Apology to High School.

The disgraceful conduct of the U. of N. R. O. T. C. cadets yesterday in storming and breaking down the gate of Nebraska field and climbing over the fence to witness the Cambridge-Lincoln football game without paying the price of admission, was extremely discourteous to the visiting team and merits the severe condemnation of all loyal Cornhuskers. In view of this shameful display of roudyism the department of physical education and athletics hereby extends apologies to our high school guests and their followers and assures them that such conduct is not representative of Nebraska men and furthermore that in the future every effort will be put forth to prevent similar occurrences.

W. LUEHRING, Director of Athletics.

STUDENTS WELCOME JAYHAWK VISITORS

Huge Bonfire and Torch Light Procession of Students in Rally Before Kansas Game.

March to Lincoln Hotel Where Visiting Aggregation is Being Quartered.

Two hundred blazing torches in the hands of an equal number of enthusiastic Cornhusker students was the foreward of the parade of 1,500 cheering and singing Nebraskans Friday evening as the forewarding of the Kansas-Nebraska game for Saturday. The pupils were gathered together by a huge bonfire on the north side of social science hall. After about a half hour of waiting about the warmth of the flames, the Cornhuskers formed the line of march and proceeded to invade the business section of Lincoln.

As the fire raged shooting tongues of flames high into the air, big students gathered about the blaze. In a half hour of waiting there was a huge gathering of cheering and singing Cornhusker students and the parade formed.

Invade Business Section.

Forming on Twelfth street, the old rendezvous of the University of Nebraska parades, the line started out. Streaming, 1,500 strong, down into the business section of the city, the students led by the twenty seven blazing torches aroused Lincoln to the fact that the Kansas Jayhawkers had invaded the Husker camp and were intending to husk corn the following day. But they symbolized in the parade the hopes and wishes of the Cornhuskers. The enthusiasm of the paraders was an outgrowth of the awakened Cornhusker spirit as seen at the welcome tendered to the Cornhuskers after their invasion of the Pittsburgh Panthers.

As the celebrators and well-wishers preceded the enthusiasm grid and long before the climax of the parade was reached, the Cornhuskers had forgotten the cold and were heat and soul for Nebraska and for nothing else.

Welcome Kansas Team.

The line of march extended from Sixteenth to Ninth street on O street and every step of the way the Cornhusker boosters cheered and sang. Leaving O street, the parade followed Ninth and came to a halt before (Continued on page 6.)

Table with 4 columns: Name, Weight, Position, Team. Lists names like Hartley, Wright, Lewellen, Preston, Schere, Pucelik, Berquist, Peterson, Wenke, Lyman for Nebraska and Spurgeon, Griffon, McAdams, Wilson, McDonald, Davidson, Williams, Saunders, Jonca, Higgins for Kansas.

With the big reception for the Kansas Jayhawkers that was staged last evening out of the road and the olympic about over, the stage is set for the big Nebraska-Kansas battle this afternoon on Nebraska field. Alumni from all over the country are in Lincoln for the Homecoming festivities and the largest crowd of the season is expected for the game this afternoon.

The Kansas squad arrived yesterday morning early and Coach "Potay" Clark took his athletes out to the Ag. college gridiron for a light workout. The Kansas athletes are primed for the greatest battle of their entire schedule and are sure to put up a great battle against the Cornhuskers. Thus far the Jayhawkers have met the Cornhuskers twenty-seven times on the gridirons of the school. Seven-teen victories have been registered for the Scarlet and Cream while the Kansas men have copped nine wins. One game resulted in a tie, last year's contest at Lawrence winding up with a 20 to 20 count.

First Class Condition.

Coach Dawson pronounced his men in first class condition for the battle with the Jayhawkers and is confident of a victory over the Kansas aggregation. The Nebraska team will outweigh the Kansas men in practically every position on the team but Coach Clark is relying on the speed of his men in launching their aerial attack against the Huskers to secure victory for the elusive Jayhawk.

Coach Dawson has been sending the Fresh against the varsity practically all of this week, with the yearlings using the Jayhawk pass formations. The Jayhawk rooters, freshmen squad and a large band will arrive sometime this morning and parade the streets before the game. A large delegation of the Kansas students are coming to Lincoln with the intention of helping the Jayhawkers down the Scarlet and Cream. Out of the five games played already this season the Cornhuskers have emerged the victors. The Husker goal line has been crossed but once this year and that was accomplished by the "fighting Irish" of Notre Dame. This lone touchdown resulted in defeat for the Huskers.

Kansas Ku Klux Klan.

Between halves the students will be entertained by the various organizations of the school and the Ku Klux Klan of Kansas will put on a demonstration for the crowd. The Missouri Valley cross country meet will be staged at such a time that the runners will finish on Nebraska field between halves. This is the first time the Valley meet has been staged in Lincoln for a number of years and is bringing the pick of the Missouri Valley school hardiers to Lincoln for the annual run.

Dismissed by order from Dean C. C. Engberg in order that the members of the two lower classes may help try to win for their class. All freshmen and sophomores have been excused (Continued on page 4.)

Welcome, Cornhusker Grads! Welcome, Jayhawkers!
