QUESTION BOXES ARE PLACED IN LIBRARY

Queries on Y. W. C. A. to Be Answered at Vesper Services
 On Tuesday.

If there is something you would like to know on the subjects of religion or Y. W. C. A. work, just write it in the form of a question, drop it in the box on the bulletin board in the vestibule of the library building before Tuesday noon, and then come to vesper service at 5 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall, Tuesday afternoon, where all questions will be answered and all mysteries solved.

Mary Bost will lead the devotional service. Miss Appleby will have charge of the question box service and will answer all the questions. Just to give some idea as to the nature of the questions that will be answered, some are quoted here. "How many Y. W. C. A. training schools are there in the United States? Where are some of the best ones? How much does a course cost?" "What is the incarnation? What does it mean? What is its significance? What is Heaven? Has God a Lady? and Isn't it better to say the Lord's prayer when praying rather than one's own prayer which is apt to be selfish? This will be the first service of the semester and promises to be an exceptionally interesting one. Don't miss it.

Marriages.

A marriage of interest to university people took place last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Watkins, when Miss Ethel De Young became the bride of Phillip Watkins. Both people have attended the university where Mrs. Watkins is a member of Gamma Phi Beta. Mr. Watkins was graduated in 1917 and is a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

Miss Claire Stroy and Fred Henderson of Wintershaven, Fla., were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stroy Saturday noon. Mrs. Henderson formerly attended the university and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta. The couple will make their home at Wintershaven, Fla.

Engagements.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Starboard have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nellie, to Joe Liebendorfer. Miss Starboard has attended the university and is a member of Achoth sorority.

The engagement of Miss Theoda For and Domonic Gross was recently announced. Mr. Gross attends the university and is a member of Farm House fraternity.

Society.

Delian.
 The Delian literary society entertainment at an open meeting last Friday evening. Various skits which were characteristic of examination week and registration were given. The remainder of the evening was spent in the enjoyment of a taffy pull.

EXCHANGES

Ohio State University, Columbus, O.—A spring style show will be held under the auspices of the women's student council of the school early in February. Columbus stores will furnish the costumes.

State College of Washington, Pullman—The associated students of the college are putting on moving picture shows on week-ends entirely under the direction, management and workmanship of the student body. Musical numbers are given between shows.

University of Iowa, Iowa City.—The University Players are conducting a play writing contest, with a prize of $50 for the best play submitted before the first of March. The prize winner, who must be an undergraduate student, will also be assured that his play will be produced and he will have the privilege of playing any part in it he may wish.

The Tech, Cambridge, Mass.—The men on the university newspaper staff here have planned a meeting for all men of the school interested in activities. All men of the school were asked to come and hear the activities explained so they could direct their energy in the proper direction.

Washington State College, Pullman.—Recently the college hens and cocks held open house in their new quarters on the campus. Students in the poultry department of the college acted as guides to show the visitors through the various departments.

Uni of Southern California, Los Angeles.—All girls' pictures for the year book at this school were taken in tailored clothes. It was thought that school clothes would be more representative of college life.

Uni of California, Berkeley.—Observations to test the validity of the Einstein theory of relativity are to be made by the university at the "Ninety mile Beach" in Australia during the total eclipse of the sun on September 24.

Alumni Notes.

H. Leonard DeKalb, '02, is engaged in the practice of law at Lewis town, Mont. While in Lincoln recently, Mr. DeKalb visited former friends on the campus. He states that his office employs five assistant lawyers and that recently he tried thirty-eight cases in thirty-seven days. For some time previous to engaging in his present private practice, he was district judge at Lewistown.
