

OFFICIAL PROGRAM OF MEETINGS OUT

Eight Big Convocations to be Held During Sherwood Eddy's Stay Here.

TELEGRAM FROM SOUTH TELLS OF BIG SUCCESS

Overflow Meetings for Brilliant Student Leader in State of Texas.

Announcement of the official program and of the receipt of a telegram from the Texas college where Sherwood Eddy is conducting a series of meetings were made public late last night by the executive committee in charge of the Eddy meetings on the Nebraska Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Following is the telegram received by "Bill" Day from the Y. M. C. A. secretary at the Southern Methodist university at Dallas, Texas, where Mr. and Mrs. Eddy have just completed some student meetings:

"Sherwood Eddy's lectures at S. M. U. great success. People turned away from both lectures today. He is speaking on vital student problems. Interest high. Lectures discussed by entire student body. Much concern on part of all."

Similar reports from other colleges where Mr. Eddy has been speaking have necessitated the change here so that all Eddy convocations will be held at St. Paul's church with the exception of two special meetings. The program shows that two meetings will be held each on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. For the first big meeting, Wednesday at 11 a. m., all classes, laboratories and libraries will be closed promptly at 10:30 and students will be given the opportunity to have first chance at seats in the St. Paul auditorium.

On Tuesday morning, in the Sherwood Eddy edition of the Nebraskan a list of all professors who will dismiss classes for the 11 o'clock convocations on Thursday and Friday will be published. On Thursday and Friday evenings the mass meetings will begin at 7 o'clock and on Friday (closed night) the final meetings of the series will begin at 8 o'clock.

The official program given below should be kept in mind by students, as the six general meetings will be coordinated into a series of lectures.

Wednesday.
11 a. m.—Convocation at St. Paul's church (All classes dismissed.)
12 noon—Luncheon for Mr. and Mrs. Eddy, open to faculty and members of campus organizations committee.

Thursday.
9 a. m.—Agricultural college convocation, Ag. hall auditorium.
11 a. m.—Convocation at St. Paul's church.
5 p. m.—Special vespers services addressed by Mrs. Eddy (girls only.)
7 p. m.—Lecture at St. Paul's church.

Friday.
11 a. m.—Convocation at St. Paul's church.
8 p. m.—Final address by Mr. Eddy at St. Paul's church.

PERSHING RIFLES HOLDS SMOKER THURSDAY NIGHT

The Pershing Rifles held a smoker Thursday evening in Faculty hall, to which were invited the entire commissioned instructional staff and the alumni of Pershing Rifles in university. About eighty men were present and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Some entertaining talks were given by the commandant of cadets, Col. Mitchell, Major Ericson, and Captain Murphy. Captain Knight, who recently reported for duty at Nebraska was a guest at the smoker and the organization enjoyed a short talk by him.

CONSERVATION SURVEY PREPARES NEW FILMS

"The Corn Eaters of America," a film prepared by the conservation survey division which recites the story of overproduction of corn in Nebraska, together with the measures set forth to increase the consumption of corn was run the last of the week at the Rialto theatre. This reel will be used to show the corn poppers play which was staged at the chamber of commerce a few weeks ago. Another film showing the work of the Nebraska legislature was exhibited the last of the week at the Liberty theatre.

INTER-FRAT. BOWLING CONTEST TO BE HELD

Plans are being made for the inter-fraternity bowling tournament, to be held in the near future. All Greek letter organizations wishing to participate, must have their five-man teams entered at the Lincoln Bowling Alleys, before Wednesday noon, February 8. An entrance fee of $1 will be charged.

ALL-UNI VALENTINE PARTY IS SATURDAY

Last Mixer of the Year to be Held Latter Part of This Week in Armory.

A valentine party for all university students under the direction of the all-university party committee will be held Saturday evening, February 11 at 8 o'clock in the armory. As this is the last general mixer of the year, the committee members are planning to accommodate a record-breaking crowd.

Dancing, after an entertaining program which is being planned as a surprise, will be only one of the attractions of the evening. Decorations will be in true valentine fashions and the refreshment committee is making ready for hundreds of merry-makers. The committees which were announced in the Nebraskan last week have each had a meeting besides the general meeting at which outlines for the program were discussed.

Twenty-five cents will be charged at the door and will include everything; checking facilities, dancing, program, and refreshments. "Friday evening of this week has been declared closed on account of the Sherwood Eddy mass meeting at St. Paul's church, so that the all-university party will give each student an opportunity to have an entertainment of fun," a committee member stated yesterday. Further announcements of the exact plans will be made in the Nebraskan this week.

AYLESWORTH OFFERS AN EVENING COURSE

Government and Political Problems of Nebraska to be Discussed.

Prof. L. E. Aylesworth of the department of political and social science is offering an evening course on the government and political problems of Nebraska under the auspices of the university extension division. This is an innovation in the history department, but if the response appears to warrant it evening courses will be made a regular part of the work and service of the department in the future.

This course consists of a series of lectures and discussions designed to give a knowledge and understanding of the underlying principles, organization, and actual workings of the political institutions of Nebraska essential to intelligent and effective citizenship.

The class will meet Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:10 in room 105, social science building. The opening lecture on "Nebraska and the Nation" will be given on Monday evening, February 6.

This course is not limited to those who are outside the university. Any regularly registered university student above the freshman year may take it either without credit or for credit, subject to the requirements regarding the amount of work a student may carry. Only the minimum fee of $2.00 will be charged such students even though the course be taken for credit. The credit granted will be either one hour or two hours, according to the amount and quality of work done by the student.

The outline of the course is as follows:

- 1—Constitutional foundations.
- 2—Nebraska and the nation.
- 3—Civil and political rights of Nebraska.
- 4—The state legislature—structure and composition.
- 5—The process and product of law-making.
- 6—The chief executive of Nebraska.
- 7—The state administrative system.

University Men Have Habit Of Being Late To Eight O'clocks

Complaints from professors teaching eight o'clock classes have been heard regarding the many cases of tardiness, especially of boys. Means of severe punishment may be put into effect if the condition does not change.

The thing to do, for all young men who are guilty of this evil, is to change the method of being awakened.

Getting a boy up in the morning can hardly be classed under the head of "pastimes," especially if the boy did much exercise the day before. And it is a little singular that the next hardest thing to getting a young college student out of bed is getting him into it. There is rarely a mother who is a success at rousing a boy, yet she does seem to go at it in the right way. She opens the stair-door and insinuatingly observes "Johnny." There is of course no response. "Johnny." Still no response. Then there is a short, sharp, "John," followed a moment later by a long and emphatic "John Henry." A grunt from the upper regions signifies that an impression has been made, and mother is encouraged to add, "You'd better be getting down here to breakfast, young man, or you'll miss that eight o'clock class again." This so startles the young man that he immediately goes to sleep again and the operation has to be repeated several times.

Now a father doesn't have this trouble at all. He merely ejects his mouth as a soda bottle ejects its cork and the "John Henry" that cleaves the air of that stairway goes into the boy like electricity, and pierces the deepest recesses of his nature. He pops out of that bed and into his clothes with a promptness that is commendable. It is seldom that a boy allows himself to disregard the paternal summons.

So to avoid this terrible punishment that is bound to be inflicted upon tardy college boys who live here and are fortunate enough to be around a "dad," get him to call you in the morning. It might be advisable for frat houses to advertise for a "house father" to do practically the same work.

NEBRASKA LOSES CYCLONE BATTLE

Husker Cage Tossers Completely Outclassed by Ames Quintet Saturday Night.

FINAL SCORE IS 26-7 IN FAVOR OF INVADERS

Five-man Defense Presented by Visitors Was Too Much for Cornhuskers.

Completely outclassed in every department of the game, the Nebraska basketball team lost to the Ames quintet, 26 to 7, in a one-sided contest on the gymnasium floor last night. The Cornhuskers were unable to penetrate the five-man defense of the Cyclones, who held the Huskers to two baskets. Currie, Cyclone guard, was the high point getter, making a total of ten points.

Soon after the opening whistle, Smith, Husker captain, registered a field goal. The Cyclones then forged into the lead, and were never headed. The Scarlet and Cream cagers at no time threatened the Cyclone lead. The Ames Farmers were leading at the end of the first half, 14 to 6.

The guarding of the Cyclones featured the second period, speedy moves holding the Huskers to one free throw. The Cyclones kept possession of the ball the greater part of the second period, and succeeded in chalking up 12 more points, bringing their total to twenty-six, while the Huskers' efforts netted them a total of seven tallies.

Numerous substitutions were made in the Nebraska lineup in an attempt to check the Ames offense. Tipton went in for Smith, Munger for Riddlesberger, Smith for Sarman, and Carman for Warren. The Cyclones also made a number of substitutions.

AMES BASEBALL SQUAD COMMENCES PRACTICE

Ames, Ia., Feb. 4—Coach Maury Kents' call for baseball practice was answered this week by forty men who began warming up the "oil souper" in the new college armory. Among those missing and whose absence will be keenly felt was Jeff Petty, catcher. He is attending Nebraska university this year. The Missouri Valley games on Ames' schedule are to be played with Nebraska, Kansas, Washington and Missouri.

CO-EDS TO MEET TOMORROW NIGHT

All-University Girls to Gather at Ellen Smith Hall Next Monday Evening.

POLITICAL CANDIDATES WILL ADDRESS MEETING

Opportunity to Hear all Office-Seekers to be Presented at Second Assembly.

All university girls meet at Ellen Smith hall Monday, February 6, at 8 o'clock! This second meeting, to be held in the interests of the girls of the school, is to be the final rally before the elections of Tuesday and will give them the opportunity of boosting for better, bigger campus politics.

At the previous meeting a number of the candidates for offices were introduced and each girl was given the chance of meeting the man himself and become acquainted with his personal views. At this second rally, the candidates who were not present at the former meeting, will meet the university girls. Under this plan each girl may impartially judge and decide upon her choice of candidates, and may know for whom she is voting.

The meeting will be conducted in much the same manner as formerly, talks will be given by representative student and faculty members, the principles for which this movement was organized will be again outlined, and a final impetus for its successful completion will be instilled.

All girls are urged to be out, not only for their own interests but for those of the university as a whole. Remember, Monday at 8 o'clock.

H. K. WOLFE MEMORIAL FUND STILL INCREASING

Over $3,000 has now been paid by the active and alumni members Paladian toward the $10,000 H. K. Wolfe scholarship fund. Of this amount, the active chapter has raised $1,000 and the alumni have raised the remainder. The entire amount of the fund, however, has not as yet been raised, the other participating organizations not having completed their pledges.

The Wolfe scholarship fund, perpetuated in memory of Harry K. Wolfe, who was one of the most noted philosophers of the country, a member of the University of Nebraska faculty, and also a member of Paladian, is for the benefit of worthy students doing research in the philosophy department.

NEW CAPTAIN ASSIGNED NEBRASKA UNIVERSITY

Butler L. Knight, captain infantry D. O. L., reported for duty at the University of Nebraska, February 1, 1922. Captain Knight came to the university from the Third Infantry, stationed at Fort Snelling, Minn. He served as captain for about a year during the world war in the One Hundred and Sixty-fifth Depot brigade, at Camp Travis, Texas; then served as major for one year, during the latter part of the war, at Camp Travis, Logan, and other camps.

LUEHRING IS HONOR GUEST OF MINNESOTA LETTER MEN

Athletic Director F. W. Luehring left Thursday night for Minneapolis, where he will attend to some business for the University of Minnesota. Mr. Luehring will attend the banquet of the "M" men as the guest of honor. He expects to return to Lincoln Sunday.

UNIVERSITY NIGHT PLANS ANNOUNCED

Chairman Makes Known Complete Plans for Annual Entertainment.

General Chairman J. Wilbur Wolf announces the following plans for University night. The program is to be held in the Lincoln high school auditorium, February 18, and will probably begin at 8:30 p. m. Chairman Wolf has been successful in closing the night of February 18 so no additional parties will be scheduled and the event will be an all-university affair. Tickets are to be placed on sale about February 9 in the Temple building as usual. This will give students ample time to make arrangements for the night.

University night has been a tradition with our university for twelve years. In the beginning it was under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet and was intended to serve as a general get-together for the students. It has gradually developed until today University night is probably one of the biggest events during the school year. In order to make the program a success it takes a great deal of organization and several months of conscious effort by a committee of picked helpers. It is predicted that the program this year will be the best that has ever been staged. From the outset Chairman Wolf has emphasized the fact that the committee wanted only the best.

PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL IS DISCUSSED

Chicago Tribune Denounces Present Inter-collegiate Football Ruling.

As the result of the suspension of Notre Dame and Illinois football players who participated in the now famous Taylorville-Carlinville game, middle western newspapers have given considerable space to the discussion which has naturally arisen. Are the suspended players to be compared to the so-called Black Sox of baseball or are they justified in accepting money for playing professional baseball or football after the college seasons end?

The Chicago Tribune editorially denounces the present ruling which forbids a college athlete to accept money for his services. In support of this position it said:

"If the girls of a girls' school had slid down the water pipe at midnight and had been discovered trying to climb back up it in the morning after a night of jazz they could not have upset their world more than the University of Illinois and Notre Dame boys have done by making a Roman holiday for Taylorville and Carlinville."

"The football coaches have broken hearts. Two football teams are all shot to pieces for next year. Faculties are looking askance at the young men under their care. The collegiate world in these parts is a physical debacle and a moral collapse."

"Universities are blighted, young men are blighted, athletic directors are blighted, future seasons are blighted, and a considerable portion of this section of the country sits in sackcloth and ashes because of what these young men Absaloms have done in their perversities."

"The corn fed moral sense of these parts probably ought to be more shocked by the conduct of the college boys, who, by playing football at Taylorville, seem to have broken the heart of the world, but we cannot get them out of the picture as a group of Penrod Schofields. The football coaches suggest Penrod's dancing teacher and his agitation when Penrod itched."

"We do not favor the young gentlemen of the universities sneaking into games under assumed names. We do not favor their taking money which they must swear they never

University of Nebraska students Tuesday will decide between "all-university" and "greater Nebraska."

The stage is all set for what is expected to prove one of the most interesting elections ever held at the Cornhusker school. The important part which the non-fraternity element is expected to take lends an unusual interest in the balloting which is expected to be very heavy.

The polls will open at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and stay open until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. They will be located in the Carpenter building north of U hall. Students who have classes at the agricultural college will vote at the polls there.

Two distinct tickets have been entered in the field. The greater-Nebraska ticket and the all-university ticket together with platforms upon which the candidates on each stand, were announced last week.

Both tickets bear the names of students of ability seldom seen on university politics. Probably more good men have been entered in this election than any previous one.

The argument has already developed into a heated fray. Politicians on both sides are using every means at their command to boost their candidates and all kinds of politics have been played.

Wendell Berge, candidate for freshman president; Harry Frye, candidate for sophomore president, and Paul Simon, running for sophomore member of the student publication board, have little to worry about the election. These men have each been endorsed by both parties entering the race and are the only ones running for their respective offices. No office has more than two candidates entered.

A pre-inventory of the election situation would serve to indicate that there is to be little of the "rough stuff" such as was tried to an extreme last fall. The students as a whole seem to have their minds fairly well made up and it is not expected that they can be changed. Good men have been entered for all offices and a close argument should result in each race.

What form of advertising and boosting the two parties will take Tuesday morning remains to be seen. The liveliness of the contest is not expected to wane, however, with the exception that little "rough stuff" is expected.
