

WRESTLERS MEET MINNESOTA HERE

Husker Grapplers to Contest With Minnesota Gophers Tomorrow Afternoon.

MATCHES SCHEDULED FOR TWO-THIRTY P. M.

Nebraska Lineup About Decided for Mat Struggle With the Northerners.

The Nebraska wrestling team opens the home season tomorrow afternoon when they meet the Minnesota grapplers in a dual meet at the armory. The Cornhusker grapplers have been drilling hard in preparation for the Gopher invasion, and are in fine shape for the meet. The Minnesota team comes here fresh from a victory over the strong Wisconsin Badgers, and indications point to a stiffly contested meet.

The meet will be held in the armory, starting at 2:30 p. m. The University band and the cheerleaders will be on hand to help liven up the student body. The student tickets admit to the meet and a large crowd is expected. E. C. Shroder of Iowa will referee the matches.

Nebraska Lineup.

The lineup for the Scarlet and Cream team has been definitely settled except in the 115 pound class. Pickwell will represent Nebraska in this class if he can make the weights otherwise an inexperienced man will compete for Nebraska in this division.

The remainder of the Nebraska lineup will be as follows: Deford, 125 pound class; Isaacson, 135 pound class; Thomas, 145 pound class; Captain Reed, 155 pound class; Troutman 175 pound class and Renner heavyweight. All the grapplers are in fine condition. Isaacson, whose shoulder has bothered him for some time, is in fine shape now.

Gopher Lineup.

The Gopher lineup is the strongest team that has represented the Gopher institution in a number of years. Five of the seven men on the Minnesota team are veterans. Gaalaas, Gopher featherweight is an exceptionally clever wrestler as is Stoner the Minnesota captain.

The Gopher wrestlers and their respective classes are as follows: Gaalaas, 115 pound; Leahy, 125 pound; Tunnell, 135 pound; Stoner, 145 pound; Brown, 158 pounds; Bailey, 175 pound; and Cooper, heavyweight.

Changes in Rules.

Under a new ruling, championships matches will be single bouts of twelve minutes each instead of three seven minute bouts as heretofore. In case the wrestlers have tied at the end of the twelve minute bout, two three minute bouts may be added. In case neither has a fall, the one who has behind his opponent a minute longer than his opponent has been behind him, wins the match. Otherwise it will be declared a tie.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HEARS W. B. RYONS

The commercial club, Thursday morning heard W. B. Ryons of the First National bank speak. Mr. Ryons gave a very interesting talk dealing with problems of banking and a few inside lights on various financial workings of the business world. He called attention to the fact that a restriction in the amount of deposits about eighteen months ago made borrowing necessary and that it was also necessary to refuse extensions on some of the less needed loans in order to pay the banks' debts. This, he said, caused much hardship and was resented by those who were asked to pay up, hence much of the charges made against banks at present.

After the talk, a short and snappy business meeting was held. It was decided that a smoker for prospective members should be held next Thursday night. The commercial club extends a hearty invitation to all those eligible to membership to attend the smoker. Further announcements will be made in the Daily Nebraskan.

SOPH CO-EDS GUESTS OF THE MORTARBOARDS

The Sophomore girls of the University will be the guests of the Mortar Board at Ellen Smith hall on Saturday from three to five. This will be an excellent opportunity and to spend a very pleasant afternoon.

Every effort has been made and plans are under way to make this an exceptionally attractive party. A program has been prepared and dancing will also help to owle away the hours. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

The Mortar Boards have given several very successful parties during the year for the members of the different classes.

MUSICAL ASSEMBLY HELD FOR STUDENTS

Chorus and Orchestra Present Selections From "Faust" at Memorial Hall.

The second musical convocation of the semester was held in Memorial hall Thursday morning at 11. Selections from Faust by Charles Gounod were presented by the University chorus and orchestra. Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond was the director.

The first musical convocation was held at the time of Rachmaninoff's visit to this city. Yesterday's offering was a second demonstration of the fine work that Mrs. Raymond is doing at the university. The chorus evidenced intensive training. The work had been gone into thoroughly and the result was an adequately rendered program. The soloists were Margaret Perry, Siebel, Lucile Cline, Faust, Francis Diers, Valentine, Archie Jones, Mephistopheles, Oscar Bennett, Mr. Jones and Miss Margaret Perry especially distinguished themselves.

To Mrs. Raymond is due the success of this program. More of her work is anticipated by the student body.

Exhibit In The Art Gallery Open To Students Starting Saturday

Do you know that there is going to be an art exhibit over in the gallery beginning Saturday? Of course you don't. Well there is, and you really should attend. It is going to be perfectly wonderful a whole "go" of pretty pictures painted by genuine artists, some even from Nebraska and one or two from Lincoln.

Not only are these pictures very beautiful but horribly educational. Professors in this university have been known to say that pictures are the main source of education, they neglected to say whether they meant moving pictures or not. It is assumed that they meant the kind of pictures that will be displayed at the art gallery. Now many persons do not appreciate fine art. They can't be blamed because they are in the class of the majority. Unless one is educated up to it, these "high brow" pictures do look like a scientific dab of paint, and getting right down to brass tacks, that's what they are. The artist is scientific in a measure and he mixes this with his artistic ability: Result, pictures. The artist has a picture in mind that he wishes to portray, and being an artist, he "flips" on the paint in a manner that he believes to be artistic and at the same time reproductive and to observers, after completed, it looks like a mess of Denver mud.

They say to be able to appreciate these works of art one must stand at a distance and view it critically. When you are close to the picture is rather hard to figure out, in fact, in most cases, impossible, while at a distance all the fine points can be noted and sometime one can almost tell what the painting is supposed to be.

When this fact is discovered then the thing becomes very interesting. One can find many splendid points and often many humorous ones. It has been said the persons stand for hours before these pictures just finding one new thing after another. How any one can stand before one of these "splashes of color" is more than can be figured out. Just to view it when passing by seems a great sufficiency for any ordinary person.

Now this is not to discourage you, and make you stay away. On the other hand this is to induce you to go and see what you can get out of these pictures. If you can get something out of them the first "pop" you're a thoroughbred. By the way, this is a splendid chance for you to find out just what sort of a "poison" you are.

AMES DUAL TRACK MEET IS TOMORROW

Nebraska Meets Cyclones Saturday Afternoon—Twenty-two Athletes Leave.

Nebraska's track team will leave for Ames today, meeting the Cyclones in a dual indoor meet tomorrow afternoon. The Huskers track team has been working out regularly for three weeks under the watchful eye of Coach Schulte, and is now in fair condition, despite the fact that Schulte has been badly set back by inability of track stars and other handicaps. Reports from the Aggie institution indicate that the Cyclone school is strong, especially in the distance events, and a stiff battle is expected with the odds slightly favoring the Farmers.

Coach Schulte is taking the following athletes to the Ames meet. Capt. Ed. Smith, Carson Fischer, Coats, Nichols, Addison, McDonald, Ted Smith, Hawkins, Davidson, Noble, Deering, Lukens, Gish, Lear, Brown, Turner, Moulton, Hartman, Riddlesberger, and Bowman. One or two other men may also go.

The team leaves at 1:50 on the Burlington, goes to Omaha, where four Omaha medics will join the squad, and then proceeds to Ames on the Northwestern, arriving at Ames Friday night. The meet will be held early Saturday afternoon in the Cyclone gymnasium.

Several Husker athletes are on the hospital list and are unable to participate in the Ames meet. Allen Omaha medic, the star miler of the Scarlet and Cream team, is suffering with an injured leg. Putman, polevaulter has a broken arm. Several other athletes are also on the injured list.

The Nebraska track team has been unable to get into the best of conditions, due to the cold weather which has hindered the outside work, which has resulted from a lack of proper facilities for developing the track team.

The freshmen telegraphic meet competition with Missouri is getting well under way. Records were made in several more events yesterday afternoon. Cohen made the six hundred yard run in 1:15 1-5, while Bloodgood stepped off the 440 dash in 58 1-5 seconds. Parks heaved the shot thirty-eight feet and seven inches. Myers and Creelius ran the fifty yard low hurdles in seven and 1-5 seconds.

KAPPA EPSILON HAS INITIATION FOR TWO

Kappa Epsilon, the honorary pharmaceutical sorority, has initiated to membership Miss Phyllis Roberts and Miss Antonia Stara. An especially high average is necessary to become a member of this society. Mrs. R. A. Lyman and Mrs. J. B. Burt were taken in as associate members at the same time.

KOSMET KLUB PLAY TRYOUTS ARE SOON

Announcements of Date Expected From Committee in the Near Future.

Tryouts for the 1922 Kosmet Klub play, "The Match Makers," will be held within a few days, probably the first part of next week, according to an announcement from the play committee Thursday. All university students in good standing are eligible to try out for a part of one of the leads or a part in the chorus of "The Match Makers," which has been selected for the club production this spring.

The Kosmet Klub has secured the Orpheum theater for the musical comedy on the evening of May 1. Altho this is on a Monday, permission from the university authorities to make an open night, has been secured.

Two nights will probably be used for tryouts, as the number who tried out last year for the play, "The Most Prime Minister" was far too great to be handled satisfactorily in one evening. The cast of the production last spring included several score of university students and was given before a crowded house at the Orpheum on the night before Ivy day. The Kosmet Klub play is an established Nebraska tradition, interrupted only by the war. Plays written by the members have been produced under the auspices of the club for many years.

Alumni of Kosmet have been writing to find out when the play is to be given this spring, as it is always a time when many of them return to the Nebraska campus. The active members have already entertained the alumni this year at a formal supper dance held at the Lincolnshire club in the fall. About thirty of the older members returned.

Earlier in the year, the members planned and took charge of the first inter-fraternity sing held at Nebraska. Several hundred men, representing almost every frat on the campus, came together one evening on the athletic field and sang fraternity songs, Nebraska songs and familiar hits from old Kosmet plays. The Kosmet song in the Cornhusker song book was a favorite.

Men and co-eds who are looking forward to trying out before the committee next week for the 1922 show are urged to watch the Nebraskan in the next few days to find out the exact time and place for the selections.

Bety Riddell, '24, will spend the week-end at her home at Columbus.

Beatrice Koch, '18, of Norfolk, will spend the week-end at the Chi Omega house.

Mrs. Maryelenor Fraser of Denver is visiting at the Pi Beta Phi house for the remainder of the week.

PARIS MEDICAL PAPER PRAISES DR. SCHNEIDER

"Plus fort que Sherlock Holmes" Under the above quoted caption, La Chronique Medicale of Paris (issue of January 1, 1922), speaks in the highest praise of Dr. Schneider's work with the microscope in criminal investigation, citing the case of attempted dynamiting which was traced to the Italian "black hand." Dr. Schneider's work has also received praise from criminologists of other countries, notably those of Italy, Austria and Germany. Paris is contemplating a school for police copied after that of Berkeley, Calif., of which Dr. Schneider has been the dean for six years.

UNI NIGHT PLANS ARE COMPLETED

Doors Open at High School at 7:30 Saturday for Annual Student Fun-fest.

EVENING SHUN IS DISTRIBUTED FREE

Tickets all Sold in an Hour and a Quarter Monday Morning at the Temple.

The complete plans for University night are now ready to be given out according to Chairman J. Wilbur Wolf. The Lincoln high school auditorium has been secured to stage the program. The doors will open at 7:30 and the curtain will rise promptly at 8:15.

The organizations who are to have skits on this night have been practicing for several weeks and the results are very encouraging. Chairman Wolf stated that the program will consist of five large skits and four curtain acts. Arrangements have been made to have the program proceed in the minimum time. Walton B. Roberts has charge of the property and due to his extensive experience in handling property it is predicted that no confusion will be had.

Numerous calls have been made since Monday for tickets. The tickets were placed on sale at the Temple Monday morning at 11 o'clock, and it is said that the tickets were all sold out by 12:15. Only 1,275 tickets were placed on sale so the sales did not take long. It has also been brought out that anyone that does not hold a ticket will not be admitted to the program. In other words no tickets will be sold at the door.

This year the committee decided to apportion the tickets among the faculty, ag. students and the main campus students. In this way each one has equal opportunity to be represented at the program.

DRAKE BASKETBALL CONTEST TOMORROW

Cornhuskers to Meet Bulldogs at Des Moines, Iowa, in Cage Battle.

The Scarlet and Cream basketballers invade the Drake cage tomorrow, meeting the Drake tossers on the Bulldog court at Des Moines Saturday night. As Drake is holding third place and Nebraska fourth place in the Valley race, with a margin of one game separating the two, a hotly contested battle is expected. If the usker cagesters can take the measure of the Bulldog crew, Nebraska will advance into third place in the conference standings, with only Missouri and Kansas heading them.

Coach Frank is putting the Husker basket shooters through a series of strenuous practices at the coliseum in preparation for the Drake contest Saturday. The varsity went through a stiff scrimmage with the yearlings yesterday afternoon. The Husker team has been strengthened by several new combinations, in which Tip-ton, forward, and Riddlesberger, guard, play a strong part. The "commanding captain, Austin Smith, is expected to take part in the contest Saturday with the speedy Bulldog

COMMITTEES FOR SENIOR CLASS OUT

President Ebersole Announces Committees at Thursday's Class Meeting.

MINOR OFFICERS CHOSEN BY CLASS

Harold Holtz, Alumni Secretary Tells of Plans for 1922 Alumni Week in June.

The first senior class meeting for this semester was held yesterday at 11 o'clock, at which time the minor class officers were elected and the senior committees were given out by Eugene Ebersole. The officers elected were as follows:

Vice president, Ruth Lindsay, secretary-treasurer, Margaret Henderson; sergeant-at-arms, Monte Munn

Harold Holtz, alumni secretary, spoke on the plans for the alumni week to be held in the spring and told how the senior class should take the lead to carry this movement to a successful completion. The senior class not only has the students perspective but they should also strive to see the attitude at which the alumni look at university affairs because they will soon be numbered among the latter. The underclassmen especially, emphasize the individual, organization to which they may belong while the upperclassmen learn to consider the university as a whole. Mr. Holtz is working to have a reunion between the alumni and the senior class at which he hopes that the senior class may act as host to their visitors. The ordinary graduates do not feel the true effect of being alumni until they have been out at least four years and by thus bringing the senior class and the alumni together the new graduates will find their connection with the rest of the alumni sooner. This will lead to a closer cooperation and a more active alumni body which is greatly needed at Nebraska.

Too many of our people have a mistaken conception of the student life at the university and it is one of the most important factors which tends to retard the university's growth and cut down the appropriations upon which the development of the university and the securing of a capable corps of instructors depends. The seniors must learn to sell their university and represent it as they know it should be represented.

A meeting of the general student committee will be held next week and further plans will be made for all the classes. A special senior committee will be appointed by President Ebersole to handle the matter for the senior class though all will be asked to co-operate with this committee.

The other committees appointed by Ebersole are as follows: Ivy day—Andrew Schoepel, chairman; Helen Hovland, Chalmers Seymour, Walter Gass, Bryce Crawford, Madeline Stenger, Edward Kokes, Clara Dickerson. Men's athletics—Glen Munger, chairman; John Pickett, James Wilson, Byron Dorn. Women's athletics—Lorena Hitchcock, chairman; Hazel Muzzy, Eiva Krogh.

Class gift—Nancy Pennoyer, chairman; Robert Eastwood, Martin Kreuger. Picnic—Asa Hepperley, chairman; Harry Howarth, Wallace Herrick, Sheldon, Mary; George Salter, Alice Stevens, Pauline Starrett. Hop—Ward Randol, chairman; Roy Gustafson, Isabelle McMonies, Izzie Pearsall, Everett Northrup. Cap and Gown—Margaret Henderson, chairman; William Davis, Robert Hardt.

Social—Vivian Hanson, chairman; Rita Atkinson, Jessie Tucker, Mildred Johnson, Harold Burke, Anna Mary Patterson, Ellery Frost. Invitations—Mary Thomas, chairman; Frances Burt, Herbert Gish.

Inter Frat Basketball All fraternities entering the inter-frat basketball tournament, must have their entrance fees in the athletic office or with John Pickett by noon today.
