

HAWKEYES CAPTURE HONORS IN BIG TEN

Secure Place When Ohio State and Wisconsin Lose to Illinois and Chicago.

The Iowa Hawkeyes have captured the 1921 title of the Big Ten conference by reason of Illinois' victory over Ohio State and Chicago's victory over Wisconsin yesterday. As it now stands, the Hawkeye eleven is the only conference team to go thru the season undefeated.

Illinois upset all the dope by handing the Ohio State Buckeyes a 7-0 defeat. The Buckeyes looked like the class of the conference and Zepke's team had made a poor showing in other games.

The 3-0 win of Chicago over Wisconsin also came as a big surprise to gridiron fans and critics. The Maroons recently fell before Illinois and apparently had a weak team. Wisconsin was considered on a par with Iowa and Ohio State.

These games eliminating the three-cornered tie between Iowa, Wisconsin and Ohio State and give the Hawkeyes first claim to the conference honors. Iowa had little trouble defeating Northwestern yesterday.

Flocks of Geese Seem To Celebrate Nebraska Victory Over Cyclones

When two important things meet, the most important of the two wins.

The important thing of the first part in this story is the Ames-Nebraska football game played Saturday which decided the Missouri Valley championship in favor of the Cornhuskers.

The important thing of the second part were several thousand geese flying over Lincoln Saturday afternoon in a score or more flocks.

These two important things met Saturday afternoon—unintentionally perhaps—but nevertheless they met. The important thing of the second part won the contest, too, and that's where the story comes in.

While some four thousand persons stood in front of the Lincoln Star listening to the reports of the football game at Ames, a flock of geese came over the crowd. Someone saw them and soon all the crowd was watching them. Then came another flock and another until it seemed that the geese were flying south in an endless stream.

Few heard the reports of the game while those geese were going over and even the man at the megaphone halted for a minute.

And some few hundred of that mass of human beings predicted that Sunday would see a very severe cold wave hit the Husker camp. Before the last reports of the game had come in, they were certain of it for they were more than frozen.

and better than ever this year. There will probably be three routes on which entertainers will be sent out. This is unprecedented in the history of this tradition.

An endeavor is made to reach an entirely new territory each year. Former trips have covered a large number of towns throughout various sections of Nebraska; but it is impossible to cover any extensive space in one week.

The function of university week is to get the people of the state acquainted with the students and what they are doing. The towns learn more of the ideals and results obtained in the university; and the students are benefited by a more intimate acquaintance with the people of the different sections of the state. This practical tradition serves the purpose of selling the university to the people of the state.

The towns that have in the past been on the schedule have been enthusiastic over the work of the university and have supported it in many ways. The papers have in the past given much praise to the entertainers and especially to the type of young people who represented the university.

The students have always received a cordial reception in the towns and many have gone to much trouble to make things interesting for their visitors. Usually there has been keen competition among the towns of a circuit to provide the best homes and the most interesting entertainment.

Student talent is selected with the greatest care in order that the best possible representations may be made. As a result there has often been considerable competition for places in the companies. In view of the plans outlined for this year it is probable that a large number will try out for the trips.
