DE MOLAY SHOW A BIG ATTRACTION

First Night of Performance Witnessed by Hundreds of Theater Fans.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS TAKE LEADING PARTS

Varsity Glee Club Singers Receive Big Hand—Co-eds Win Much Praise.

Putting on a performance rivaling that of the Shrine minstrels, the Lincoln chapter Order of DeMolay won fame through its variety show on the first of a two evening run Monday night at the Orpheum theater. Hundreds of theater fans crowded into the Orpheum to view the first of what proves to be an annual event in home talent circles of Lincoln.

More than fifty University of Nebraska students took part in the show. The leading roles in nearly every act were taken by students of the University. Especially in the musical revue where thirty men and twenty women of the university appeared, did the Cornhusker students pull down the applause.

The varsity glee club singers presenting a series of songs won loud clapping from the enthusiastic audience. The university players, presenting a one-act skit, received applause equal to that of any Orpheum comedy act.

The show started off with a program by boys of the Y. M. C. A. under the direction of O. B. Anderson. The excellent athletic prowess of these Lincoln youths more than surprised the entire audience.

Koby Sirinsky and Cappy Good-broad next presented a series of musical numbers on the violin and piano. The reputation of Sirinsky as a string artist was upheld to the utmost by his performing Monday night.

The University players next presented their one-act skit and won much earned praise. The audience was more than pleased with the dramatic ability of the players.

Emmett Jung and Harold Wait, presenting a piano and xylophone number, were very enthusiastically received. These Lincoln high school boys have made a name for themselves as musical artists.

Orville Andrews, a black-faced comedian, presented an act rivaling that of the best Orpheum black-faced men. Andrews presented a comedy act which brought applause after applause upon him.

The musical revue, featuring more than fifty University of Nebraska students, was a fitting climax to a wonderful performance. Songs and dances ran strong in the act and encore after encore was demanded.

DeMolay variety show will be an annual event in the future, is the belief of all officers of the organization most of whom are University of Nebraska students. In a little more than a year of existence of Lincoln, the order has grown into one of the most active organizations in the city. More than eight hundred boys belong to the Lincoln chapter.

SENIOR GIRLS WIN IN FIRST HOCKEY GAME

The senior girls defeated the freshmen, 6-1, in the first game of the W. A. A. hockey tournament yesterday noon. The younger class put up a good fight but could not withstand the "head-on" of the more experienced players. The seniors played well together, and far outclassed the first year class in team work. Both teams were handicapped by the slippery field, and a mud-bespattered squad left the field at 1 o'clock.

The junior-sophomore game will be played this noon. The winners will play the seniors in the finals Wednesday at twelve o'clock. Mrs. Morgan will referee all the games assisted by Miss Clark as time keeper.

NEBRASKA PROFESSORS RECEIVE NEW HONORS

Several University of Nebraska men have been elected as officers of the Nebraska section of the American Chemical company.

Following is a list of the men who will preside during 1922: Councillor Dr. F. W. Upton, University of Nebraska; chairman, Prof. B. C. Hendricks, University of Nebraska; vice-chairman, Prof. H. A. Durham, Wesleyan; secretary S. B. Aronson, University of Nebraska; executive committee, Dr. E. A. Anderson, University of Nebraska; Ralph Batty of the state chemist's office; and Dr. D. J. Brown, University of Nebraska.

NEBRASKA GRADUATES ARE CAMPUS VISITORS

A number of graduates, who are now engaged in botanical work, visited the department of botany during the holidays. Dr. Donald Folsom, 1912, who specialized in botany while at Nebraska, is now associate professor of botany at the University of Maine, Orono, Maine. Dr. Folsom spoke at the botanical seminar Wednesday night on "Degeneration Diseases of Potatoes."

Another recent visitor was Dr. William T. Horne of the class of 1898. Nebraska, is now associate prof. of botany at the University of California, Berkeley, Cal.

W. B. Chapline, a graduate of 1912, who specialized in botany and forestry while in school, was another caller. Mr. Chapline is director of grazing investigations in the United States forestry service with offices in Washington, D. C.

UNIVERSITY NIGHT SKITS ARE SOON DUE

J. Wilbur Wolf, university night chairman, announces that prizes will be given for the two best writeups by January 15. The prize for the best skit is $5.00 and for the next best is $2.50. The committee is anxious that all writeups be original. Already a few writeups have been handed in. Organizations are urged to get together all the talent possible because competition is expected to be great and the committee hopes to have a better program than has ever been given before.

The program will be held in the Lincoln high school auditorium Saturday, February 18. William G. Alstair who is in charge of the sales of tickets states that the auditorium will seat over 1,300 students. It is planned to have the tickets on sale about a week before the program—thus making it possible to make proper allotments to the students. The same ruling will be followed out as last year—only two tickets to a student. In this way a few individuals will not be able to buy up great numbers of tickets and dispose of them in their own fashion.

FRENCH CLUB HAS EVENING PROGRAM

La Soiree Francaise, club for advanced French students, met in Faculty hall Saturday evening. The committee in charge consisted of Miss Agnes Gordon and Mr. Gustave Fuchs. "La Lettre Chargee," a comedy by Eugene Labrache was presented. Those taking part were Marjorie McGee, Anita Lavelly, Henry Sargent and Elmer Swengel.

French readings were given by Mr. Stenger of Columbus, Nebr., a native Frenchman, who was a visitor of the evening, and by Henry Sargent.

MISS FRANCES DUNNING WILL SPEAK WEDNESDAY

Miss Frances Dunning, in charge of the institutional work under the department of home economics, will talk to university girls on "Institutional Management," Wednesday at 5:00 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. This is the second vocational talk given under the auspices of the W. S. G. A. this year.

Her talk will include the history of institutional work and the opportunities in institutional management for trained workers. Girls interested in the work or planning to select it as a vocation will have an excellent opportunity to learn the kind of training needed.

man's Commons.

Courses in institutional work are given by Miss Dunning which fit girls to take positions as managers of cafeterias, dining rooms, and tea rooms, or to become hospital dieticians.

Miss Dunning is an expert dietician and is the director of the Wo-
