REQUIRE FRESHMEN TO WEAR NAME TAGS
PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE, Dec. 10.—(Exchange Service.)—Name tags are to be worn by the freshman men and women of Pennsylvania State college during the first week of each semester.
This innovation has been introduced not only because of its advantage in acquainting freshmen with each other but also because it will aid the upperclassmen students in knowing the newcomers.
The decision to introduce this custom was made by the student council which expects to add it to the list of campus traditions.
ENGINEERING NOTES.
James C. Nagle, professor of C. E. and dean of engineering agricultural and mechanical college of Texas at College Station, Texas, visited friends and the engineering faculty, and also made a trip through the engineering college Friday, December 9.
