FROSH WILL CLASH WITH VARSITY SOON

Stone Wall Will Meet Varsity When the Scrimmage is Pulled Off

The Yearlings are showing some real stuff in football now and soon will have a team in action that will show the Varsity some keen opposition.

Coach Farley Young is putting them through stiff scrimmages and signal practices along with passing, kicking and running. A large number are still coming out every day and are doing all they can to make a good first-year team. The first scrimmage with the Varsity has not been scheduled as yet, but it is to come off soon, and then the first year men will have a chance to show what they can do in the line of carrying the pigskin and tackling.

They are developing a stonewall line, and two or three sets of speedy back-field men. The ends are showing some speed in going down the field under punts and picking passes out of the air.

Coach Young is well pleased with the way they are progressing.

AWGWAN CAMPAIGN CONTINUES TODAY

during the Awgwan campaign to the individual obtaining the highest number of subscriptions upon that day. This prize is to consist of a twenty dollar "N" blanket. They are heavy red blankets with a large white "N" in the center of each one. Four of these blankets are to be given away, one to the winner of Tuesday's, Wednesday's, Thursday's and Friday's campaign.

The winner of Tuesday's campaign will probably be announced in Thursday's Nebraskan. Each day's publication following will announce the winner of the previous day's campaign, if subscription books are checked in on time.

Some individuals had exceptionally good luck in landing subscriptions Tuesday but there are still a great majority existent upon the campus who have not subscribed and some, deplorable fact, who do not even know what the Awgwan is! It is hard for some to part with a dollar but an explanation of value received will go a long way toward landing a subscription.

It is requested that it be made known to those who are soliciting subscriptions that subscription books checked out, must be checked in upon the same day, not later than 5:45 p. m.

OKLAHOMA LOSES WHITE, SOONER FOOTBALL STAR

Norman, Okla., Sept. 26.—Oklahoma's prospects for another Missouri valley football title this year were given a severe jolt today when Coach Benny Owens announced that Phil White, all-American fullback, had been declared ineligible to play this season on account of his grades. White was the bulwark of last season's Sooner team.

FROSH DRILL IS STARTED MONDAY AND YESTERDAY

Freshmen Monday and yesterday received their first general instructions in the art of fighting, by the military department. All those registered for drill for the first time were out on the drill field, north of Social Science Hall, and were receiving preliminary instructions in the facings, told how to do an about face, and to be sure to step off with the left foot. The rookies are in charge of regular army sergeants, some of these sergeants having twenty-one years of service to their credit.

STATE NEWSPAPERS AT HISTORICAL LIBRARY

Nearly every newspaper in the state is received by the state historical society, and filed away in the rooms below the library. These files are available to the students who may call for the paper they wish to read. If a student wishes to have the home town paper sent out each week, all that is necessary is to notify Miss Tunney, who has the files in charge, and she will place the wanted papers out on the reading tables each week. The papers cannot be taken from the library without special permission.

LYCEUM IMPERSONATOR TO ENTERTAIN STUDENTS

Versatile Violinist Invites Uni Students to Complimentary Entertainment Friday

Mr. Clarence Faubel, violinist and impersonator from the Uni School of Music will give a full evenings entertainment Friday of this week in the Temple Theatre.

To say that Mr. Faubel is versatile would be putting it mildly. "Versatile" isn't the word to describe a man that can transform a soulful violin pouring forth classical strains of plaintive melodies into a jazzy fiddle producing with rag time perfection such loved old tunes as "Turkey in the Straw" and "Pop goes the Weasel." With the aid of a few sticks of grease paint and appropriate costumes the reader changes from an English dude to a gawky school boy, or old Uncle Josh, or the Italian immigrant or a fussy d maid.

Mr. Faubel gives this entertainment complimentary to his friends before starting on his winter lyceum tour, and extends a hearty welcome to all new students.

AIN'T IT THOUGH!
Gosh ain't it swell
To be the best friend of
A person
Who knows ever and ever so
Much more than you do:
Ferinstance—
The guy who knew
"Fatty"
When he was as thin as a
Beanpole
And who knew
Babe Ruth
When she was a chorus girl!
Yes, it
Ain't!
The Prince of Wails.
