AT THE THEATRES

Orpheum.
 Inouys of Omaha, who received his There's another well balanced bill at the Orpheum this week. It is the best balanced bill there this season because it offers nearly every different kind of vaudeville that is usually popularly received.
 George and May LaFevre present a nicely staged and cleverly offered dancing act. They are fine dancers.
 The girl violinist, Miss Beliveau was entirely enjoyable. She has a pleasing appearance and plays the violin much better than the average vaudeville artist. Her program was well selected. Harry J. Conley in his rural travesty "Rice and Old Shoes," was a big hit. His comedy is clean and original and the setting was particularly clever. Bob La Salle's offering while pleasing and the material new was not as well received as he should have been.
 Probably the most interesting act of the bill was Carlyle Blackwell, the well-known movie star in "Eight, Six and Four" by Mark Swan. A movie star is always a big attraction and their biggest success would be to deserve the attention on their own merits and not because of their movie fame. Mr. Blackwell is a good actor on the speaking stage as well as in the films. His appearance is excellent.
 Mel Klee went over big in his first-class blackface act. No smut—and a good line of talk besides a good singing to get the most out of his act were the reasons for his big hand.
 The Gellis brothers are evidently a French importation. Their act would be much better if they stuck to their line which is very apparently tumbling, and did not try to sing and dance. They should go big without the attempt.
