

DAWSON'S CREW SWAMPS AGGIES

Cornhuskers Roll up Huge Score Against Turkey Day Opponents from Rockies.

DAWSON LEAVES FOR EAST

Has Not Laid Definite Plans for Spring Practice—Thorough Workout Certain.

The 1921 Cornhusker football squad brought the season to a close Thanksgiving day when the Scarlet and Cream machine handed the Colorado Aggies the worst drubbing of the year, the final count being 70 to 7. With ideal weather prevailing, a large holiday crowd witnessed the big victory for the Nebraskans.

Seven victories and one defeat are the results of this year's efforts in the pigskin sport and Nebraskans are proud of the showing made here and in the games played away from home. Several Huskers made their final appearance as far as football is concerned at Nebraska. Those playing their last game were Captain Swanson, John Pucelik, Floyd Wright, Harold McGlasson, Richard Triplett, Andrew Schoepel.

Coach Dawson left for the east immediately following the game but thanked the entire squad for the support tendered him this year and also thanked his assistants, Frank Day, Schulte, and Young. Coach Dawson has no definite plans for spring football as yet but hopes to give the Husker athletes plenty of training this spring in preparation for another championship, eleven next fall.

UNIVERSITY CO-EDS BANQUET THURSDAY

Will be First of Series of Dinners to be Sponsored by Women's Senior Honorary.

A dinner for all university girls will be given at Ellen Smith hall Thursday evening at 6 o'clock by the Black Masque chapter of Mortarboard. Tickets which are 50 cents may be secured from any member of Mortarboard. Only 200 tickets will be validated so girls are urged to secure their tickets immediately.

This is the first of a series of dinners which Mortarboard is planning to sponsor. It is hoped that a new tradition will be established at Nebraska and that dinners will be given at intervals during the school year for both men and girls. If this first dinner is as successful as is expected others will be given.

The dinner will give an unusual opportunity to become acquainted with all of the girls in the university. Music will be provided for dancing following the dinner. No set program has been planned because it is thought that the opportunity for making new acquaintances will be better if everything is informal.

Brief History of University Publications Affords a Very Interesting Review of Past

By Lorna M. Plimpton

Except for official bulletins or catalogs, the earliest publication from the campus was The Hesperian Student, established about 1871 or 1872. The paper was managed by students, but received a little financial aid from the regents. Among the early editors were Edson Rich, N. Z. Snell, Clem Chase, and B. F. Marshall. At this time the paper was lodged on the attic-like top floor of the building, as did the janitor, and they helped to keep up the fires in the stoves by which the building was heated. The contents of The Hesperian were varied. It ran a few original serial stories, and contained an article on "The Beautiful in Art," and one entitled "Nature and Art and Intellect." In the early nineties the management of this weekly magazine became largely a matter of school poli-

INDICATE RECORD SALES FOR STUDENT DIRECTORY

Sale of student directories was resumed Monday morning with a rush. The books are being taken up in fast order by the students and faculty members of the university and will soon all be sold.

The book is one of the best directories ever put out by a university. Many improvements have been made over former Nebraska student rosters and the book is easily worth more than 50 cents, asked for it.

The books are on sale in social science building, U hall and Temple.

HUSKERS WILL NOT JOURNEY TO COAST

Nebraska Athletic Policy Forbids Contests With Any But College Teams.

The Nebraska Cornhuskers will not perform on the gridiron in San Francisco on January 2, although they have been invited to meet the Pacific fleet amateur team there on that date. It is strictly contrary to the policy of Nebraska athletics to play any but college teams and consequently it will be impossible to consider the proposal.

Director of Athletics F. W. Luehring the following invitation by telegram:

"W. F. Luehring, Director of Athletics, Lincoln, Nebraska. Wire terms immediately for game here New Year's, January 2, 1922, with college, auspices Native Sons' Athletic club; membership 1,500. Answer wire collect.—J. J. Lane, Manager."

In reply Mr. Luehring sent the following message:

"J. J. Lane, Manager, Native Sons' Athletic club, San Francisco, Calif.: Regret impossible to consider game without knowing name of college opponent. F. W. Luehring, Director."

The San Francisco promoters then came back with an invitation to meet the Pacific fleet amateur team instead of a college team as inferred in the first telegram. Mr. Luehring then immediately wired the westerners that it would be impossible to consider playing a game in San Francisco unless with a college opponent.

Even if the Cornhuskers were booked to meet a college eleven in the California city, it would be very difficult to arrange the affair. Permission would first have to be obtained from the Missouri Valley conference and this might be a hard proposition. In past years the Nebraska team has been invited to play post-season games and has been held up by valley schools. In 1915 the Huskers were asked to play at the tournament of roses in Pasadena but were unable to make the trip.

There seems to be no chance of the Huskers playing any post-season teams, unless unexpected developments arise.

Y. W. STAFF DINNER TO BE HELD TUESDAY

The regular Y. W. C. A. staff dinner will be held Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. Sixty-five girls who are serving on the various staffs of the Y. W. C. A. are expected to attend. The dinner will be 50 cents a plate.

The first staff dinner was held early in the month with the social service committee in charge. The membership staff will be in charge of this dinner.

ties. Alumni will recall the rather ornate cover design by Miss Sarah Moore of the art department. It represented a huge sunflower, supported by the "Hesperian students." Across the face of the sunflower ran a ribbon bearing the letters "Hesperian student." The typography of this paper became so careless that it was not unusual for the paper to appear with all the s's or some other letters in italics. These strange freaks of the printer became such a joke among the students that one day a fake edition of The Hesperian appeared. It was made up largely of the most absurd items from the real Hesperian.

Willis Cather Was Editor.

In 1892, Willis Cather became literary editor of The Hesperian and a few years later editor-in-chief, and it was under her vigorous leadership that the magazine became largely a matter of school poli-

"CHICK" HARTLEY, 1922 Cornhusker Football Captain

"CHICK" HARTLEY CHOSEN CAPTAIN

Letter Men Elect Star Fullback To Lead 1922 Football At Meeting Held After Game.

Harold S. Hartley was chosen to pilot the destinies of the 1922 Cornhusker football machine at a meeting of the letter men following the Thanksgiving contest. Hartley has proved himself to be one of the best fullbacks in the country, both on offense and defense.

"Chick" played Varsity football here in 1918, when he was a member of the S. A. T. C. team and played freshman football the year following. Last year he played Varsity football and distinguished himself in the halfback position. Coach Dawson has been using the new captaincy at the fullback position this year, where he has made a name for himself as one of the most consistent ground gainers on the Cornhusker squad. Hartley is adept at passing, his long passes, with Captain Swanson on the receiving end, winning a number of contests this year for the Cornhuskers. Hartley has been doing the kicking the latter part of the season for the Huskers and has developed a remarkable toe in comparatively a short time.

Hartley is a member of a number of organizations on the campus and is a junior law. He is also a member of Phi Delta Theta.

UNI CADETS PROVE TO BE MARKSMEN

Rifle Teams Will be Picked—May Send Rifle Team to National Matches.

Marksmanship promises to take a decided place among the list of sports already established at the University of Nebraska, if we may judge by the excellent work that has been done by the men of the R. O. T. C. on the gallery range in Nebraska hall.

Each one of the companies is given a period of three days during which all the men in that company are expected to fire sixty rounds. The gallery is at the disposal of that company only during the period allotted. Of the companies that have fired to date, the relative standing is as follows:

Company	Rank
A	6
B	8
C	7
E	4
F	3
G	2
H	1
I	5

In the gallery work, the .22 calibre ammunition is used in the regular Springfield rifle, which gives all of the pleasure of shooting without any of the accompanying "kick," as those who have used the service ammunition can well testify. The uncertainties of wind and weather are also eliminated in the gallery work.

The firing is done from four positions, standing, sitting, kneeling, and prone. The attainment of accuracy in the standing position is conceded to be the most difficult test of marksmanship. Firing from a prone position is reckoned the easiest.

Among the very excellent scores that have been fired in the gallery this fall are the following. The scores are reckoned on the basis of a possible 300 points:

Capt. D. S. McVickers	288
-----------------------	-----

(Continued on Page Four.)

TWENTY-FOUR MEN RECEIVE LETTERS

Luehring Awards Nebraska "N's" to Members of 1921 Varsity Gridiron Squad.

Directly following the Thanksgiving fray, Director of Athletics Luehring awarded twenty-four letters to members of the Cornhusker varsity squad in appreciation of their services for the past season.

The men receiving the letters were as follows:

- Captain Clarence Swanson.
- Captain-elect Harold Hartley.
- John Pucelik.
- Floyd Wright.
- Roy Lyman.
- Leo Scherer.
- Joy Berquist.
- Raymond Weller.
- Adolph Wenke.
- Carl Peterson.
- Glen Preston.
- Verne Lewellen.
- Herbert Dewitz.
- Robert Russell.
- Dave Noble.
- Monte Munn.
- Andrew Schoepel.
- Gordon Howe.
- Bryon Nixon.
- Dewey Hoy.
- Ross McGlasson.
- Harold McGlasson.
- Marwin Yaiton.
- Richard Triplett.

COED COMMERCE CLUB ORGANIZES

Semester Officers Elected And Committees Appointed—Clarissa Delano to Speak.

The women's division of the University chamber of commerce has received official recognition as an organization. At the meeting November 23, 1921, the following officers were elected and committees were appointed:

- Nancy Penoyer—president.
- Mildred Othmer—vice president.
- Helen Shonka—secretary.
- Blanche Gramlich—treasurer.

Committees.

- Publicity—Eleanor J. Dunlap, chairman; Mina Kellner, Mary C. Noble.
- Program—Ruth Small, chairman.
- Rose Mae Hayden, Janet McClellan.
- Membership—Emma Cross, chairman; Olga Shermerhorn, Florence Ham.

Entertainment—Susan Riches, chairman; Mary Locoes, Elsie Hershberger, Merle Ackerman, Lucile Gisa.

Miss Clarissa Delano, assistant in the economics department, will address the organization at its meeting on Wednesday, November 30, 5 p. m., Social Science, 305. Miss Delano was president of the Lincoln Axis club last year and was sent to the National convention at Columbus, Ohio, last summer to represent the Lincoln chapter. She will speak on the various organizations and work of the business women.

The women's division has a membership of nearly three fourths the total enrollment of women in the college of business administration. This division was organized for the purpose of promoting fellowship among the members of the college and of investigating and studying economic.

CHAMPIONS INVITED TO ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEON

The Lincoln Rotary club has invited all of the twenty-four football letter men to a luncheon at the Lincoln hotel today at twelve o'clock. This invitation has been extended to all the men who were awarded the official "N" for this season.

The Rotary club is taking this manner of expressing its appreciation to the championship Nebraska eleven.

The victorious Cornhuskers will probably be the guests of honor at several other affairs in the near future.

HUSKERS PLACE ON MYTHICAL ELEVENS

Swanson, Pucelik, Preston and Hartley on All-Valley Eleven—Swanson Named Captain.

Ten Cornhuskers are given places on the three all-Missouri Valley elevens chosen by Clyde E. McBride in the Kansas City Star, one of the leading sport writers of the valley. Four of these are on the first team, four on the second team, and two on the third team. Clarence Swanson, Husker chieftain, is named as captain of the first mythical eleven.

Here are McBride's selections:

First Team.

Ends—Swanson, Nebraska, captain, and Marsh, Oklahoma.

Tackles—Blumer, Missouri; and Kraehe, Washington.

Guards—Jones, Kansas; and Pucelik, Nebraska.

Center—Wallace, Ames.

Quarterback—Preston, Nebraska.

Halfbacks—Lewis, Missouri; and Hill, Oklahoma.

Fullback—Hartley, Nebraska.

Second Team.

Ends—Scherer, Nebraska; Dates, man, Grinnell.

Tackles—Denton, Drake; and Lyman, Nebraska.

Guards—Berquist, Nebraska; and Hahn, Kansas Aggies.

Center—Bunker, Missouri, Captain.

Quarterback—Swartz, Kansas Aggies.

Halfbacks—Noble, Nebraska; and Burton, Kansas Aggies.

Fullback—McAdams, Kansas

Third Team.

Ends—Schnauss, Washington; and Sebring, Kansas Aggies.

Tackles—Weller, Nebraska; and Schmitz, Kansas Aggies.

Guards—Marsh, Drake; and McKinley, Oklahoma, captain.

Center—Peterson, Nebraska.

Quarterback—Niggemeyer, Drake.

Halfbacks—Currie, Ames; and Matthes, Washington.

Fullback—Swatek, Oklahoma

On his "honor roll," McBride includes four more Nebraska men: Wenke, Wright, Dewitz, and Lewellen.

Another all-valley team, chosen by E. W. Cochrane, a sport writer and football official, places Swanson, Lyman, and Hartley of the first team and Preston, Wright and Noble, on the second team.

Not Enough Huskers.

Followers of the pigskin sport at Nebraska believe that the Husker team should be better represented on any all-valley team than the above selections indicate. McBride saw the Dawson machine in action only once, at Ames, and Cochrane did not witness a Nebraska game.

(Continued on Page Three.)

HUSKERS START CAGE PRACTICE

Thirty-Five Men Report To Coach Frank At First Official Practice Of Season.

MEET ALL VALLEY TEAMS

Kansas Slated For First Scrap—Husk-ers Journey To Lawrence December 20th.

Coach Frank of the cage squad called his proteges together for the first official practice last evening in the Armory. Thirty-five men turned out for Varsity work. Practically all of last year's quintet have been lost and Husker fans will witness an almost entirely new combination in action this year.

Most of the members of last year's freshmen crew reported for practice and a number of last year's Varsity squad. Regular practice will be held from now on and Coach Frank plans to make use of the floor at the Stato Coliseum as much as possible throughout the week. The initial call for the freshmen basket ball squad will be announced some time later.

John Pickett, who coached the yearling aggregation last season is assisting Coach Frank at the present time and will probably take charge of the Frosh when the call is sounded. The Huskers are not meeting teams outside the Missouri Valley conference this year and Director Luehring looks forward to a championship year in the Valley conference for the cage sport. Last season the Huskers finished in second place, losing one Valley game to the Ames Cyclones on the latter's floor.

The candidates from last year's squad in action at the present time are Captain Smith, Carman, Warren, Munger, Haverley, Russell, and a number of other stellar performers. From last year's Frosh crew, Coach Frank has a wealth of material to pick from. Toft, Holland, Schaffers, Gibbs, Miller, Hamilton, Spear, and several other stars on last year's yearling aggregation.

The initial contest is practically a month off as yet and Coach Frank expects to have his proteges in first class condition for the coming fray, with the Kansas Jayhawkers at Lawrence on the 20th of December. The Huskers proved their superiority over the Kansans on the gridiron this season and will have a chance to demonstrate to the Jayhawkers the calibre of basket ball teams turned out at the Husker school. The scarlet and cream cage aggregation did not get to meet the Kansans last season and this will be the first mix for a number of years.

NEBRASKA SUMMER SCHOOL ENROLLMENT MOUNTING UP

The enrollment at summer sessions in American universities, colleges and normal schools is one of the promising signs of the times. The major part of those in attendance are teachers preparing to render better service by this means.

The University of Nebraska ranked fourteenth in enrollment among state universities, and twenty-third among all institutions. In rate of increase over 1920, Nebraska stood fourth among those of its own rank, showing 45 per cent increase and being surpassed only by Iowa State college, Pennsylvania and Colorado.

University Players Deserve Credit For Their Successful Drama and Comedy Production

By Isabel Evans.

Under the direction of Miss Alice Howell, professor of dramatic art on the faculty, the University Players started their 1921 season. The University Players is a student organization, with student officers, and is open to all students showing dramatic ability. Walter M. Herbert is business manager and George Turner is advertising manager.

The University Players gave their first performance October 20, 21, 22, at the Temple theater. They produced George M. Cohen's greatest comedy, "The Seven Keys to Baldpate." A capacity audience filled the theater and received the production most enthusiastically. The play is one of great comedy and mystery. It requires an elaborate setting which has kept it from being played by stock and road companies. The Players gave the complete scenic production, however, the falling snow and howling wind was very realistic and gave an air of Broadway to the production.

The cast was carefully selected and directed by Miss Howell. Several of the players did exceptionally good work. Floyd Johnson carried the character lead of Magee splendidly. His portrayal of the dashing young author, who has made a wager with a friend that he can write a ten thousand word story in twenty-four hours, was carried off excellently. Herbert Yenne did an especially good character sketch as the eccentric hermit, who hates everything in general. Mr. Yenne ranks as one of the best players. Marlan Richardson, Irma McGowan and Myra Thornhill all gave splendid characterizations and deserve special mention. Faithful work was done (Continued on Page Three.)