

BAND TRYOUTS WILL BE CONDUCTED SOON

Band tryouts will be held soon according to announcement made Wednesday by Cecil Matthews, president of the University Band. The date for the tryouts will be announced later.

The band is one of the many organizations of which the University is proud. The group furnishes music for the football games, other athletic contests, student rallies and meetings as well as appearing in concerts.

Every student who applies will be given an opportunity to try for a position with the varsity band.

JULIA MOCKETT GETS SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Julia Mockett who graduated from the Nebraska University a year ago, has been awarded a scholarship at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh in the department of applied psychology. She has been in Chicago for the past month doing research work preparatory to entering the institute. Miss Mockett is a member of Chi Omega, Omicron Nu, and Valkyrie.

SOCIETY.

Engagement—The announcement of the engagement of Madeline Lucille Green to Frank Richmond Beebe of Omaha was made Monday evening at a dinner given at the Kappa Delta house. Miss Green is a sophomore at the University of Nebraska and is a member of Kappa Delta sorority. Mr. Beebe is a graduate of the University of Iowa where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. The wedding will take place sometime during the holidays.

The Nebraska City students at the University of Nebraska this year are the Misses Gertrude Patterson, Laurine Oetgen, and Gertrude Moran, and Story Harding, Amos Ginn, Moran and Hugh Wilson. Mr. Wilson attended Hamilton college in Clinton, N. Y., last year. Miss Cordelia Fields will be a student at Wesleyan university in University Place. Miss Minnie Baker of Dunbar, and Miss Mildred Marlow, a graduate of the Nebraska City high school who now lives in Lincoln, will also attend the University of Nebraska.

A number of young people from Hastings will come to Lincoln this year as students at the university. Some are already here and the others will come within the next few days. Among them are the Misses Margaret Bratton, Dorothy Lee, Hallie Minor, Genevieve Langevin, Hallie Hunt, Pauline Bedell, Gweldolyn Damerell, Davida Van Gilder, and Irma Brillhart. The young men in the group are Adam Kohl, Clifford Inger, Paul McGrew, Robert Hardt, Glen Munger, Joe Pizer and Daryl Gideon.

students will find it of advantage to them to eat at the "Temple" as often as possible. At noon luncheon time is saved that can well be utilized for study, say some of the upper class. The variety of foods served is great enough to satisfy most of the students, and to give a change in menu for those who do not like the same thing day after day. In the rush hours, two lines are run by the counters, so that every one can be fed in a hurry. The cafeteria serves several thousand meals each day.

The Temple cafeteria, conducted by the University, in the basement of the Temple building, saves the students many dollars on their board bills in the course of the school year. New
