circulation; and if you publish it you will be doing a public service."

The three booklets on socialism will later be published in one book.

ADAM BREEDE TO ADDRESS CLUB

"The Gathering and Censoring of War News" Is Subject.

"The Gathering and Censoring of War News" will be the subject of Adam Breede's talk before the University Press club tonight at 7:30 in room 101, Law hall. All University students are invited, including every member of the organization. Mr. Breede will also tell something of the management of a small city daily and has promised to bring with him a large number of Tribunes for inspection by the audience. He will answer any questions which may be put to him by those present.

Mr. Breede is editor and owner of the Hastings Daily Tribune, which ranks as one of the best country newspapers in the state. It has one of the largest circulations of the small city dailies in Nebraska. The paper is widely read in seventeen counties in southern and southwestern Nebraska.

Fogg Will Introduce Speaker.
Prof. M. M. Fogg, head of the University department of journalism, will introduce the speaker. He has been acquainted with Mr. Breede for many years.

Mr. Breede's experience in France during the war will give an added interest and color to the talk. He comes to the University under the auspices of the University Press club, at its last meeting of the current year.

Immediately after the lecture, a short business meeting of the society will be held, at which time officers for the coming school year will be elected.

SLAB OF FOSSIL FISH IN MUSEUM

A large slab of fossil fish from the famous Green river shales of Wyoming was prepared for exhibition last week by Miss Barbour and Mr. Hall. The slab is composed of material collected a number of years ago by Mr. Barbour. The largest and finest fish in the set were secured the past two seasons by Mr. Schramm. This new mount, about 6 by 10 feet, is the property of the Morrill geological collections and is being set in position on the west wall of the museum by the University carpenters.

NEBRASKAN REPORTER GOES TO DAILY STAR

Katharine von Minckwitz, '24, member of Delta Gamma has been made assistant society editor of the Lincoln Evening Star. Miss von Minckwitz has been reporter and artist on the Daily Nebraskan since last September. She is one of the organizers of the University Poster Association that is in charge of making and placing the posters advertising school functions.

Miss von Minckwitz has been prominent in journalistic circles this year and has done art work as well as articles for both the 1921 Cornhusker and the newly published Cornhusker Song Book.

DR. WOLCOTT AT IOWA CONFERENCE

Dr. R. H. Wolcott has been invited to speak at a conference on "Resources of Interior Waters," which will be held at the Fisheries Biological Station at Fairport, Iowa, June 8-10. In event Dr. Wolcott can arrange to attend he will discuss the depletion of aquatic resources from a biological standpoint.

CORNHUSKERS READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

May Be Obtained at Student Activities Office Today Beginning 9 A. M.

The 1921 Cornhuskers will be distributed today beginning at 9 o'clock at the Student Activities office. By paying three dollars which is due you may receive your annual. Those who wish to get a Cornhusker for another person must bring that person's receipt before the book will be given out.

This annual is pronounced by those who have seen it a worthy number of an excellent line of student year books. The cover is dark grey with a narrow light grey panel on the front. In the panel is a sketch of the columns of Social Science building with a large tree in the foreground. The tree is worked out in green and yellow with a touch of crimson in the sky. Above the sketch the words "The Cornhusker," "1921," and the letter "N" are worked out in dim gold. This year's annual has been dedicated to Prof. Robert D. Scott as a manner in which the students' appreciation of the work he has done for U. of N. may be expressed.

PROFESSOR IVEY GIVES LECTURE

Prof. Paul W. Ivey delivered an interesting lecture before the York County Commercial club Tuesday, at the Hotel McCloud. He talked on "Salesmanship in Business," telling why local merchants failed to get a large amount of farmer trade. He also emphasized the importance of proper advertising by city merchants.

PROF. W. A. COCHEL TO SPEAK FRIDAY

Prof. W. A. Cochel of Kansas City, Mo., will address the animal husbandry students in the College of Agriculture Friday, May 27, at 3 p. m., room 306, Agricultural hall. All students and others interested are invited to be present. His subject will be "Constructive Live Stock Production." Professor Cochel is at present field representative of the American Short-horn Breeders' association. For six years he had charge of the department of animal husbandry at the Kansas Agricultural College. Previous to that, he was professor of animal husbandry at the Pennsylvania State College of Agriculture, and preceding that he had charge of the experimental animal husbandry work at Purdue University. He is a graduate of the University of Missouri. I am sure Professor Cochel will give the students a very good talk.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI INITIATES NEW MEN

Alpha Kappa Psi, honorary business fraternity, initiated the following men to membership recently: Ivan W. Hedge, W. C. Farmer, Victor Tol', Howard Crandall, Jack Austin, James Wilson, Dwight Bedell, W. F. Fox, R. H. Harms, D. H. Mitchell, Buford Gage, Harry Latowsky, Wilbur Wolf, Herman Volmer, D. INTER-FRAT TENNIS FINALS ARE TONIGHT

Sigma Phi Epsilon and Xi Psi Phi will meet tonight at five o'clock for the inter-fraternity tennis championship. The Sig Epa entered the finals by defeating the Phi Kappa Psi team and the Xi Psi Phi players won from the Silver Lynx.

A fast match is assured when these two teams meet as each is the class of their section of the entries. Elliott and Russell constitute the Sig Epa team and McLeod and Skallberg will represent the Xi Psi Phi.

DELTA UPSILON DEFEATS DELTA CHI BALL TEAM

Will Meet A. T. O. Aggregation in Inter-Frat Finals.

The D. U. baseball team defeated the Delta Chi nine last evening in the semi-finals of the inter-fraternity baseball tournament. The final score was 9 to 1 in favor of the Delta Upsilon team. Smaha hurled a good game for the D. U. and only four of the Delta Chi men were able to get on a base.

The A. T. O. and D. U. will meet in the finals later in the week. Both teams a bunch of hard hitters and a real battle is expected for the championship.

NOTED WOMAN TO SPEAK AT CITIZENSHIP INSTITUTE

Mrs. Nancy M. Schoonmaker One of Lecturers for Gathering June 8 and 9.

Mrs. Nancy M. Schoonmaker of New York City, who will be one of the lecturers at the state institute on citizenship, which will be held June 8 and 9, has been prominently connected with the movement of women toward a larger social and political expression, and has won for herself a position of wide popularity throughout the country. She was educated at the historical Transylvania University, with special work at Harvard, Chicago and the Sorbonne. She has contributed fiction, drama and other papers to current magazines.

As women turned to the matter of education in citizenship, the state of Connecticut secured Mrs. Schoonmaker's services for the founding and developing of the first citizenship department set up by any woman's organization in America. The work of this department attracted so much attention that Mrs. Schoonmaker began to receive urgent calls for assistance from all over the country. Working in co-operation sometimes with a state organization, sometimes with a special civics committee, Mrs. Schoonmaker organized the New England states for this work, and became consulting director of citizenship for Connecticut, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont. She also made frequent tours through other parts of the country.

As an appointed representative of the two great American organizations, the National League of Women Voters and the General Federation of Women's Clubs, comprising 4,500,000 members, Mrs. Schoonmaker will tour Europe during the summer of 1921 for the purpose of making a comparative study of the legislation which the newly enfranchised women of the several countries have been supporting.

KANSAS AGGIES DEFEAT HUSKERS

Take Long End of 8-5 Score in Baseball Game Yesterday Afternoon.

FOUR RUNS IN NINTH

Munger Stated to Pitch for Schissler's Team in Today's Game.

Four runs in the ninth inning in yesterday's contest put the game on the line for the Kansas Aggies. The final count was 8 to 5 in favor of the Kansans.

Otto, hurling for the Aggies, proved to be very effective and used a "pitter" that puzzled the Huskers. Carman pitched a good game but was wild in the pinches and walked quite a number of men.

Nebraska scored in the first inning when Pizer, the first man up, was hit by a pitched ball and went to second on Bailey's sacrifice and came home on Carr's out. The Aggies scored in the initial inning also. Cowell completing the circuit. The Aggies scored two in the third inning and one run in the fourth and four in the ninth.

Carman Makes Homer.

Nebraska counted one run in the first, fourth, fifth, sixth and ninth. Carman knocked a home run and Poole poked out a three bagger for the only long hits of the game. Coach Schissler will pitch Munger on the mound for Nebraska today against the Aggies. This will be the last game of the season and the last chance Nebraskans will have of seeing the Huskers perform.

KOSMET SUCCESES NOW PUBLISHED

The two musical numbers "Kaloa" and "Its Your Wonderful Smile" which were the features of the Kosmet Klub's production, "The Host Prime Minister," have been published and are now on display at Walts, Ross P. Curtice and Crancers. Mr. Wilbur Chenoweth, who composed the music for these songs, intends to feature them at the Rialto theater in the very near future in order that those who were unable to attend the Kosmet Klub show, may hear the feature songs.

Mr. Chenoweth already has several offers for the publication of these songs, and it is very probable that they will be released to a Chicago publisher of note.

GET YOUR ANNUAL TODAY.
