

"N" BOOKS ATTRACTIVE TO INCOMING STUDENT BODY

Bound In Scarlet and Cream and Filled With Important Information.

The "N" books, published annually for the benefit of incoming freshmen, are bound in scarlet and cream, the Nebraska colors, this year, instead of the time-honored black. The university Y. M. C. A. has had about two thousand of these little books printed to give out. The first year students will be given the books first, but if they are not all given out by Friday, the upper classmen will be next to receive them.

The book is said to be unusually good. Several cuts are used, including a picture of Coach Fred T. Dawson, one of Clarence E. Swanson, football captain, and a view of the downtown campus. It contains all the information which is especially valuable to those not familiar with the university. A section is devoted to each feature of the school's activities.

Orvin B. Gaston is editor while Eugene Ebersole handles the business end.

PUGSLEY RECEIVES IMPORTANT POSITION

Charles W. Pugsley, who taught in the University of Nebraska college of agriculture from 1908 to 1918, has been selected by President Harding for appointment as assistant secretary of agriculture to succeed Dr. Elmer L. Ball. Mr. Pugsley received his B. S. degree in agriculture at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture in 1906. He was first assistant professor of animal husbandry in 1909 and served one year in that capacity. In 1909 he became head professor of agronomy and farm management and served two years, and from 1911 to 1914 he was professor of farm management. From 1914 to 1918 he was head professor of farm management. From 1914 to 1918 he was director of agricultural extension and from 1911 to 1918 he was state statistical agent for the United States department of agriculture.

APPOINTED TO FILL VACANCIES

The following appointments have been made to fill vacancies: Earl H. Spencer, instructor in civil engineering; Merle S. Bradshaw, Herbert Yenne, assistant instructors in elocution and dramatic art; Arlo M. Dunn, instructor in clinical dentistry and dental histology; Louis A. Wolfanger, Vera Bigdon, assistants in geography and geology; Margaret Schemel, Clare C. Golden, assistant instructors in modern languages; Elijah Y. Lipetz, instructor in sciences at the Curtis School of Agriculture. The registration of Eli Dancomb, experiment station analyst was accepted.

YMCA Notes

The University Y. M. C. A. is fortunate in having for its general secretary this year "Bill" Day, captain of last year's Nebraska varsity football squad, and will assist Coach Dawson with the varsity this year. "Bill" Day was an active leader in "Y" work while in school and after a summer's work with the Lincoln city Y. M. C. A. with boys, comes to us full of pep and ready to serve. The offices of the "Y" will be in the Temple building as before and plans are being made for a bigger year than ever before.

The 1921-2 "N" book has already been printed and is ready for distribution to first year men. Orvin Gaston and Gene Ebersole have been working hard to make this book a success and it certainly shows their efforts have not been in vain. These men are now working on the University directory and it promises to be a finer and more accurate book than ever before.

The Y. M. C. A. committees will function as before, operating in conjunction with the Committee of 200 but the "Y" is planning special activities for the first few days of school.

List movies, stags, etc. Thursday evening at 7:30 in Temple theater there will be movies of freshman coming into line in 1920 Freshman-Sophomore Olympics 1920, and pictures of Nebraska-Rutgers football game at Polo Grounds, N. Y., and Michigan Aggie game at Nebraska.

The "Y" gives you a royal welcome and invites your attendance and enjoyment at their club rooms on the first floor of the Temple.

STATE TITLE BASEBALL GAME AT PARK TODAY

Wilber and Greenwood, finalists in the state baseball tournament, will clash at 3:30 this afternoon, at Rock Island park in settling the argument involving the championship trophy and first tourney prize. The Saline and Cass county pastimers were scheduled to mix Saturday afternoon in the final game, but rank weather conditions scrambled the arrangement and necessitated a postponement.

GAYLE WALKER ON TRIP TO EUROPE

Gayle C. Walker, University student, who left Lincoln June 1 with J. Paul Ninas, another University student to spend the vacation on a "hiking" expedition with Cuba the ultimate goal, recently wrote his mother, Mrs. I. S. Walker, that after a beautiful trip through the southland and after ten days' sight-seeing in New Orleans, they had taken passage on the S. S. Coahoma County Mississippi, a ten thousand ton steamer, bound for Cuba, London and Hamburg.

PROFESSOR ROBINSON IS NEW LAW FACULTY MEMBER

Harvard Graduate Comes From California University For Position Here.

Prof. G. H. Robinson, new professor in the University of Nebraska college of law, has arrived in Lincoln and is ready to take up his duties with the college. He will conduct classes in criminal law, public corporations, equity and corporations.

Professor Robinson was born and raised in New York city. He attended Harvard college and graduate law school. He was graduated from Harvard college in 1905 and from the law school in 1909 where he took a S. J. D. with Roscoe Pound.

After practice in New York city he turned to teaching and has been teaching since 1912, coming to the University of Nebraska from the University of California.

WESLEYAN PREPARES TO MEET HUSKERS

Methodists Launch Practice Grind Making Ready For Gridiron Battle With Nebraska.

The Nebraska Wesleyan football squad launched preparations Monday afternoon for the 1921 grid campaign, which opens on Nebraska field October 1, when the Methodists will meet the Cornhusker eleven.

A squad of about thirty reported for the first session and, with increasing registration, a bumper squad is expected to be working out under the direction of Coach Ray B. McCandless.

Prof. Adam Durham, head of the chemistry department and a former Wesleyan gridster, will probably have charge of the second team this season. Durham piloted the University Place football team last year that made an excellent showing, altho handicapped by lack of weight.

Eight Letter Men Back.

McCandless will have at least eight letter men in suit this year. The line will include a quartet of veterans, "Pink" Harrell, "Bill" Parkinson, Lawrence Quante and McFarlane. Harrell has played end at Wesleyan for two seasons. Parkinson is also a veteran of two years. Quante was going good last season until a broken leg kept him out of the lineup. McFarlane was one of the freshmen finds of last fall.

In the backfield, Kahn, Hare, Furman and McCandless are the veteran performers. Kahn is an ex-captain of the Wesleyan football team. Dewitz may also return to school. McCandless is captain of the 1921 squad.

Six Uni. Place high school "grads" registered at Nebraska Wesleyan Monday and are giving the veterans a fight for positions. Alabaster, quarter and halfback; Packard, halfback; Yetter, end; Radinsky, halfback; Amos, quarter, and Harrington, tackle, are the suburbanites to enter the junior Methodist squad.

John C. Wilburn, '20, writes from Schenectady, N. Y., and states that he is connected with the General Electric company.

C. D. Kunkel, '10, writes from Los Angeles and reports that he has recently left the Westinghouse Electrical company at San Diego and is now located with the Westinghouse Electric company at Los Angeles. Mr. Kunkel's new address is 460-12 East Adams street, Los Angeles, Calif.

David Haggard, '91, is practicing law in Cheyenne, Wyo. Mr. Haggard was one of the international delegates to the Lions convention at Oakland
