

HUSKER MERMAIDS TO STAGE CONTEST

W. A. A. to Sponsor Swimming Meet Wednesday Evening at High School Pool.

Has the University of Nebraska any real mermaids? News of life saving tests and night classes comes from the Women's Athletic Association, but are there any swimmers who can come out ahead in a city wide meet? And there must be many good swimmers who have not had time to join the regular night classes. For this reason the W. A. A. is going to help stage a real meet for women swimmers, Wednesday night, March 15 at the high school pool.

There will be seven events, of which each entrant is limited to register for four. The one who comes out first in each event will be awarded an Annette Kellerman bathing suit, with prizes going to the second and third of each event. The grand prize of the evening is the large silver, Annette Kellerman cup. All registration for the meet will take place at Gold and company, through whose courtesy the prizes are given.

The women's athletic association in charge of the meet are: Sue Sullivan, chairman; Dorothy Teal, Francis Gable, Lois Pederson, Ruth Fickles.

Play That Has Had Long Runs In New York To Come Here

Each year in the theatrical world one play invariably stands out head and shoulders above all the other attractions. The past year that distinction fell to "The Bat" the dramatic triumph, written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood. Not only has "The Bat" run for one entire year in New York, but it is still going on, playing to capacity audiences nightly. In Chicago, too, it is a great success.

"The Bat" will be seen at the Orpheum Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, March 13th and 14th and theatregoers who have long been hearing of the success of this play will undoubtedly welcome the announcement. Assuredly a play that has received such universal praise from both critics and public alike, will be well worth the seeing.

"The Bat" is presented by Wagenhals and Kemper. They have an enviable reputation in the theatrical world as producers of successes. With "The Bat", they have brought all their skill to play and the result is, as one critic put it, "a production that will keep you talking for months after it has been here and gone."

"The Bat" is a super mystery play. But it is something else as well. Running through it is one of the funniest and altogether delightfully humorous characters ever depicted on the stage. Thanks to this element in "The Bat", while it will thrill you through and through, it will, at the same time, keep you in almost constant laughter.

The production of "The Bat" to be seen here is exactly the same as that in New York and Chicago. The Company is an excellent one.

CLASSES TO STAGE LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Political Science Classes to be Solos for One Evening of Legislative Experience.

A full legislative session, with all the trimmings and a real legal atmosphere, is the program of five classes in Government of the Political Science Department for Thursday night. The solos will gather at 7 o'clock in S. S. 1070 and the gavel will open the session exactly on the hour.

The meeting is the outgrowth of a movement in the political science department to "learn by doing." Preparations for the session tonight have been in the hands of a committee of fifteen students representing all the classes. The arrangements are being thoroughly worked out and a realistic meeting is forecasted by the committee in charge.

The work will be under the supervision of Mr. Ralph Mosely, a former Nebraska university student now practicing law in Lincoln. Mr. Mosely has been a member of the last three legislatures and has had much experience in legislative procedure.

Beginning with the taking up of the session, the embryo legislators will go through the entire procedure of the passing of bills. Measures are to be introduced by the various members of the classes in attendance and a great variety of very serious as well as some humorous laws will be passed.

The committee is expecting a full attendance of members at the session and they are trying to work up incentive for a number of guests to furnish the lobby effect of the usual legislative scenes. The work is scheduled to begin at 7 o'clock and the session should be over at about 9 o'clock.

The committees in charge of the mock session from the classes of Prof. Senning and Prof. Noble are: Thomas Garrett, Raymond Lundeen, Robert F. Craig, Carleton J. Cain, Charles Edwards, Raymond Eller, James Fiddock, Tudor Gardner, Seymour Smith, Charlotte Young, Martin Herr, Miss Margolin, Miss Uhlir.

DEADLINE WEDNESDAY FOR ANNUAL PICTURES

Third and Fourth Year Students Are Urged to Make Appointments at Once.

Wednesday, March 15, is the deadline for individual junior and senior pictures for the 1922 Cornhusker. This ultimatum was announced by the Cornhusker management yesterday afternoon.

Every third and fourth year student in the university is urged to make an appointment at Townsend's at once for an individual picture for the junior and senior sections.

Sittings may be reserved at the Townsend studio at any hour of the morning or afternoon except at the noon hour, when group pictures are being taken. It will only take a few minutes of the student's time to sit for the individual pictures. Three poses are taken and the student then chooses the best proof for a print.

Special inducements for a dozen or half a dozen finished pictures are being made by Townsend's for members of the two upperclasses who are having their pictures taken for the Cornhusker.

Juniors and seniors are not urged to have to their pictures taken from the point of view of "being a good fellow" or with a "be one-of-the-boys" attitude.

Members of these classes should feel that the class is not complete without their pictures. They should feel proud to be able to have their picture inserted in the annual as a member of the "survivors" in the upper classes. They should consider that later on in life the absence of their pictures in the class sections of the annual will be noticeable.

One week more is left in which to make an appointment with Townsend. Juniors and seniors are urged to jot this down and see Mr. Townsend at once.
